TIME . . .

For Students is measured through the seasons of their high school years. When did it begin for us? Time was present on those first nippy September mornings with the anticipation of another new year that lay before us. It continued in fall as the football season spread its excitement on crisp nights of October and November when we united at games in loyalty. Silently it changed into winter and we settled down to a routine schedule of studies and exams. Soon February slipped over the calendar, and March and April brought times of parties, baseball and the anxiety to complete the year. And though the month of May carried the hustle of last minute tasks, each student had time to stop and reflect upon the activities of the year which seemed to pass so quickly for many. With the last day at school, graduation, and the arrival of the summer vacation, a realization became reality . . . the time which had been ever-present was gone. In Sam Houston's first summer annual, the '67 Cherokee staff has attempted to record an account of "Time and the Seasons" of our first year in 4A.

"Hmm, while nobody is looking I'll see if I can balance these books, just to keep a check on my posture," decides Mrs. Clark who formerly taught physical education.

Still up in the clouds, Mrs. Louise Clark has yet to get over her giggles from receiving the dedication of the 1967 Cherokee. Mrs. Clark described her state of being and also the symptoms that have been occurring. An example was Saturday after the announcement of the dedication when she was dreamingly driving her car and a Mustang got in her way. To make a long story short, her car now has one big dent.

Mrs. Clark earned a Bachelors Degree, majoring in Physical Education and minoring in Library Science. After teaching for 17 years she decided to switch to librarian's position.

In the past four years Mrs. Clark has watched the library grow from 3400 books to 6200 books plus the increase of audio-visual aids. Many times each day, petite Mrs. Clark can be seen supervising her 32 library assistants, aiding teachers with projectors, or helping students locate reading material.

So it is with great pride that the 1967 Cherokee annual staff dedicates this edition to Mrs. Louise Clark.

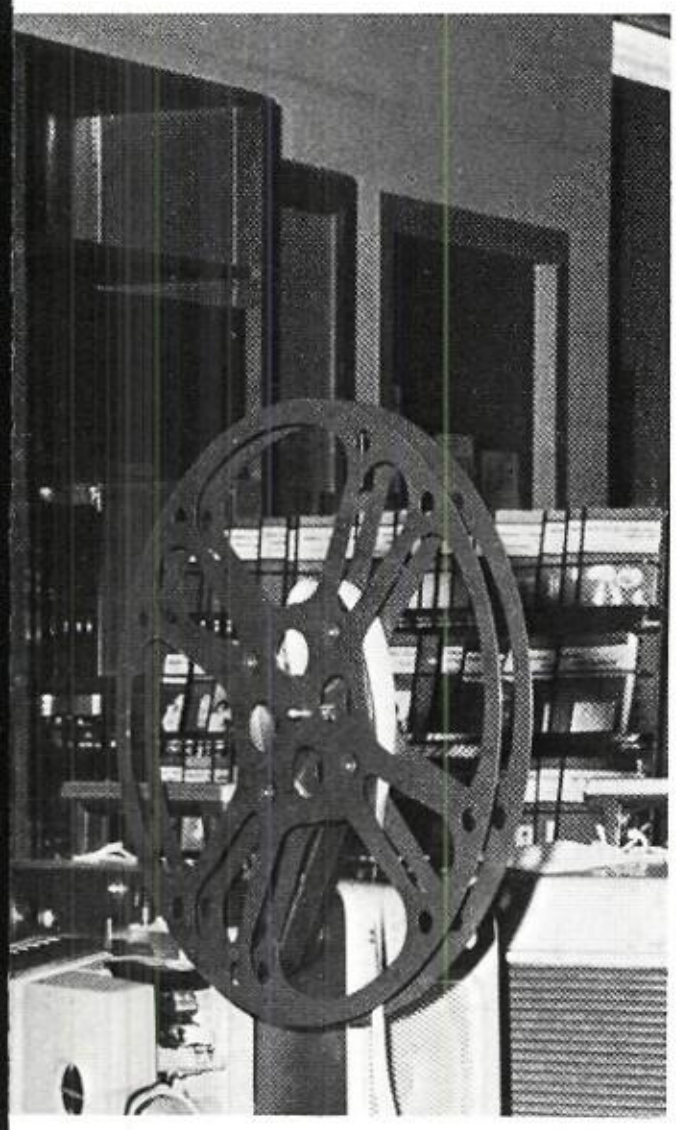
1967 Cherokee Staff

Divising a new method of film rewinding, Mrs. Clark sets up a projector, another job under her supervision.

With a friendly smile, Mrs. Clark aids students in using facilities to the best advantage.

Mrs. Clark is pleased as new books continue to fill the library.

Chooses Librarian For Dedication



Helping students find necessary books in the card catalogue is only one of many jobs which keeps Mrs. Clark busy as librarian.

Jeannie Named Miss SHHS

Sam Houston students associate the words vivacious and enthusiastic with Jeannie Brinson. From the gym floor to the football field, Jeannie led her schoolmates cheering their teams to victory or boosting morales in defeat. Because of her tireless spirit Jeannie became Miss School Spirit for 1967.

In her leading role as Jan Morrow, in the junior play "Pillow Talk", Jeannie kept the audiences laughing. A junior favorite nominee, she was also a homecoming queen nominee in her senior year. A past president of Tri-Hi-Y, Jeannie worked actively in Honor Society and other clubs.

For her continuous interest in all phases of school life, Jeannie is Sam Houston's third Miss SHHS.

Hud Leads As Mr. SHHS

Upon graduation "Hud", as his classmates nicknamed him, will step into history as not just a representative of his school, but as a leader of it.

Constantly in the halls, Mike's warm smile and greeting kept the tradition of "In the halls of Sam Houston there is no stranger."

Mike set many firsts at Big Sam. Among them being elected both Mr. School Spirit and Mr. SHHS in the same year.

His many activities include being president of the student body, National Honor Society, and Key Club. Mike, a senior favorite nominee, acted as bellguard, this year. Mike's past duties include being vice-president of the junior class and an AFS brother.

For these reasons and his untiring effort for his school Mike Huddleston is the 1967 Mr. Sam Houston High School.

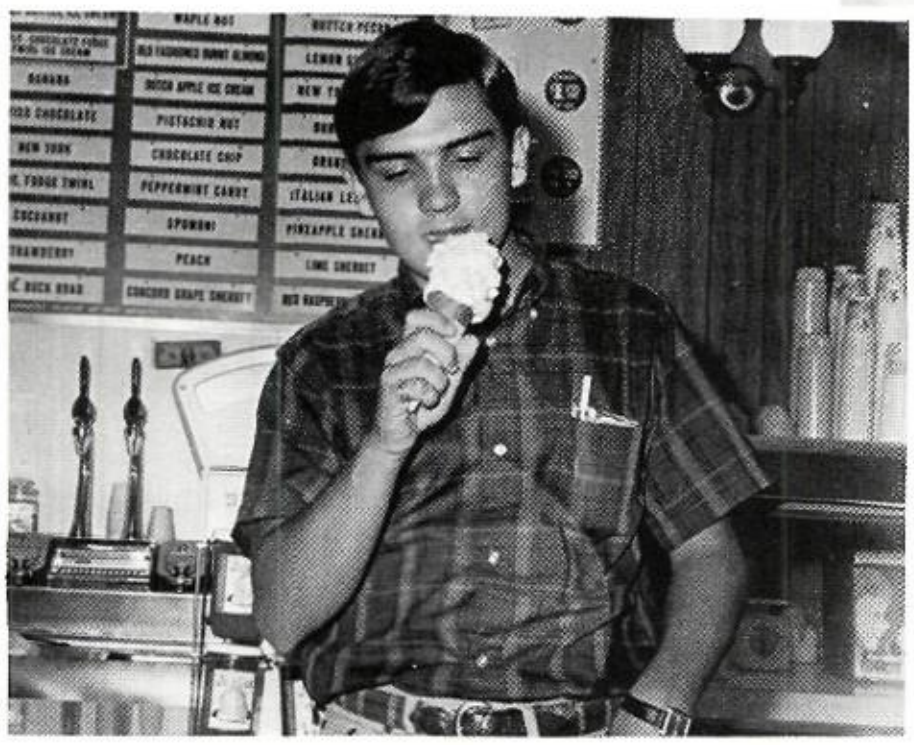
Luis Quickly Adjusts To American Ways

Luis Sellera, traveling almost 6,000 miles from Madrid, Spain, entered Sam Houston as its third foreign exchange student. He lived with his American family the R. F. Johannesens, becoming the "adopted" brother of Robert Johannesen, senior. At home, he entertained, singing and playing his guitar. To Luis, Americans seemed to enjoy a busy life and soon he was no exception. He shared many moments with Texans—the five-minute rush between classes, spirit-filled pep rallies, dances, football games, homecoming, and prom to name a few. Big Sam will long remember its Spanish Texan, Luis Sellera.

Coming up the stairs at the Dallas bus terminal August 21 to meet his brothers and sisters, Luis Selleras carries a traditional cowboy hat presented to him by AFS.



Enjoying an American treat, Luis quickly adjusted to the American and Texan, way of life.

Steele, Parker Acknowledged In Fall Assembly

Fall assemblies offered entertainment and education. Judge Jackson promoted interest in the teen jury and encouraged safe driving in one assembly. In another, students saw films on Viet Nam and received a first-hand account of conditions there from Chaplain Bill Moody. During sophomore and junior testing days, seniors heard speakers answer many questions about colleges. The Air Force band provided a change of pace by performing "West Side Story" and other selections in their program; The choir sang in the Thanksgiving assembly and also Bonnie Steele and Paul Parker received the "Youth of the Week" awards from the Optimist club.

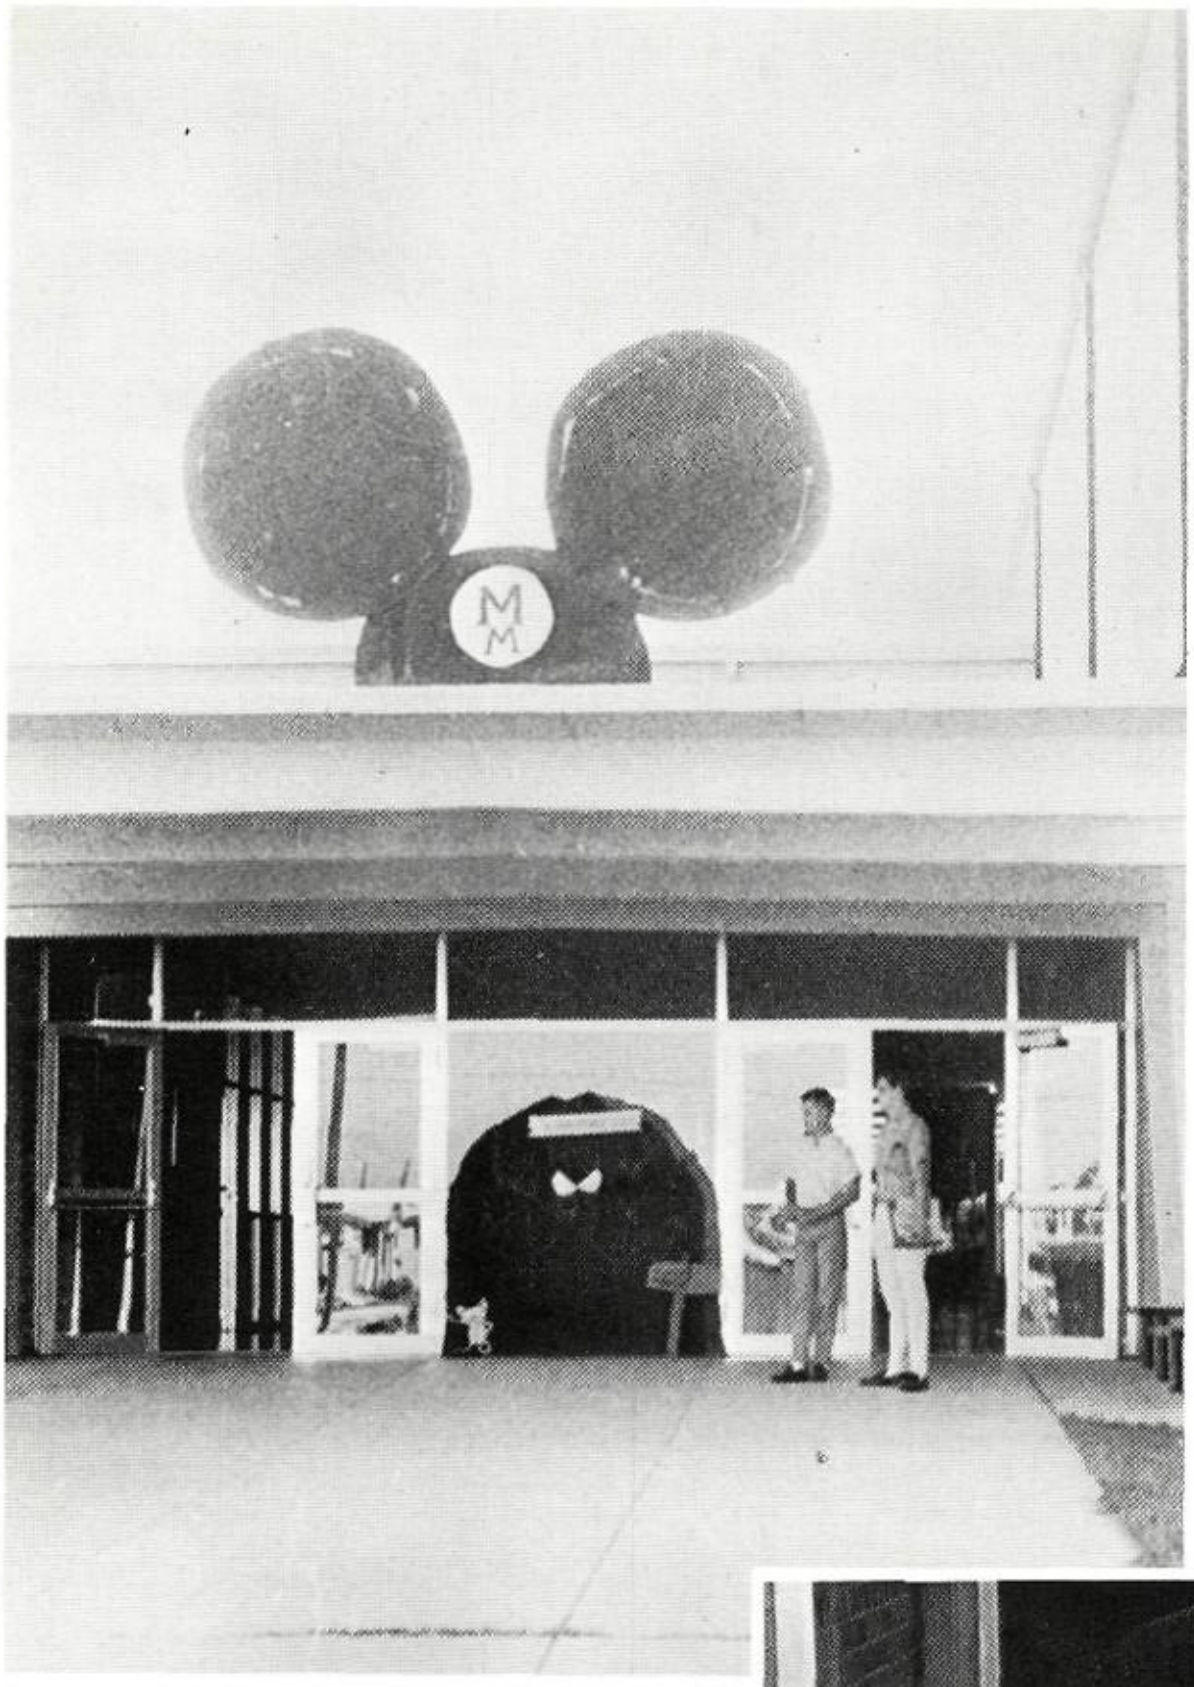
Flutes sounded as the US Air Force Band played a selection from "West Side Story".

"Hold your head up high" sings Gary Noble in the choirs Thanksgiving program.

Presenting Optimist Awards to Bonnie Steele and Paul Parker is Mike Huddleston.

Displaying the Vietnamese crossbow and arrows which Chaplain Bill Moody used in his speech about Vietnam are Sandy Bedard and Sandi Pierce.

Explaining college English to seniors is Professor Goyne of ASC.



"If I could only hide in that mouse hole," comments a scared sophomore on Big Sam Day.

"Who've you got? Hey! We're in the same class." Familiar phrases like these are probably uttered by every student on registration day. Standing in line offers time to talk of new schedules and teachers while reuniting with friends and classmates. For many, registration is also a chance to find their classes, in hopes of not becoming completely lost the first day. This is especially true of the 610 new students who entered as the sophomore class.

After experiencing a new high school life for a few weeks, these students are "initiated" by the upperclassmen and teachers on Big Sam Day. They must obey the commands of their superior classes by singing the fight song. Each year, with the donning of the traditional mouse ears, Big Sam Day begins. This day not only helps to unite the whole student body, but it also introduces and welcomes the sophomore class.

Seniors have to sing too," reminds Miss Peveto as Big Sam students observe traditional welcome.

"I wonder if he gives pop tests," ponders Edith Klaxmeier.

Growing junior enrollment results in long lines on registration day.

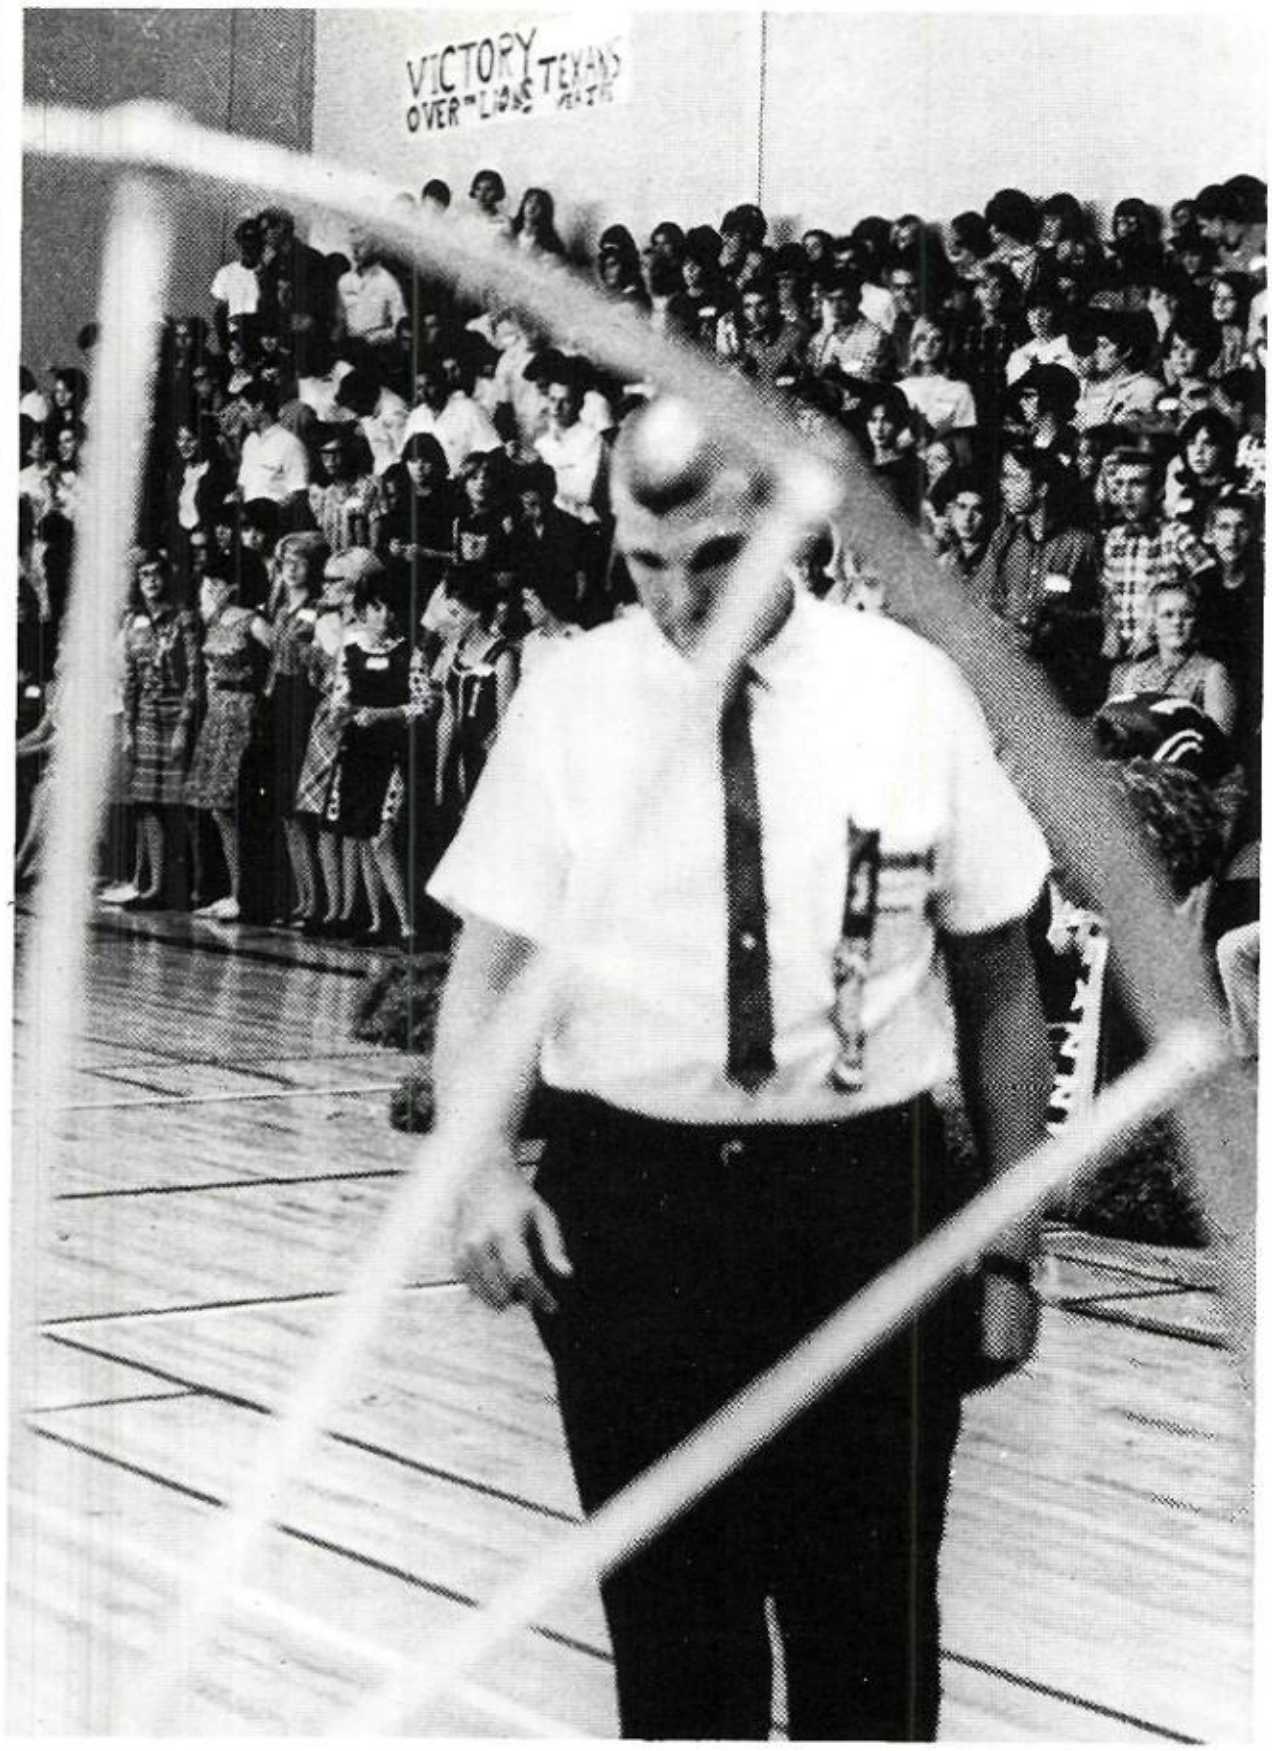
Texans united in the crowded bleachers of the gym for pep rallies that reflected the school spirit Sam Houston is known to possess. In the rallies, efforts of many—cheerleaders, bell guards, the choir, band, and pep squad—promoted enthusiasm.

Coaches and counselors gave boosting speeches, and for the first time, surprised individuals were chosen to give impromptu pep talks. The "spirit balloon", another first, was blown by Steve Campbell and Tom Hicks. Texans will remember the rally in which Coach Adams "flew" in as a cardinal. In others, Gary Gansert was freed from the Texan Spirit Can and Mr. James Crouch was a football player. They'll recall competition in winning the spirit stick and will cherish solemn moments of the Alma Mater.

New Traditions Boost Spirit



Coach Darland prepares to give a pep talk, a new addition to pep rallies this year.

Captains for the MacArthur game, Don Kirby, Hal Perry, Bob Bailey, and David Farhat display the victory flag.

Enthusiasm is the key to spirit, expressed by Janet Shelton and the newly formed pep squad.

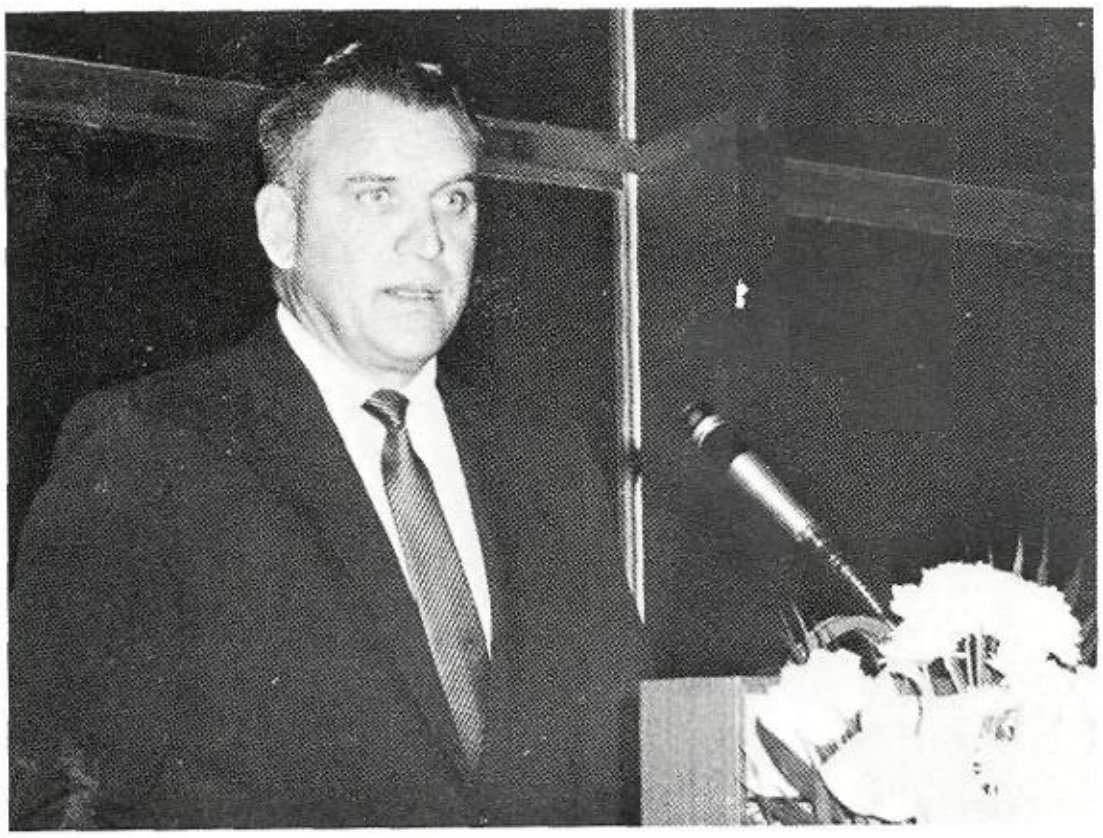
Texans Enter 4-A Competition

Preparing players for a game, Carl Crofford tapes a knee.

Texans got off to a slow start in 4-AAAA football this year as Sam Houston moved into stiff competition, facing top-rated teams. Putting forth their best effort to meet this challenge, Texans played each game with a full team effort. Practice began in August and was held every day throughout the season. These work-outs proved effective for the B Team, finishing with a 6-3 season record. Sam Houston varsity ended its first fall in District 4-AAAA football with a 1-3 district mark and a 4-5 season total.

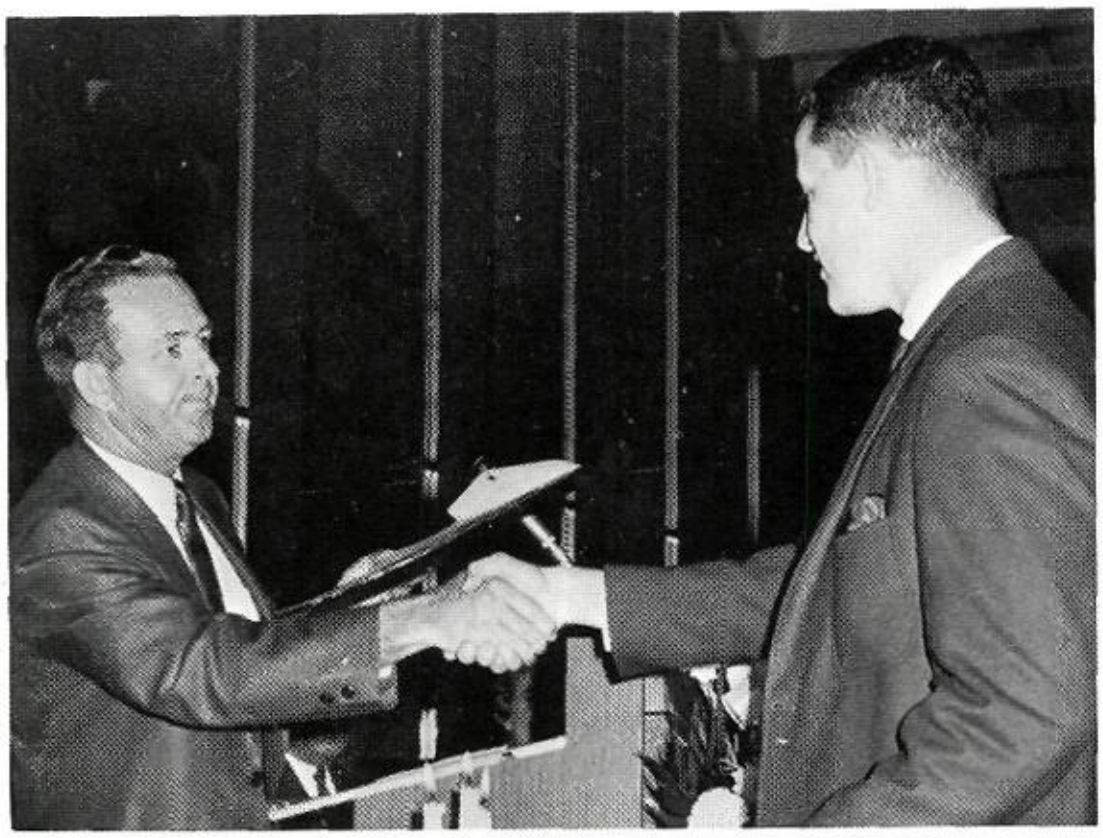


Glenn Gossett, Coach at SMU, spoke at the Football Banquet.

"Team Spirit" and "Pride" as factors in producing a winning team were emphasized at the third annual Sam Houston High School Football Banquet held December 10. Glenn Gossett, guest speaker from SMU, stressed that a person should not give up a job until the job is completely done.

Another highlight of the program was the presentation of the Sportsmanship Award to David Farhat, senior offensive end, by George Tuttle. The Banquet was held at the Arlington Recreation Center.

Lions Club Sponsors Football Banquet



Accepting the Sportsmanship Award from Mr. George Tuttle is David Farhat.

Holding plaques for outstanding play during the 1966 season are: David Farhat, sportsmanship award; Mike McMillan, outstanding back and most valuable player; and Kenny Hodge, outstanding lineman. These awards were presented by Coach Elo Nohavitza (l.) and George Tuttle, business manager of Arlington Public Schools.

Four Make All-District

Big Sam's first season in 4-AAAA football ended with the naming of four all-district players. Kenny Hodge, senior received his all-district rank for outstanding play at the defensive guard position. Receiving an all-district rating for his exceptional play in the offensive and defensive backfield was Mike McMillan, senior. Jim Cunningham, junior, earned his position on the all-district team for his play as defensive line-backer. With hard-hitting play at the offensive guard position, John Allen, senior, earned his all-district rank.

All-district honors this year went to Mike McMillan, John Allen, (bottom row); Kenny Hodge and Jim Cunningham (top row)

Sam Houston's B Team had a record of 6 wins and 3 losses. Their season started off with an 8-0 victory over Northside. They then proceeded to run over Carter-Riverside 33-8. Grand Prairie and Richland came with hard losses of 14-13 and 20-6. The Texan B-Teamers faced MacArthur next and won 12-9. Castleberry with a two point conversion after touchdown won 8-7. Big Sam's B's beat Bell 26-6. Nolan forfeited, crediting the Texans with the win. In the final game of the season the B's defeated Poly 12-0.

Homecoming is climaxed as Nancy Cox, '66 queen, crowns Sharon Huebsch, escorted by Steve Zirblis.

Receiving the honor of first runner-up is Bonnie Steele, escorted by Mike Gillingham.

Homecoming—a symbol of the fall season and reminder of passing time—climaxed football games in Sam Houston's first year of 4-A competition. In the pep rally, exes participated in skits giving flashbacks of their high school days. At the end of the day, they attended a reception held by the National Honor Society and exes gathered at the Cibola Inn for a banquet before the game.

Stepping from a line of 20 nominees, Sharon Huebsch was crowned 1966 Homecoming Queen. Selected as first runner-up for the title was Bonnie Steele.

Interact members, selected from letters submitted to club officers, performed services to school and community. Hand tools and equipment were sent to help orphans at El Rancho Del Rey in Mexico. Another project was collecting canned goods for the Samaritans at Christmas.

Sponsoring the annual powder puff game Interact raised $150 for use in projects. Adapting the phrase, "When the Goin' gets tough, the tough get goin'", junior girls worked out after school perfecting ingenious plays. The battle was a rough one, but seniors were victorious with a 16-8 score.

Band Participates in 1st 4-A Season

Sam Houston's band sparked the pep rallies with enthusiasm, and supported winning or losing football and basketball teams.

The 90-piece band under the direction of Mr. Robert Rober traveled to Enid, Oklahoma for the National Band Festival in May.

Competing in the 4-A division at Denton for the first time, six band members were placed in the all-region band.

Band members await the blow of the whistle to begin marching during a morning drill on the parking lot.

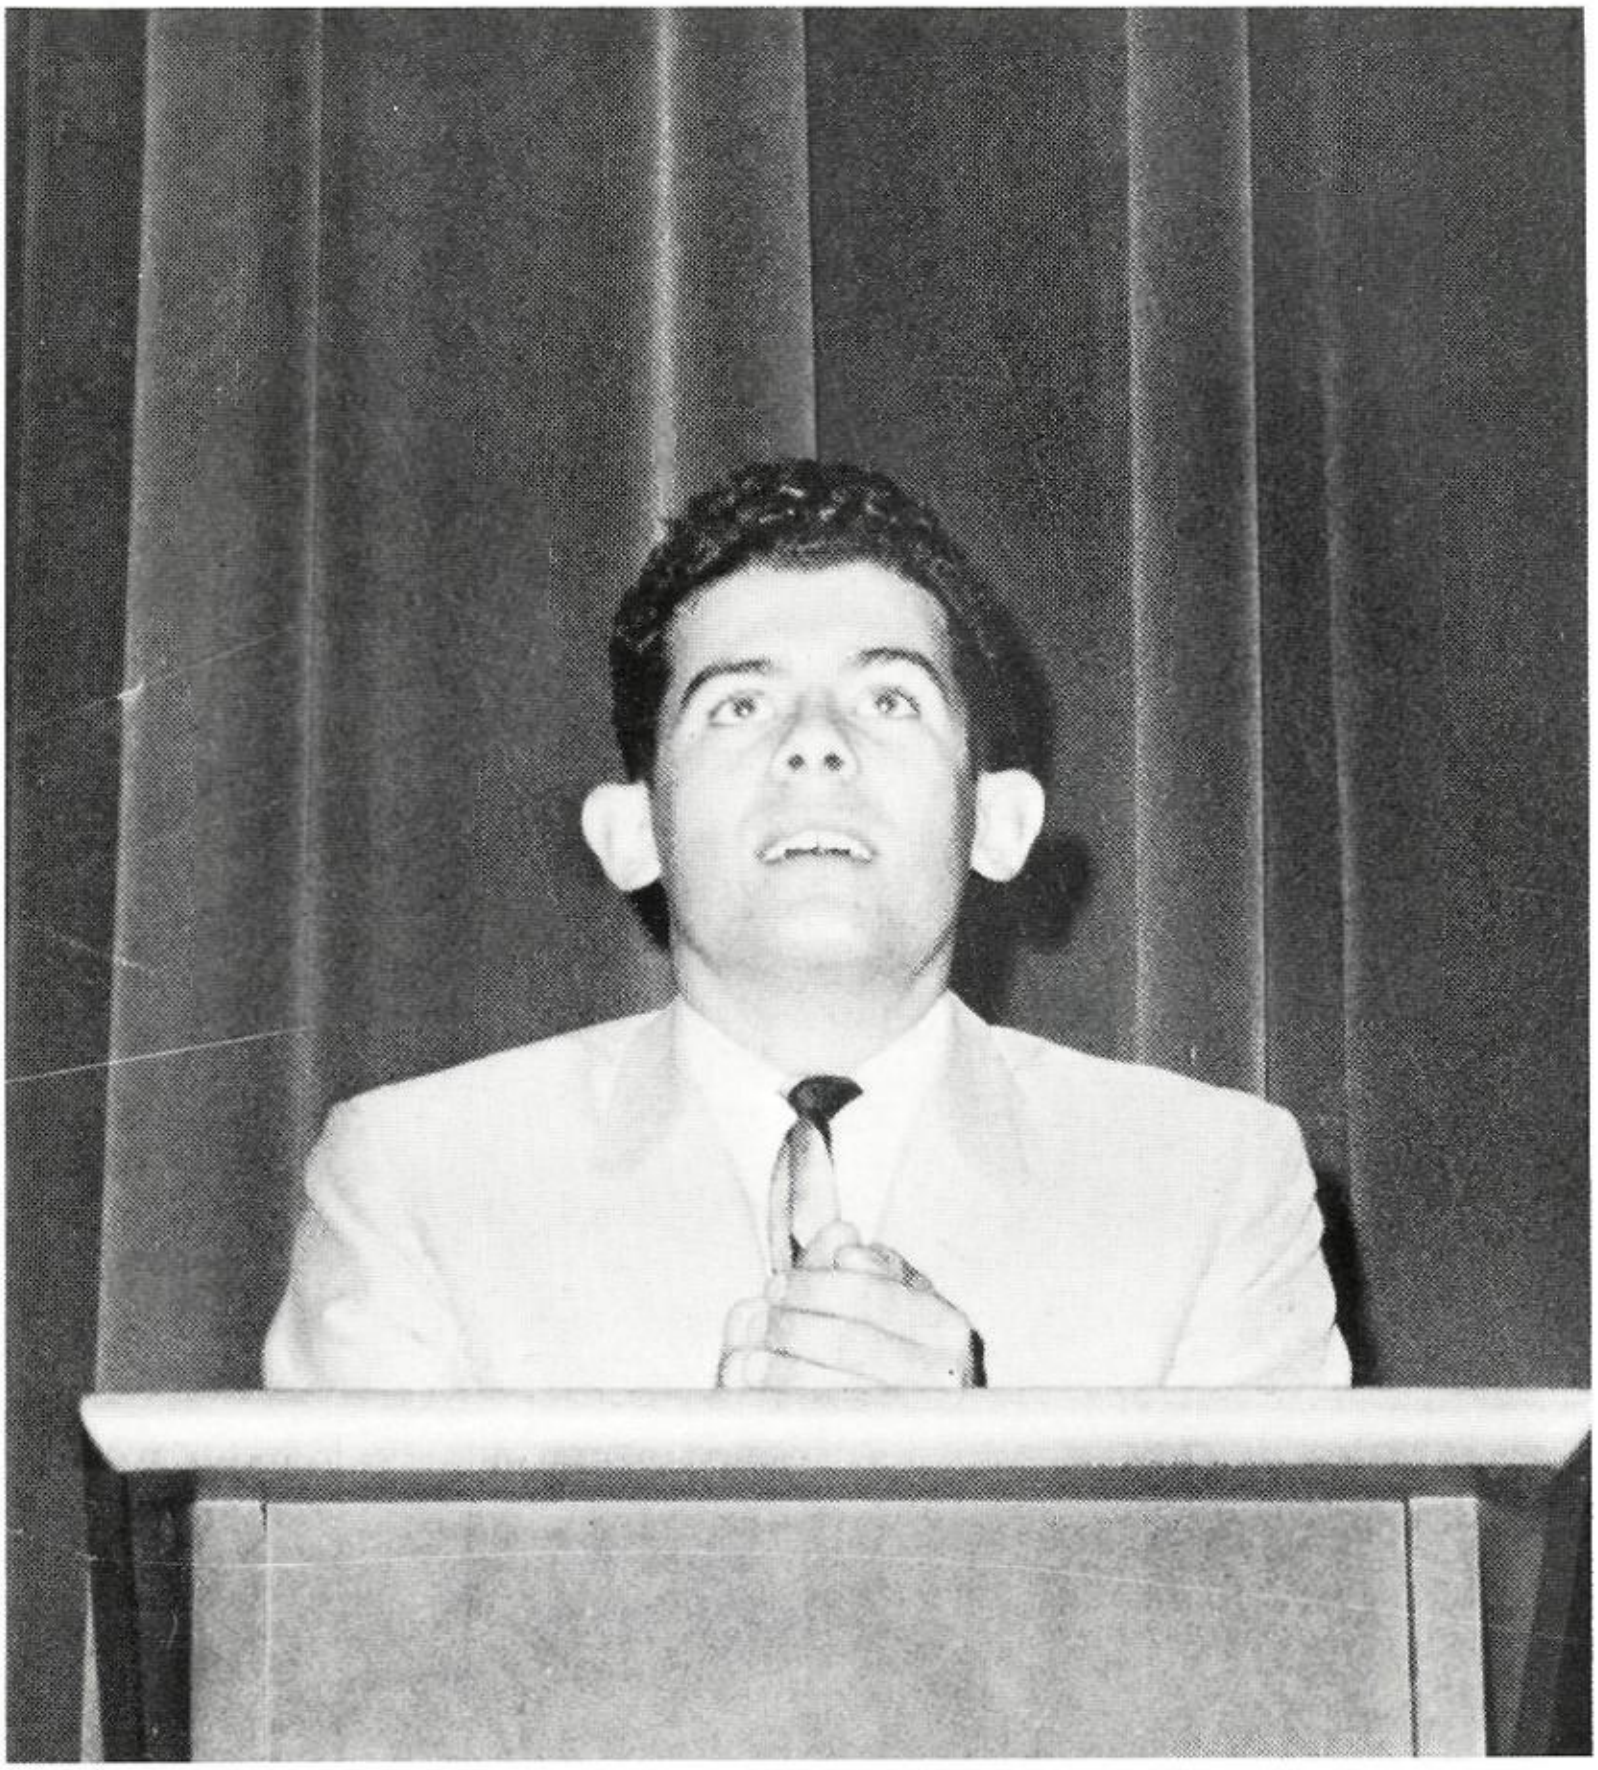
Stage Band Presents Program to Students

Reflecting talents in jazz music, members of the stage band performed in school concerts, dances and band contests. Activities included competition in the Castleberry, Stephenville, and Enid tournaments. Also, as a first in public schools of Arlington, the group hosted guest bands in a jazz concert March 10.

Practicing for a coming performance are stage band members Ronny Morris and Joe Sustrick on sax, Steve Musser and Mike Schafernocker on trombone, and Sean McAlister and Jim Daughtery on trumpet.



MIKE HUDDLESTON, Student Council President

Big Sam in its first 4A year has had many new challenges, and has met these challenges, with the true spirit that Sam Houston Texans should possess. This year Big Sam has achieved some "first" and in the years to come it can establish many more.

The 66-67 school year has been extra special to me because I have had the honor of serving as president of this student body. I would like to thank each student for his loyalty and his support in making this year the success it has been.

"Things go better with Coca-Cola," hams Bonnie Steele while Nancy Crofford and Becky Wilkerson sell cokes and candy for the Student Council during basketball games.

Beautification Tops Student Council Agenda

"Being the only ones to know is certainly worth all this trouble," thinks Suzzi Crouch, secretary, as David Farhat, vice-president, and Mike Huddleston, president, help her count ballots.

Undertaking the beautification of Sam Houston as its project for the year, the Student Council planted trees and shrubbery around the school and made blueprints for future landscaping. They accomplished this through donations and a school-wide magazine sale.

Council members also kept busy selling cokes at all home basketball games. With this money they bought 14 blue blazers for athletes and other students to wear when representing the school.

As a governing body the student council planned homecoming and conducted discussions on a summer annual.

They held elections for new 1967 officers in the spring. The executive board attended the Texas State Student Council's convention, representing Sam Houston as a new 4-A school.

With Friday afternoon deadlines Mrs. Annell Ward, journalism sponsor, discusses stories and cuts with Nanci Bishop, co-editor, and Bunny Alexander, associate editor.

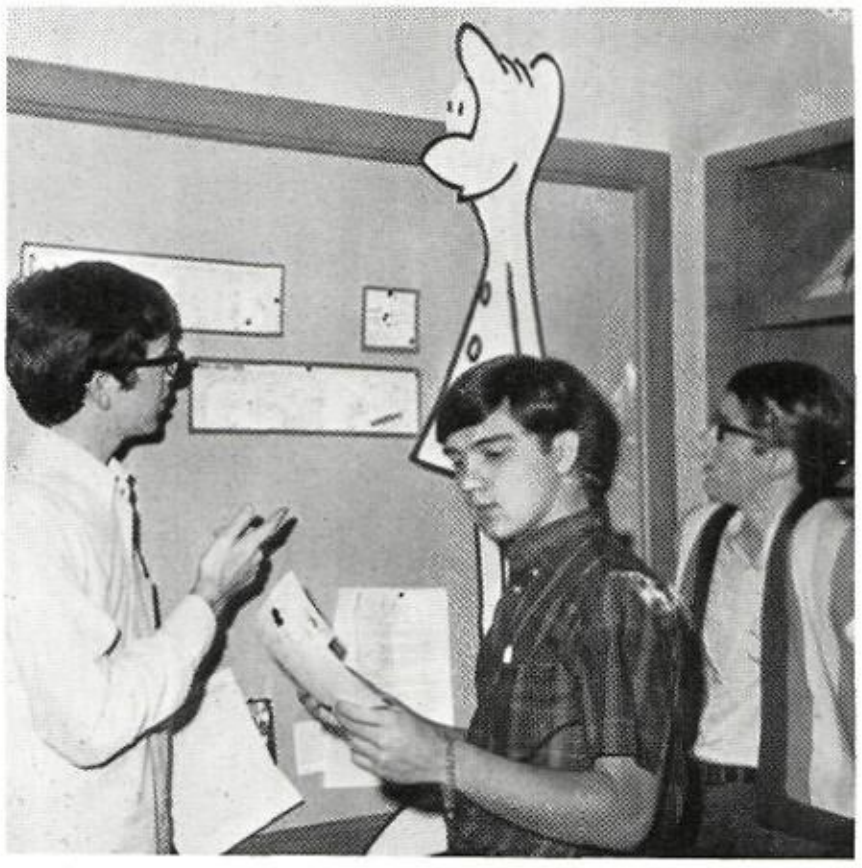
As Annette Dahlman, co editor, types her story Sharon Horton, activities editor, and Kathy Robinson, feature editor proofread.

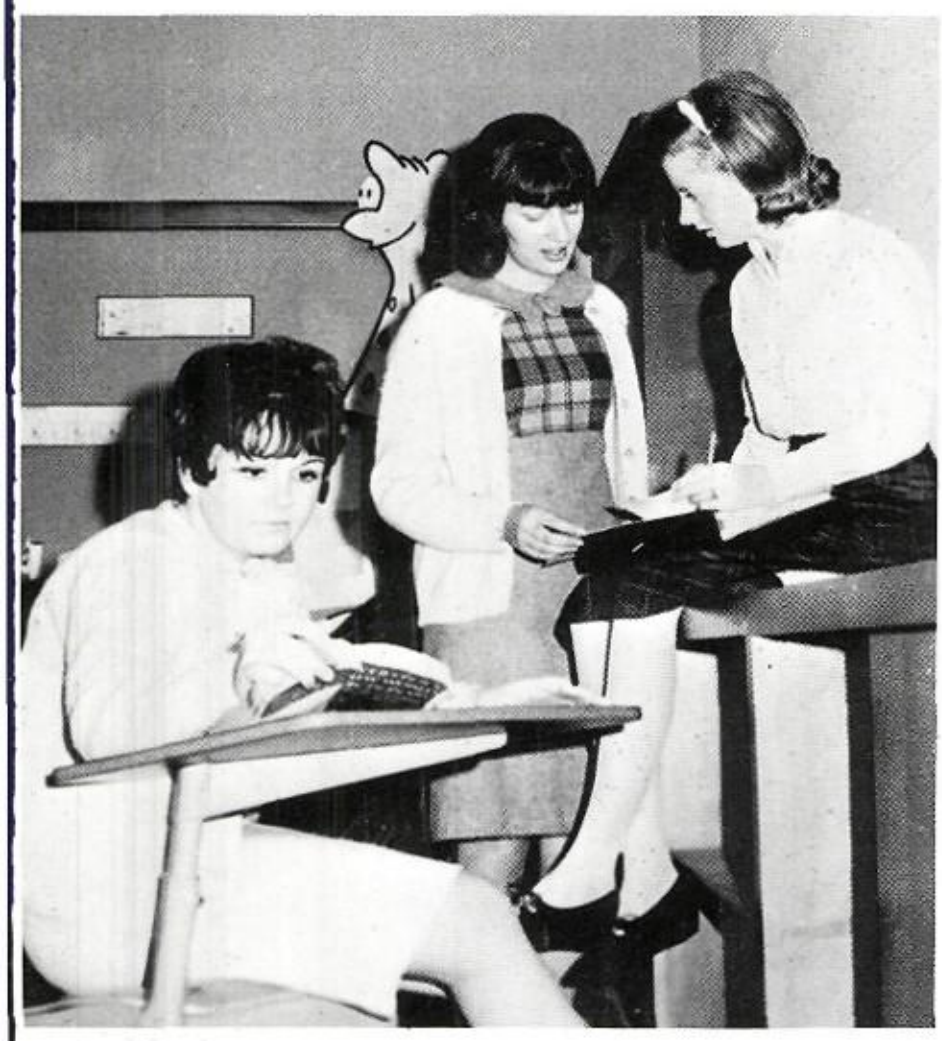
"Talk" Covers 1st 4-A Year

Publishing an All-Texas rated newspaper in their first 4-A year, 15 "Texans Talk" staff members with the aid of Mrs. Annell Ward edited new stories, wrote features and editorials, drew cartoons, cropped pictures, and sold ads. An added feature of the year in journalism is the trips to Denton and Austin for press conventions.

Looking over business ledgers Tommy O'Neal, advertising manager, and Sue Witte, business manager, reviews ad sales while Colleen Colley, circulation manager, prepares exchange papers.



Gerald Blow, cartoonist, explains American humor to Luis Sellera, columnist, as Mike Mitchell, sports reporter, looks on.



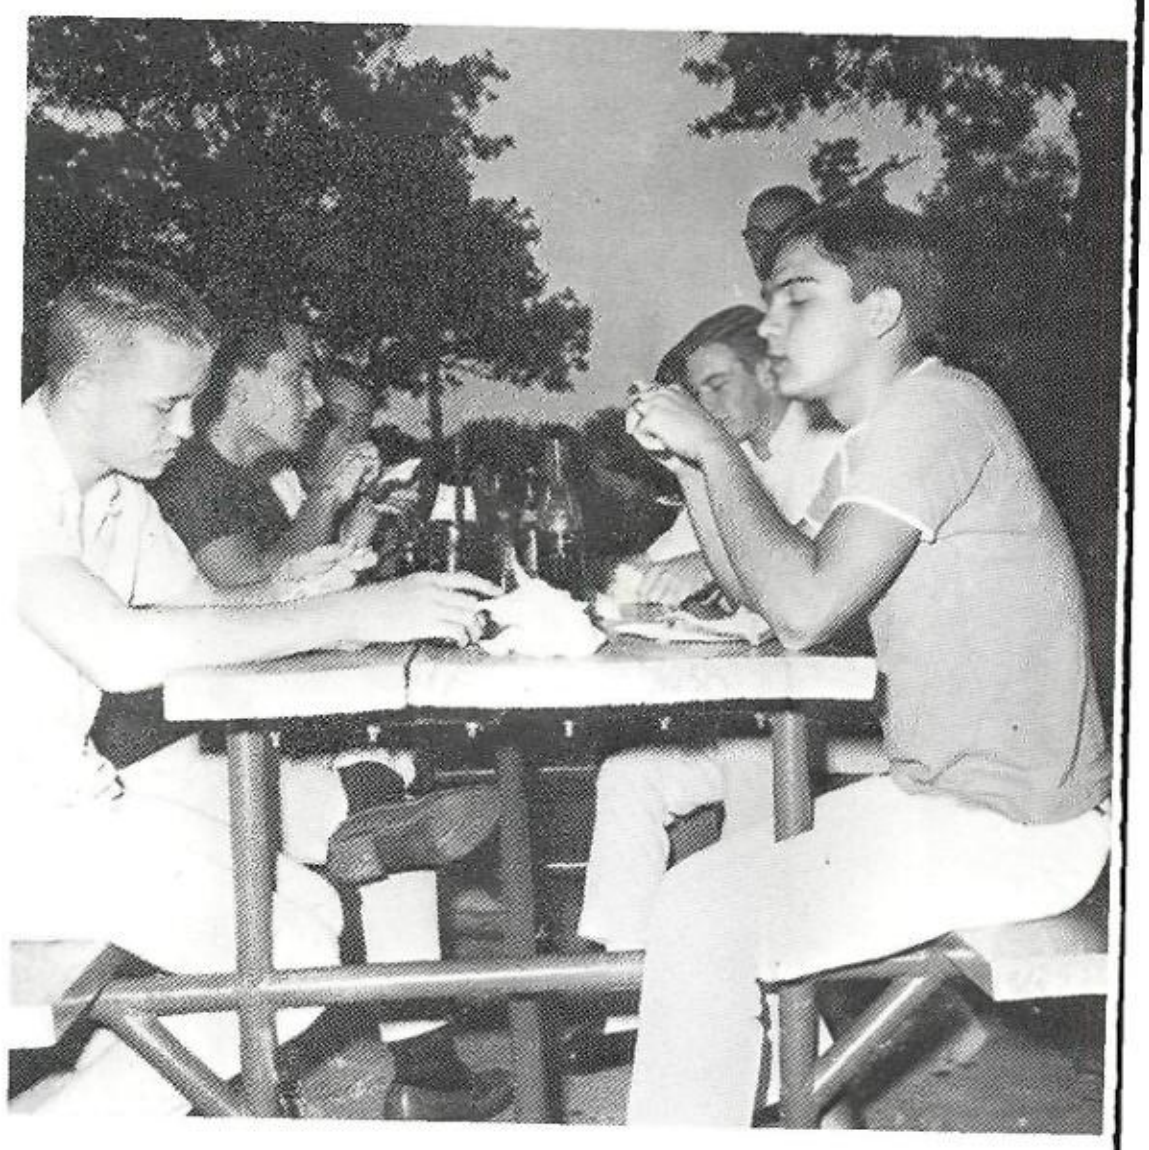
Dictionary proves a vital tool to reporter Cathy O'Dwyer, while Patti Read copyreads Bennie Gilley's story.

At the Citizen Journal Terri Hiller, page 1 columnist, dodges ink and hot lead in the print shop.

Luis Brings Spanish Accent to Big Sam

Suzzi Crouch presents Luis Sellera with a senior ring on behalf of the Student Council as Drenda Elrod an A.F.S. sister watches over Big Sam.

Welcoming Luis Sellera at the Dallas bus station, American Field Service kicked off events for Luis' stay in Texas. The R. F. Johannesens, his adopted family, hosted a reception introducing Luis to Mr. Key, counselors and his "brothers and sisters". In October A.F.S. gathered for a picnic at Randol Mill and in December, the club celebrated Luis' birthday with a wiener roast at Mr. Red Wright's farm. A.F.S. honored exchange students in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area in a March assembly.



A.F.S. members "Americanize" Luis at a picnic by treating him to traditional fried chicken, potato salad, and Coca-Cola.

"Is that really what we're going to do?" asks Mickey Caverly, Key Club secretary, of Mike Huddleston, president, as Guerry Putnam, vice-president, and Stan Threlkeld, treasurer, voice their opinions.

"I'll smile then maybe someone will bid on me." thinks Betty Gilbert blushingly.

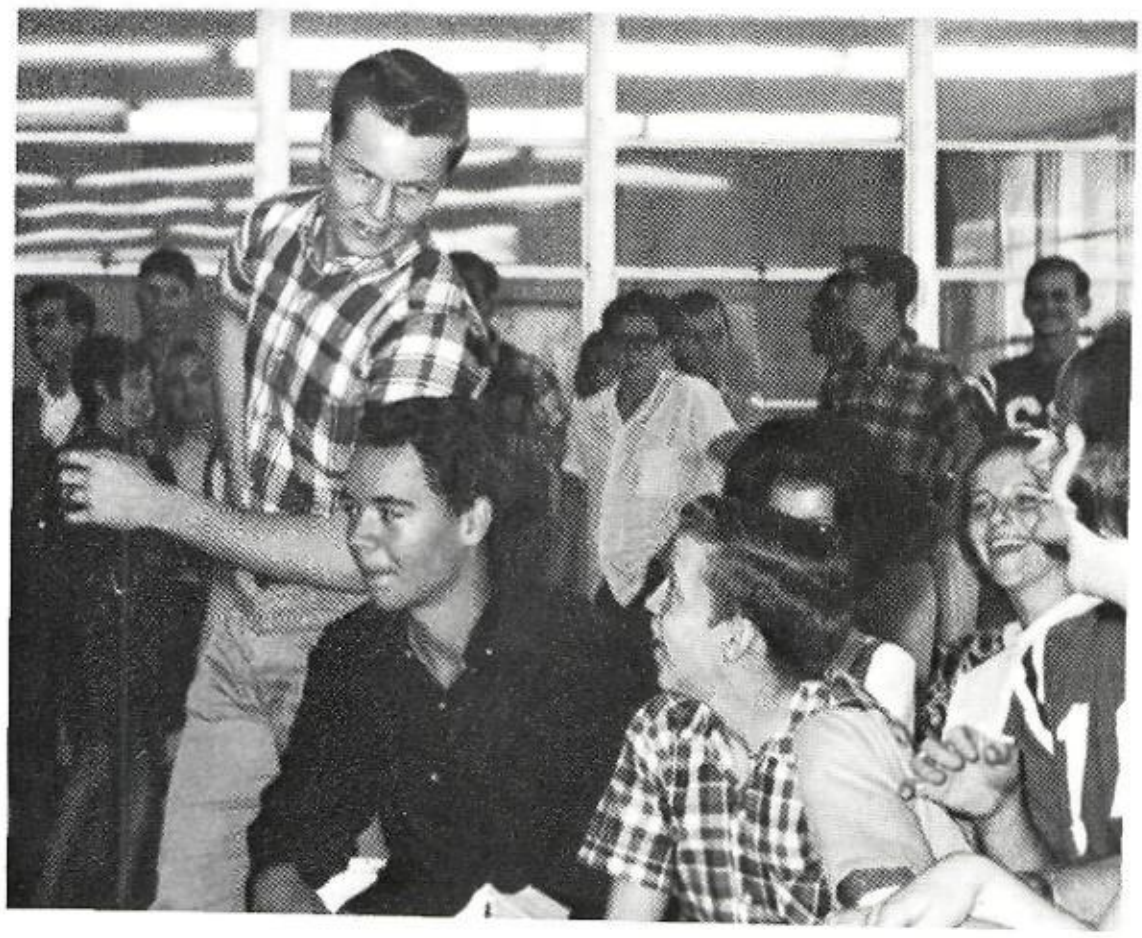
Key Clubbers Auction Off Girls

Auctioning off Shyrel Anderson for the highest bid of $8.25, highlighted Key Club's slave sale, October 6.

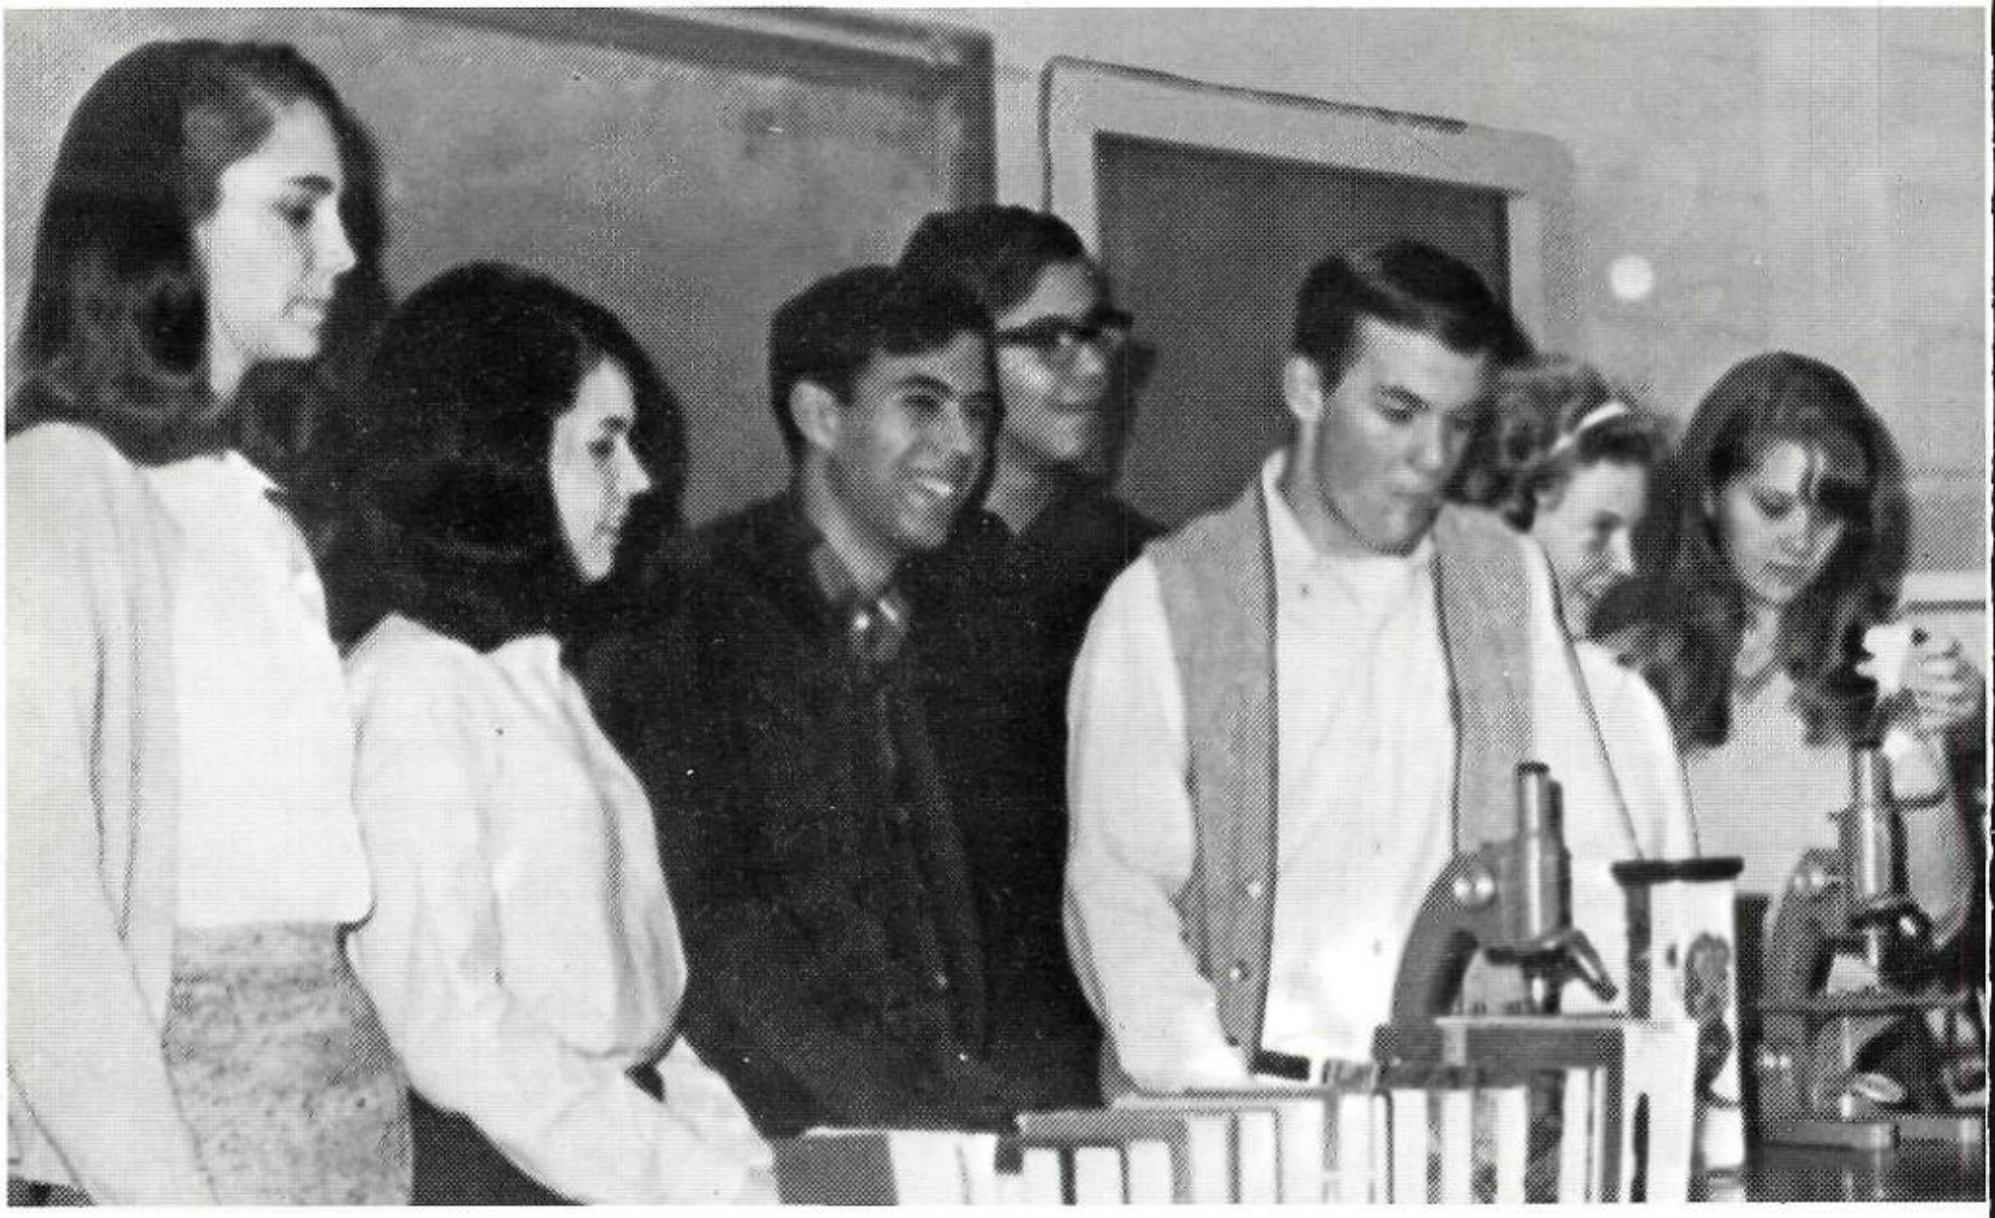
The club made over seventy dollars profit on this project. Adding this amount to their funds enabled Key Clubbers to travel to the annual convention in Oklahoma, representing Sam Houston as a 4-A school.

Key Club helped their sponsor, the Sundown Kiwanis Club of Arlington, sell candy in December. Also, they aided in the beautification of the courtyards. By these projects they accomplished their purpose as a service club.

Composed of outstanding male students, the club was advised by Mr. Dan Smith.



"This is costing me a fortune!" gripes Barry Warden after buying a girl.



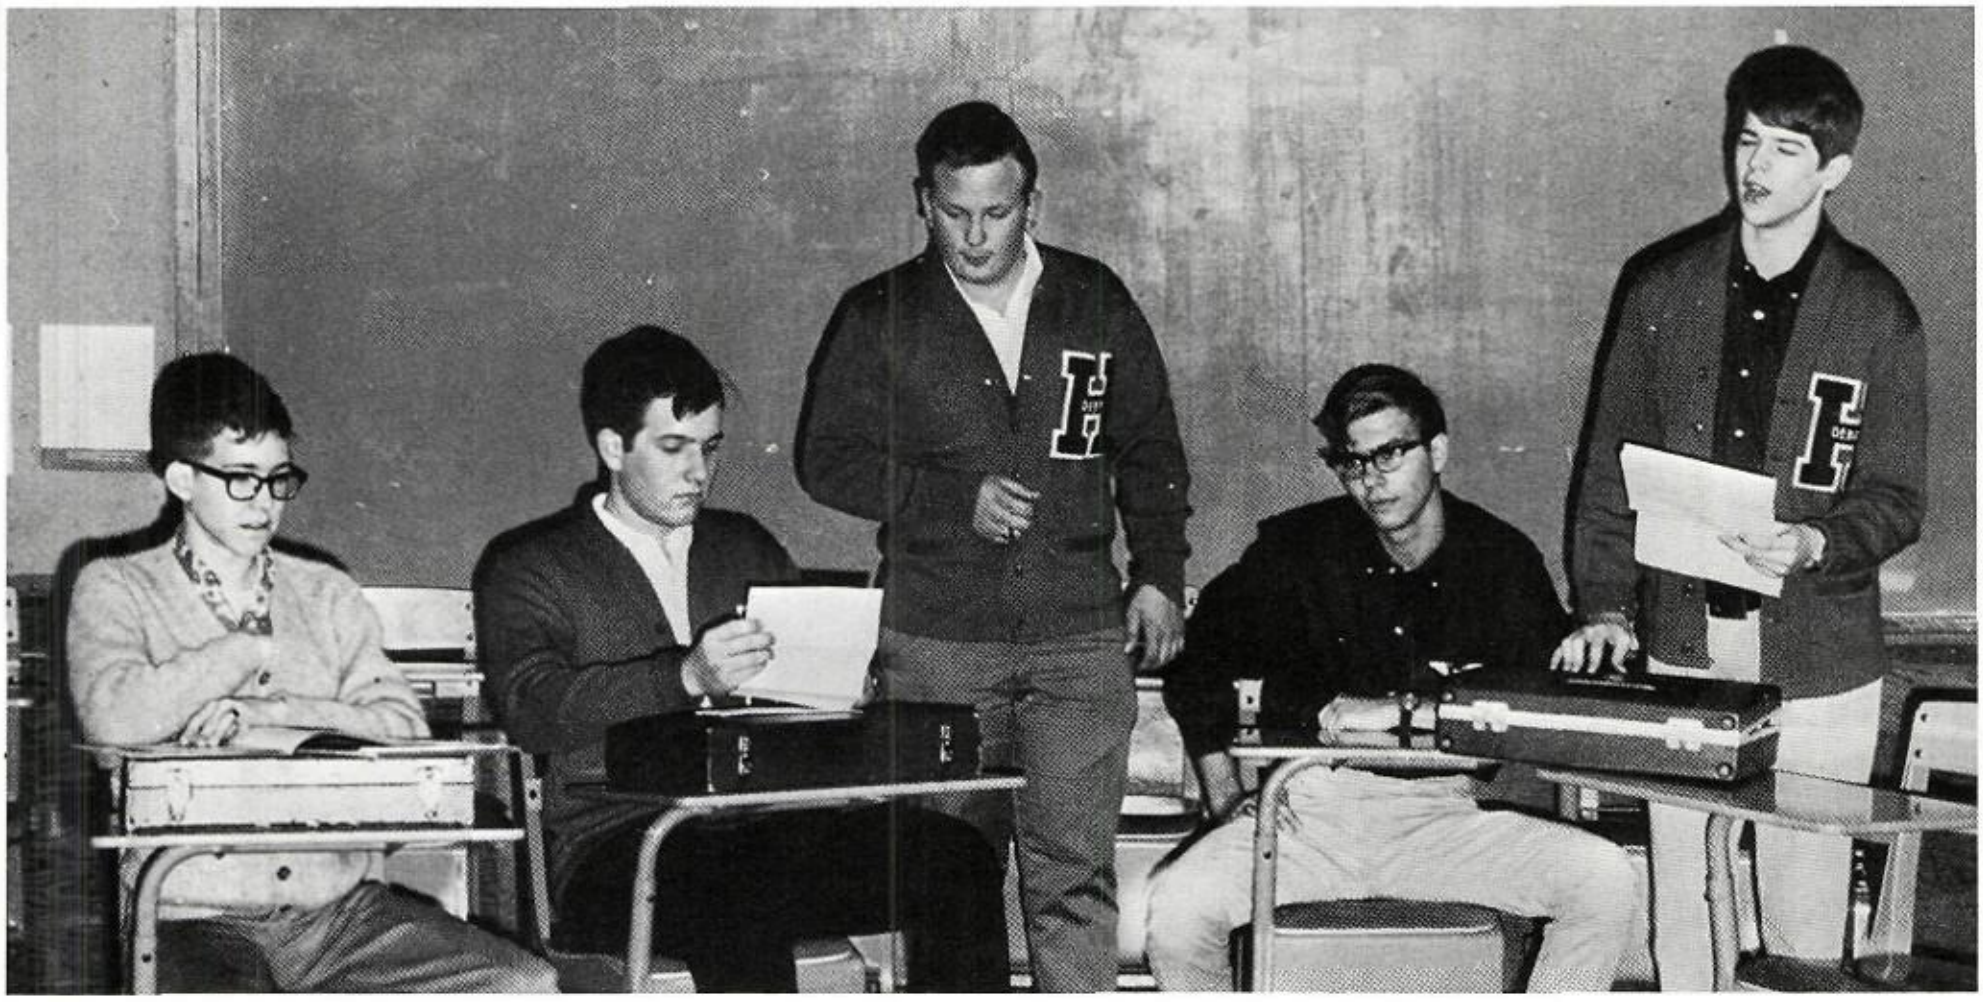
Organizing and leading Sam Houston's newest club were Science Club officers Sandra Vickers, secretary; Jeannie Massengale, Treasurer; Jeff Bartke, President; Olan Klem, Parliamentarian; Robert Johannesen, Vice-President; Evelyn Langston and Cinde Lowe, public relations.

'66 Sees Two New Clubs Formed

Increased enrollment brought interests which resulted in organizing a science club this year. Guest speakers at club meetings provided information on topics of science. One speaker, Miss Hamilton, from T.W.U., discussed Tarrant County birdlife.

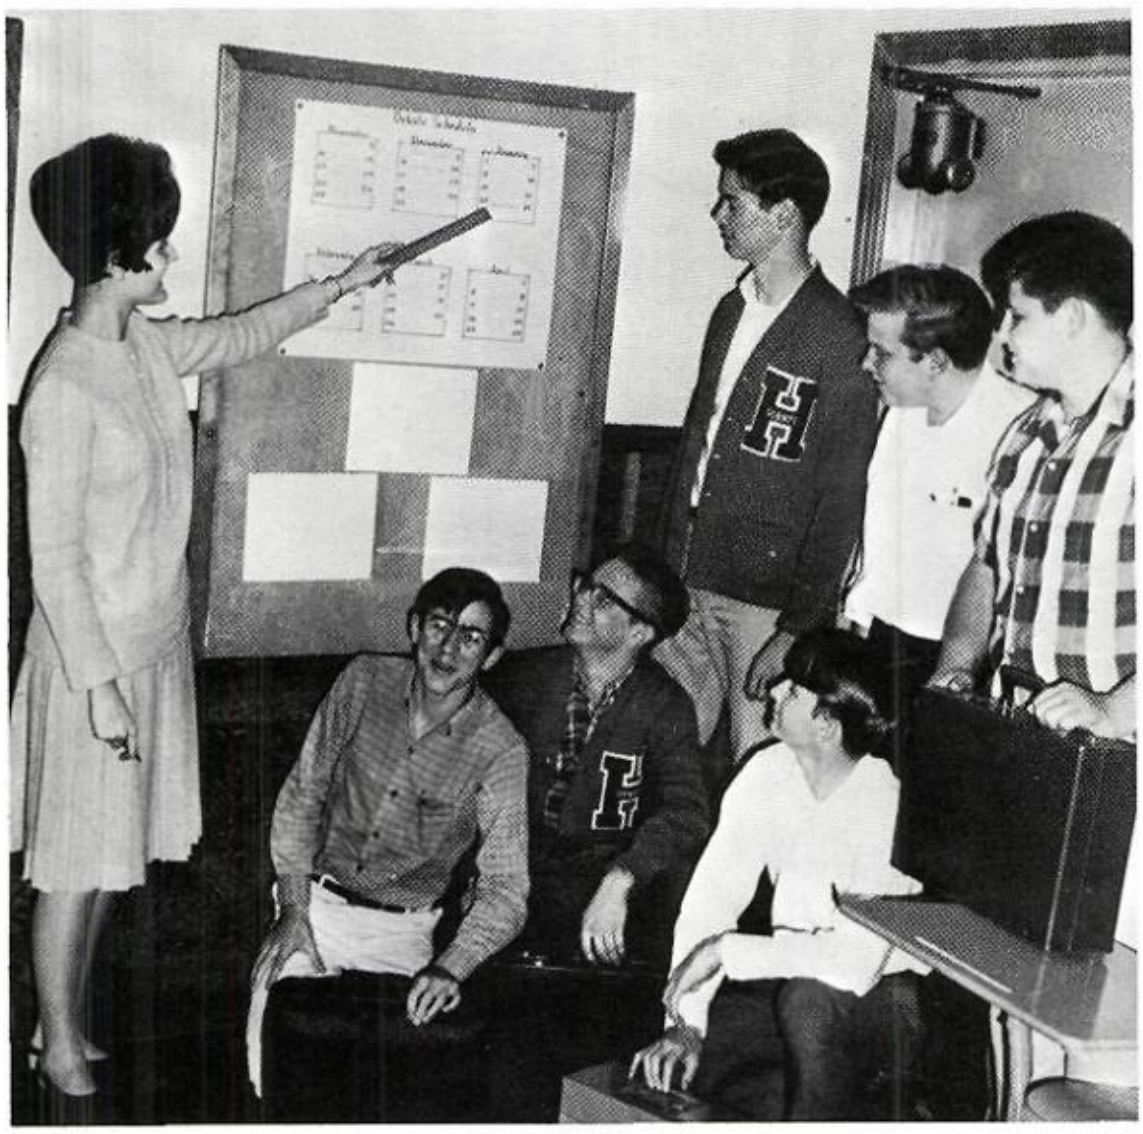
Creative Writing cultivated skills in self-expression with hints from Mr. Carter and Mr. Ferguson. Receiving an all-Texas rating for the composition of last year's "Chocolate Buttermilk", members published "No Matter What Shape" this year.

Proofreading stories to be published in "No Matter What Shape" are Bob Russel, president, and Rhonda Griffin, secretary, of Creative Writing.



Officers of the National Forensic League, Mike Ray, secretary; Charles Jones, historian; Guerry Putnam, president; Alan Klem, reporter; and Kurt Arbuckle, vice-president, review their material for an upcoming tournament.

Research, Practice Bring Trophies For NFL



Mrs. Susan Livingston reviews tournament dates with members of the debate team, Mike Clinton, Steve Turrentine, Hugh Starr, Buddy Hanby, Bob Benson, and John Albright.

Members of National Forensic League spoke at various service club meetings and participated in invitational tournaments at Bel Aire, Sunset, and Spring Branch. In the Wichita Falls contest, Doug Cawley won honors for the school by receiving second in state, Guerry Putnam became the second person in Sam Houston's history to obtain enough points to achieve the Double Ruby Award. Other main competitions were U.I.L. (University of Interscholastic League) and N.F.L. District contest.

High School Presents A Challenge To Class of '69

Announcing some of the many sophomore activities are officers Terri Hilliard, girls social chairman; Marcus Watson, vice president; Steve Zerblis, president; Vicki Pike, Secretary; John Boman, boys social chairman.

Entering the first year of Sam Houston, sophomore officers accepted the challenge to close the gap between junior high and high school groups. Uniting at pep rallies in class yells and participating in class activities helped to encourage class spirit and to form new friendships.

Meeting to discuss sophomore activities are sponsors Mr. Mike Pirkle, Mr. Kenneth Wages, Mrs. Eugenia Pierce, Mr. Bob Tarver, and Mrs. Francis Foster.

Faculty — Oops Varsity Victorious, 50-49

When the Faculty vs. Varsity game ended Monday night everyone supposedly thought that the faculty reigned victorious. With the help of such characters as Playboy Pirkle and Birdleg Adams, aided by six Cheerleaders the score ended at a close margin for the faculty at 52-50. However on Tuesday morning the faculty was forced to give up their reign when Mr. Harold Key, principal made the announcement that a mistake had been made in the scoring of the game and actually the varsity was the victor with a score of 50-49.

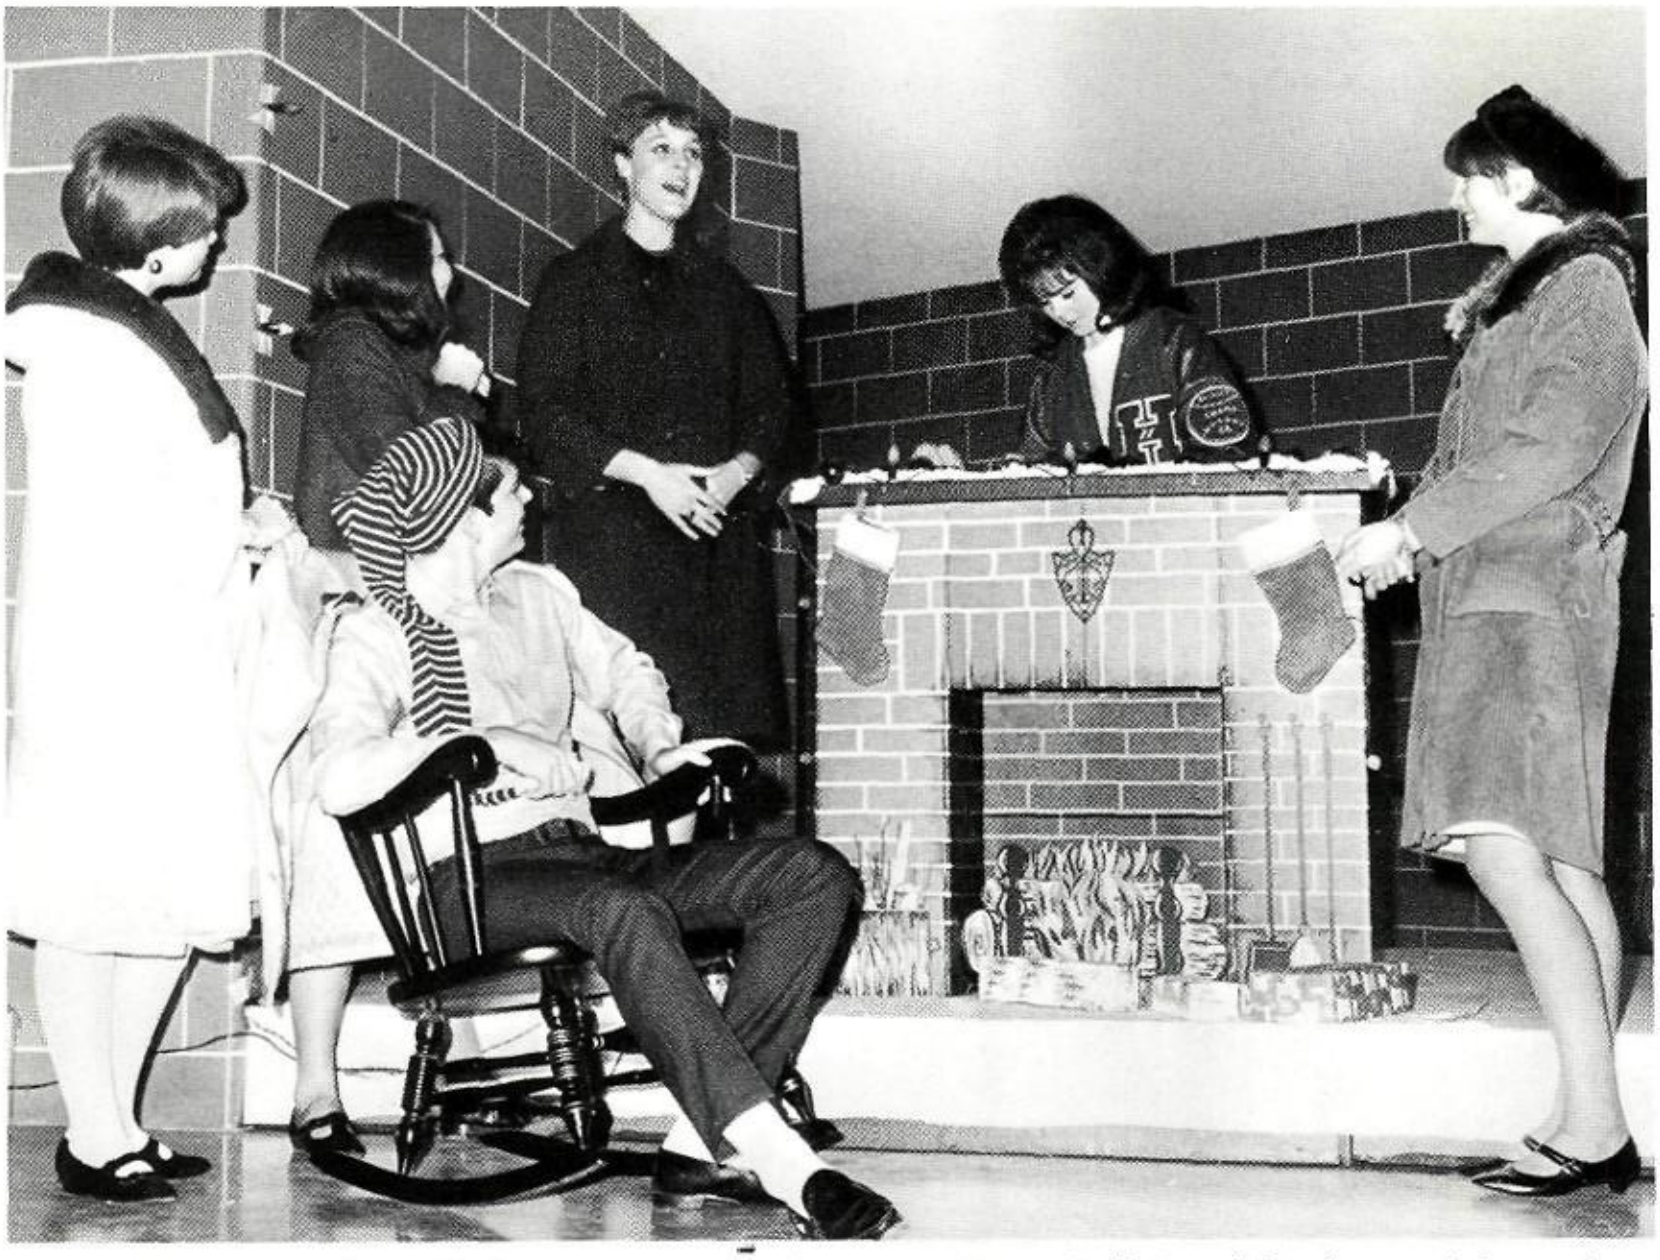
"Height 5'7" and head 6¾", instructed one senior class officer and swiftly another officer wrote the description down on an order blank. This was the process of ordering caps and gowns in which the senior officers aided by measuring students during Civics or Sociology classes. Then on Feb. 2 the senior class assembled in the auditorium to make their deposit for their caps and gowns.

Crowding around tables in the front of the auditorium seniors pay rental fees for caps and gowns.



Uncontrollable factors led to a hilarious performance of "The Twelve Days of Christmas" by hoarse choir members, Gary Noble, Judy Hodges, Gloria Allen, Sharon Huebsch, Carolyn Young, and Brenda Payne.

Voices Ring Out With Christmas Joy

1966-67 will become a year of memories for the choir.

Excelling in competition was only one of their many achievements this year. Gloria Allen was named to the all-state choir. 16 choralists from Sam Houston became members of the all-region choir, with eight serving as alternates.

At Christmas time, with hoarse voices from caroling, the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Doreen Young, performed for the student body.

They also sang at the state fair in October.

Mrs. Young, choir director, enjoys her students' performance just as much as the audience does.

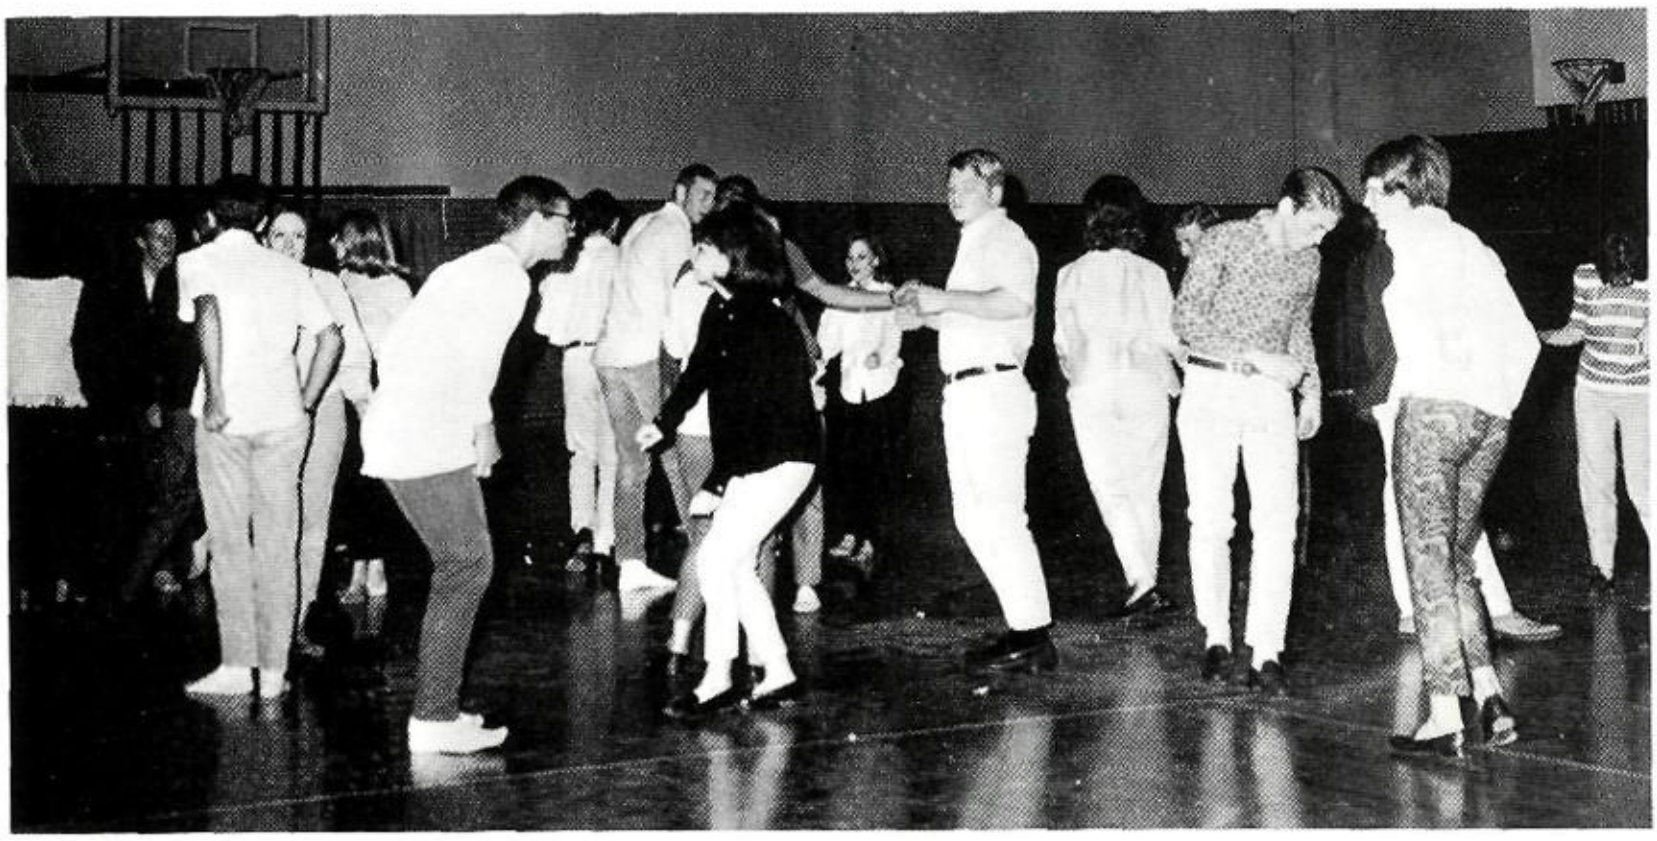
At the junior social, the Showmen provided musical entertainment. Some juniors played games while others danced. A few of them portrayed the social's beatnik theme by wearing orginal costumes.



Beatnik's went a-go-go for the junior social as they danced to the sounds of the Showmen in the school gym.

Providing services to school and community are responsibilities for the Safety Council and Red Cross clubs.

Preparing for emergencies, the Safety Council representatives posted exit directions in the library, student lounge, office and classrooms. During fire drills, students practiced proper evacuation routes.

Red Cross continued its tradition of giving a Christmas party for the retarded children at Pantego school. As entertainment, six members posed as reindeers, dancing to a Christmas record. For its spring project, the club provided a needy family with clothes and Easter dinner.

Medical Careers Club Aids Project BEAT

Sandy Bedard is amused by Guest speaker, Gene Walton, who spoke on curvature of the spine.

Students joined Medical Careers to satisfy interest in the medical field. Various club activities helped broaden those interests. The club hosted an assembly with Chaplain Bill Moody showing films and also discussing the hospital conditions in Viet Nam. Speakers at meetings included Mrs. Judy Hester, school nurse, and Mr. Goetz, an Arlington psychiatrist. Members helped in the city's project BEAT at the beginning of the school year. Then on records day, a few of the members toured Carswell hospital observing its routine. To acquire new ideas for next year, the club sent two sophomore delegates to the convention in Austin in April.

In two state conventions FBLA tested representatives in parliamentary procedure, spelling, vocabulary, and public speaking. At the first convention, Nancy Crofford competed at A.H.S. for Miss FBLA, winning the first runner-up title. In February, fourteen members attended the second convention at North Texas State. Delegates to it qualified by their success in the FBLA magazine sales.

Thespians Induct 18 New Members

Thespians kept busy this year producing a one-act play, aiding in class plays, and competing in speech tournaments.

Besides providing Sam Houston with drama, Thespians fulfilled a more basic need for students. They sold fresh doughnuts in the morning for 8¢ apiece or 2 for 15¢. This was a successful money-making project for Thespians and satisfied many a student's early morning hunger.

Students gain membership in Thespians by a point system. Prospective members must achieve 10 points by working in school productions. Each additional 10 points merits a star. Margaret Rose became Sam Houston's first 3-year Thespian this year, leading the way for other Thespians.

Bunny Alexander assists David Farhat with his induction pin.

Also the girls were active in projects including the typing of the student directory, aiding the Samaritans in the can goods drive, and selling candy.

F.L.C. Calendar Sets New Tradition

Foreign Language Club members set a tradition of providing Sam Houston with an up-to-date calendar of school activities and club meeting dates. The oversized calendar in the student lounge was posted around the 20th of each month and kept students informed on coming events.

Performing one of her duties as a LARK member, Evelyn Langston happily helps Louise Schenck check out a book, while Luis Sellera looks through books in the background.

LARK'S yearly activities included taking food to a needy family at Thanksgiving and decorating the library in red and green for Christmas, and keeping the library running smoothly everyday.

During the year, LARK members attended the Texas Teenage Library Assistants district convention in Lewisville, where they entered their scrapbook in district competition. They also held a joint meeting with Arlington High's club, at which Sam Houston's foreign exchange student was speaker.

Mr. Kenneth Pickett, the outstanding vocational teacher in this area sponsored the Vocational Industrial Club of America. Students who participated in vocational programs were eligible for membership. During the year the students planned activities including a monthly breakfast, employer-employee banquet, and a wiener roast. Also students competed in state and district conventions.

Taking the temperature and pulse of a patient is one of the jobs of Pat Taylor, a VICA student, who works at Arlington Memorial Hospital as a student nurse.

Training, Experience for Working Students

VOT member, Kenneth Woods, not only learns through on-the-job training, but also through study in the classroom.

Boys gained practical experience during the year in the electronic chapter of the Vocational Industrial Club of America. This year the group learned how to repair televisions and electronic devices that could be resold for a profit.

Early morning breakfast meetings enabled Vocational Occupational students to meet at times that did not conflict with jobs. At these breakfasts they discussed meetings such as the one held in April in which local factory representatives presented members with occupational folders.

Officers of VOT are Mike Mitchell, treasurer; John Ford, vice-president; Kathy Homan, secretary; Ride Morgan, president; Jim Gandy, reporter.

Mr. Long reviews planned trip to the WBAP studio with VICA Electronics officers, Dennis Clark, treasurer; John Steele, reporter; Jim Ferguson, vice-president; Don Dupriest, sergeant-at-arms; Dan Brouse, parliamentarian, Joe Booher, president; and Gary McMillan, secretary.

Faculty Tea Given

DECA week highlights the activities of the Distributive Education Clubs of America. During this week Sam Houston D.E. students hosted a faculty coffee, had a breakfast meeting, inducted new members, held a dance, and competed in district competition.

Sam Houston's two DECA chapters sold candy throughout the year to pay for their activities. They set a tradition of a monthly breakfast meeting. These meetings are set in the early morning for the convenience of working members. Speakers and films, including one on shoplifting, brightened these meetings.

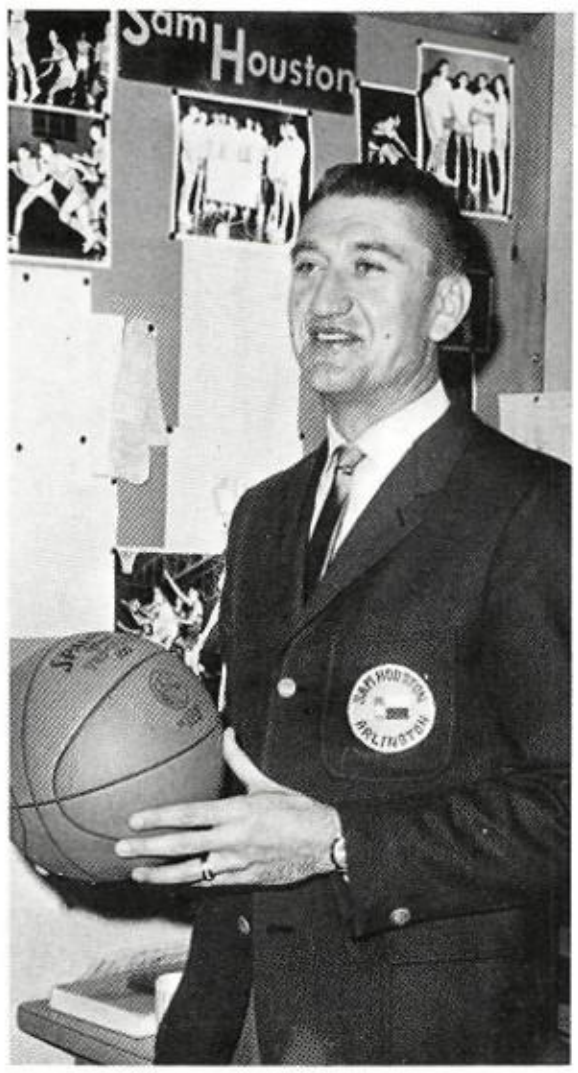
Texans Enter District 4-AAAA With New Coach

Sam Houston roundballers finished the first season 4-H competition with a successful year. The Texans were led by a new coach, Jim O'Bannon, to third place in District 4 with a 53.5 average. With one of the youngest teams in the district, the Texans completed the season with a 4-win-4-loss record. Big Sam is expected to have a strong team next year with the return of 6 juniors and 2 sophomores.



Coach Jim O'Bannon recalls his first season with the Texans.

Driving hard Felix Alcala makes two points against Castleberry.

Big Sam's B-Teamers ended their first season in District 4-AAAA with a 4-win 4-loss record. Racking up a 50.88 point average per game they finished in a tie with Wichita Falls Rider, for second place. After losing to Castleberry in the first district game, the B-Team came back with wins over L.D. Bell, Rider, MacArthur, and in the second time around, Castleberry. They then fell to Bell, Rider, and MacArthur in the last games of the year. B-Teamers are looking forward to the 1967-68 season and a try for the varsity squad.

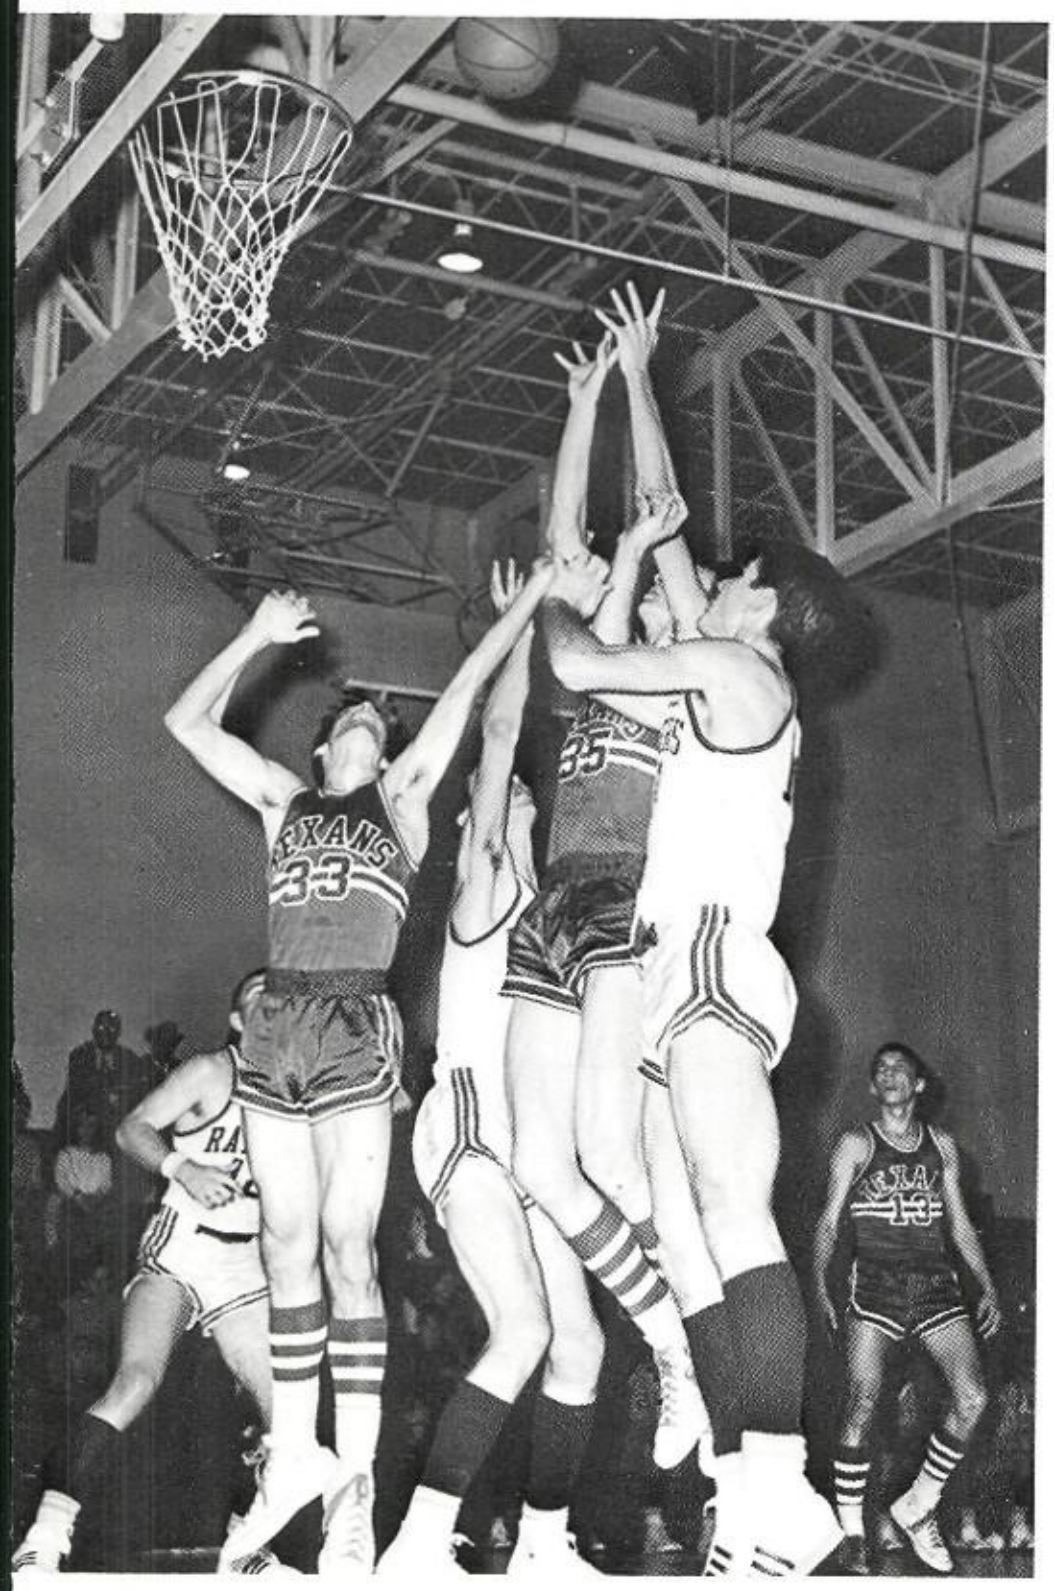
Texans Drop Castleberry In District Opener

A win over Castleberry, 64-43, began Sam Houston's first season in 4-AAAA Basketball. With a strong defense and a fast offense, the Texans led all the way. Big Sam scorers were hitting as Owen Barnett headed the attack with 17 points. Dan Dorman, Big Sam's leading scorer, dropped in 16 points. Top rebounders were Bill Ford and Jim Crouch.

BILL FORD

ALEX PRITCHARD

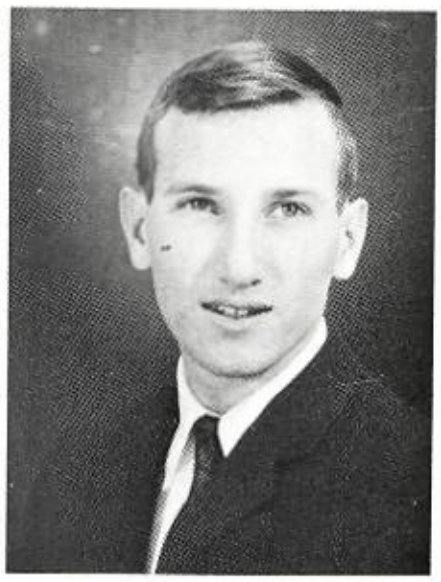
Early in the second quarter, David Purcell hits for two points against the Lions.



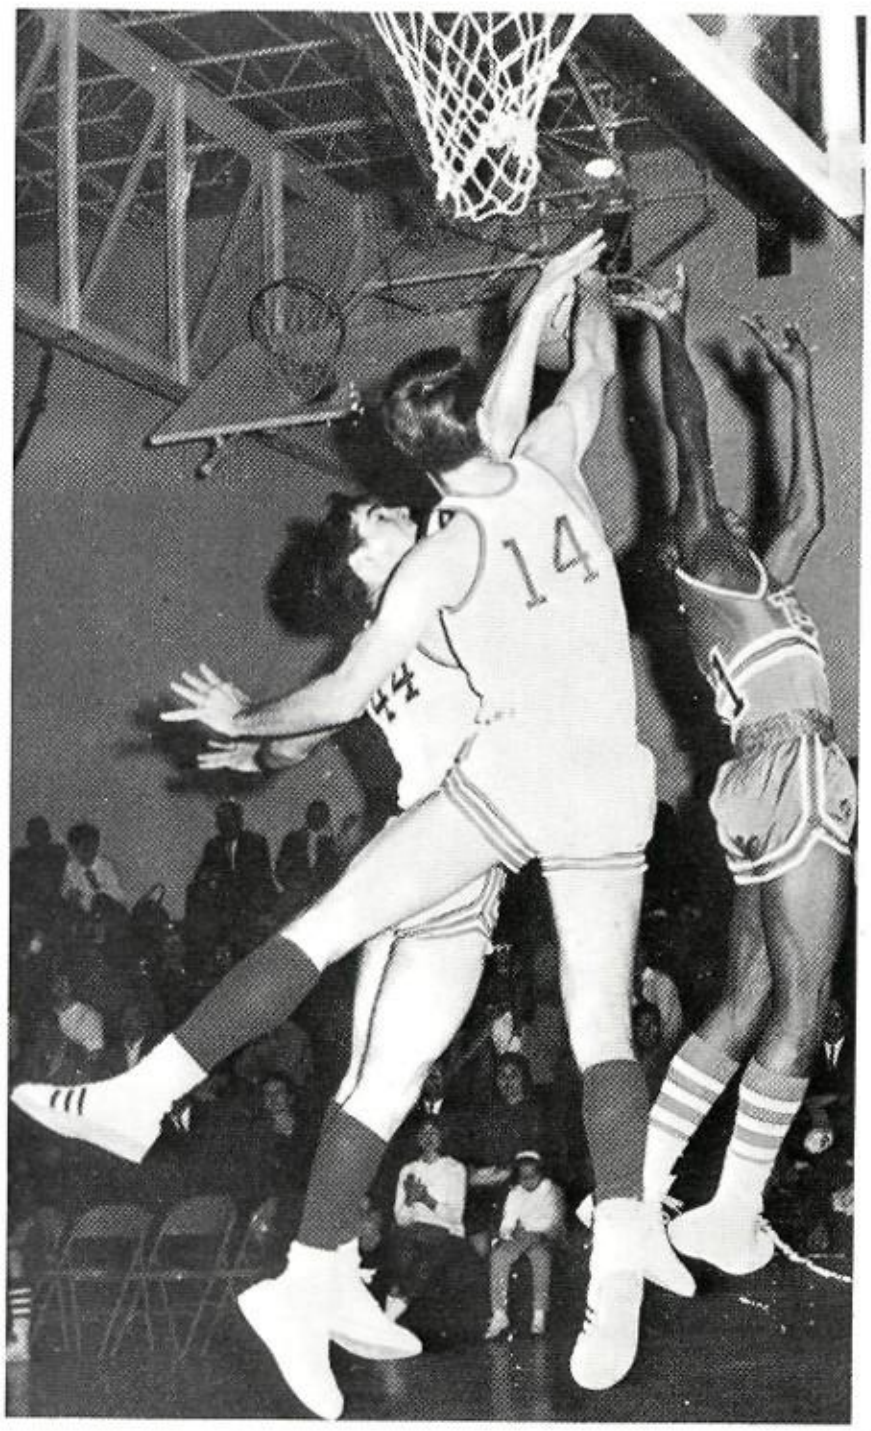
Rebounding for the Texans against Bell's Raiders are Jim Crouch (35) and Phil Kevil (33).

Close One Goes To Bell

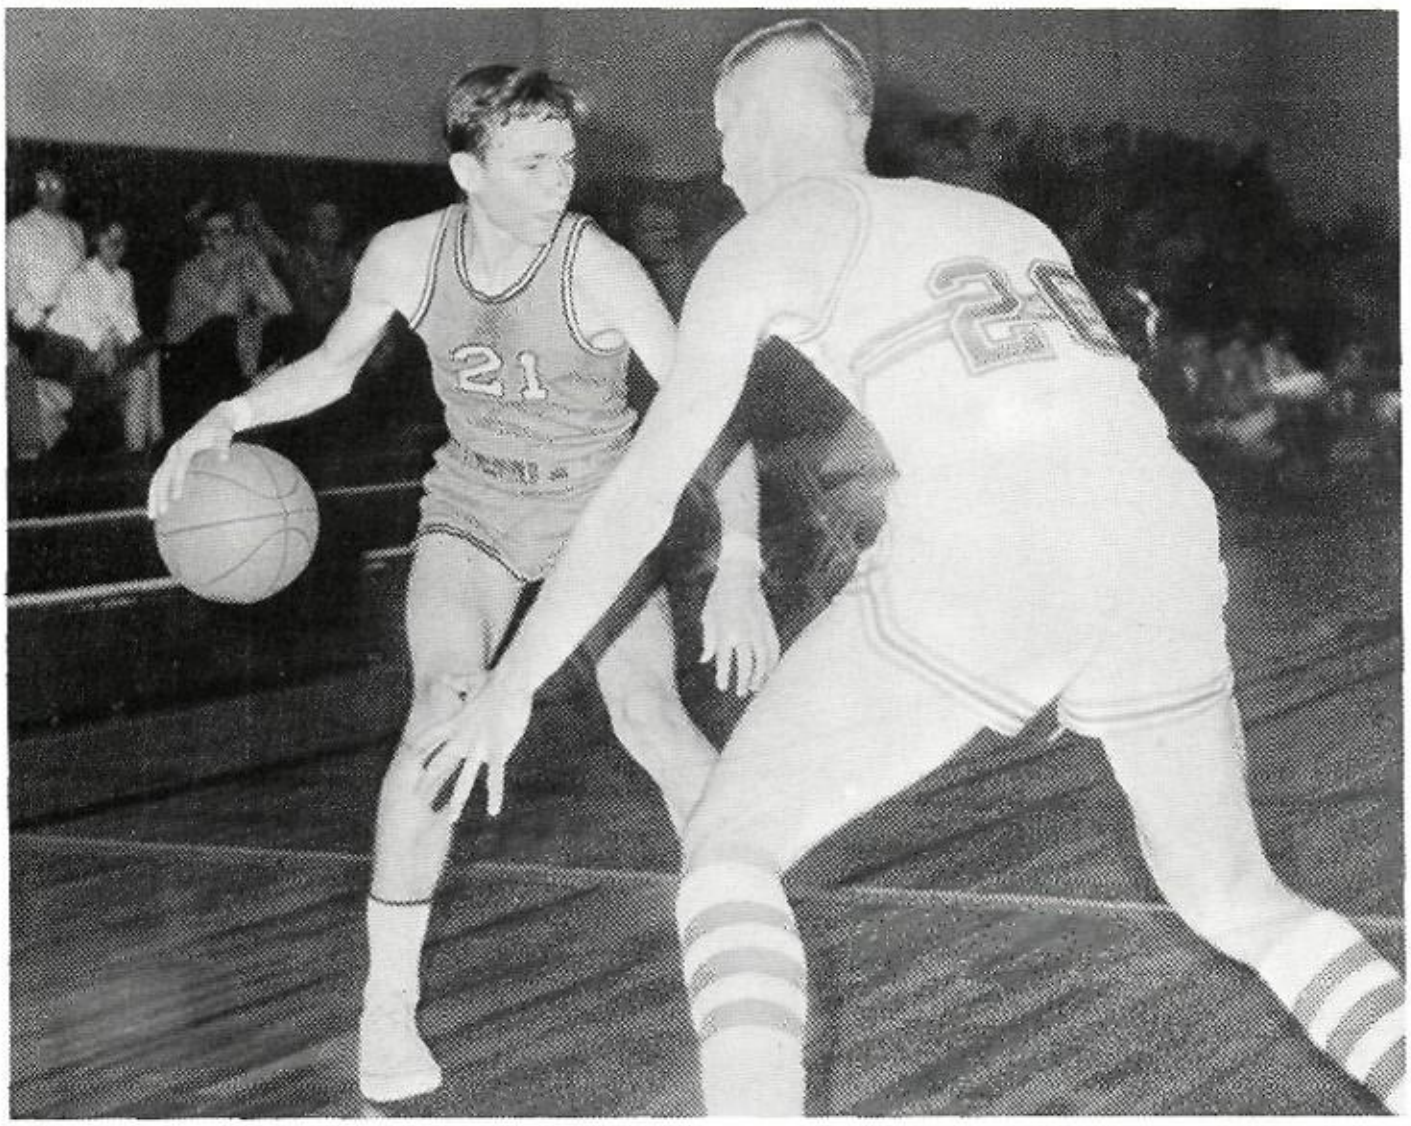
With a close first quarter score of 10-6, the Texans worked hard and tied Bell's Blue Raiders with less than a minute left in the half. With the double figure scoring of Dan Dorman and Owen Barnett, hitting 15 points and 13 points, the Texans stayed close behind the Raiders. The game ended with the Texans 9 points behind, 57-48. This left Big Sam's district record at 1-1.



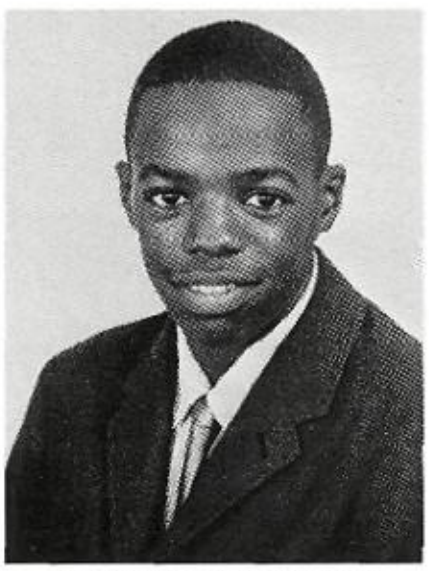
TERRY TWOMEY



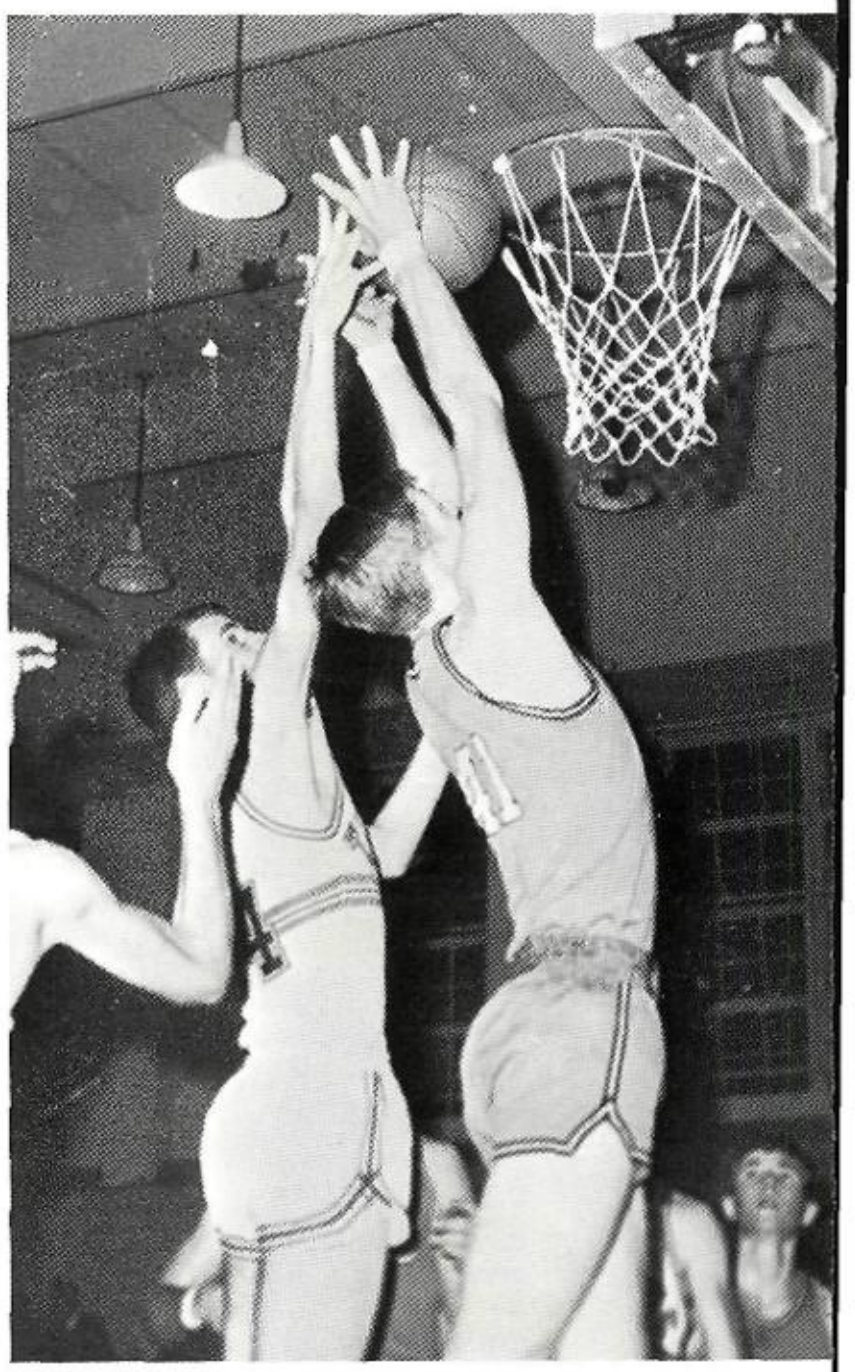
Two Bell Raiders block Ken Roseman's two-point attempt.



Owen Barnett (20) prevents his man from driving the baseline in the Wichita Falls Rider game.



KENNETH ROSEMAN



Jim Crouch in white, blocked this Rider attempt for tw points.

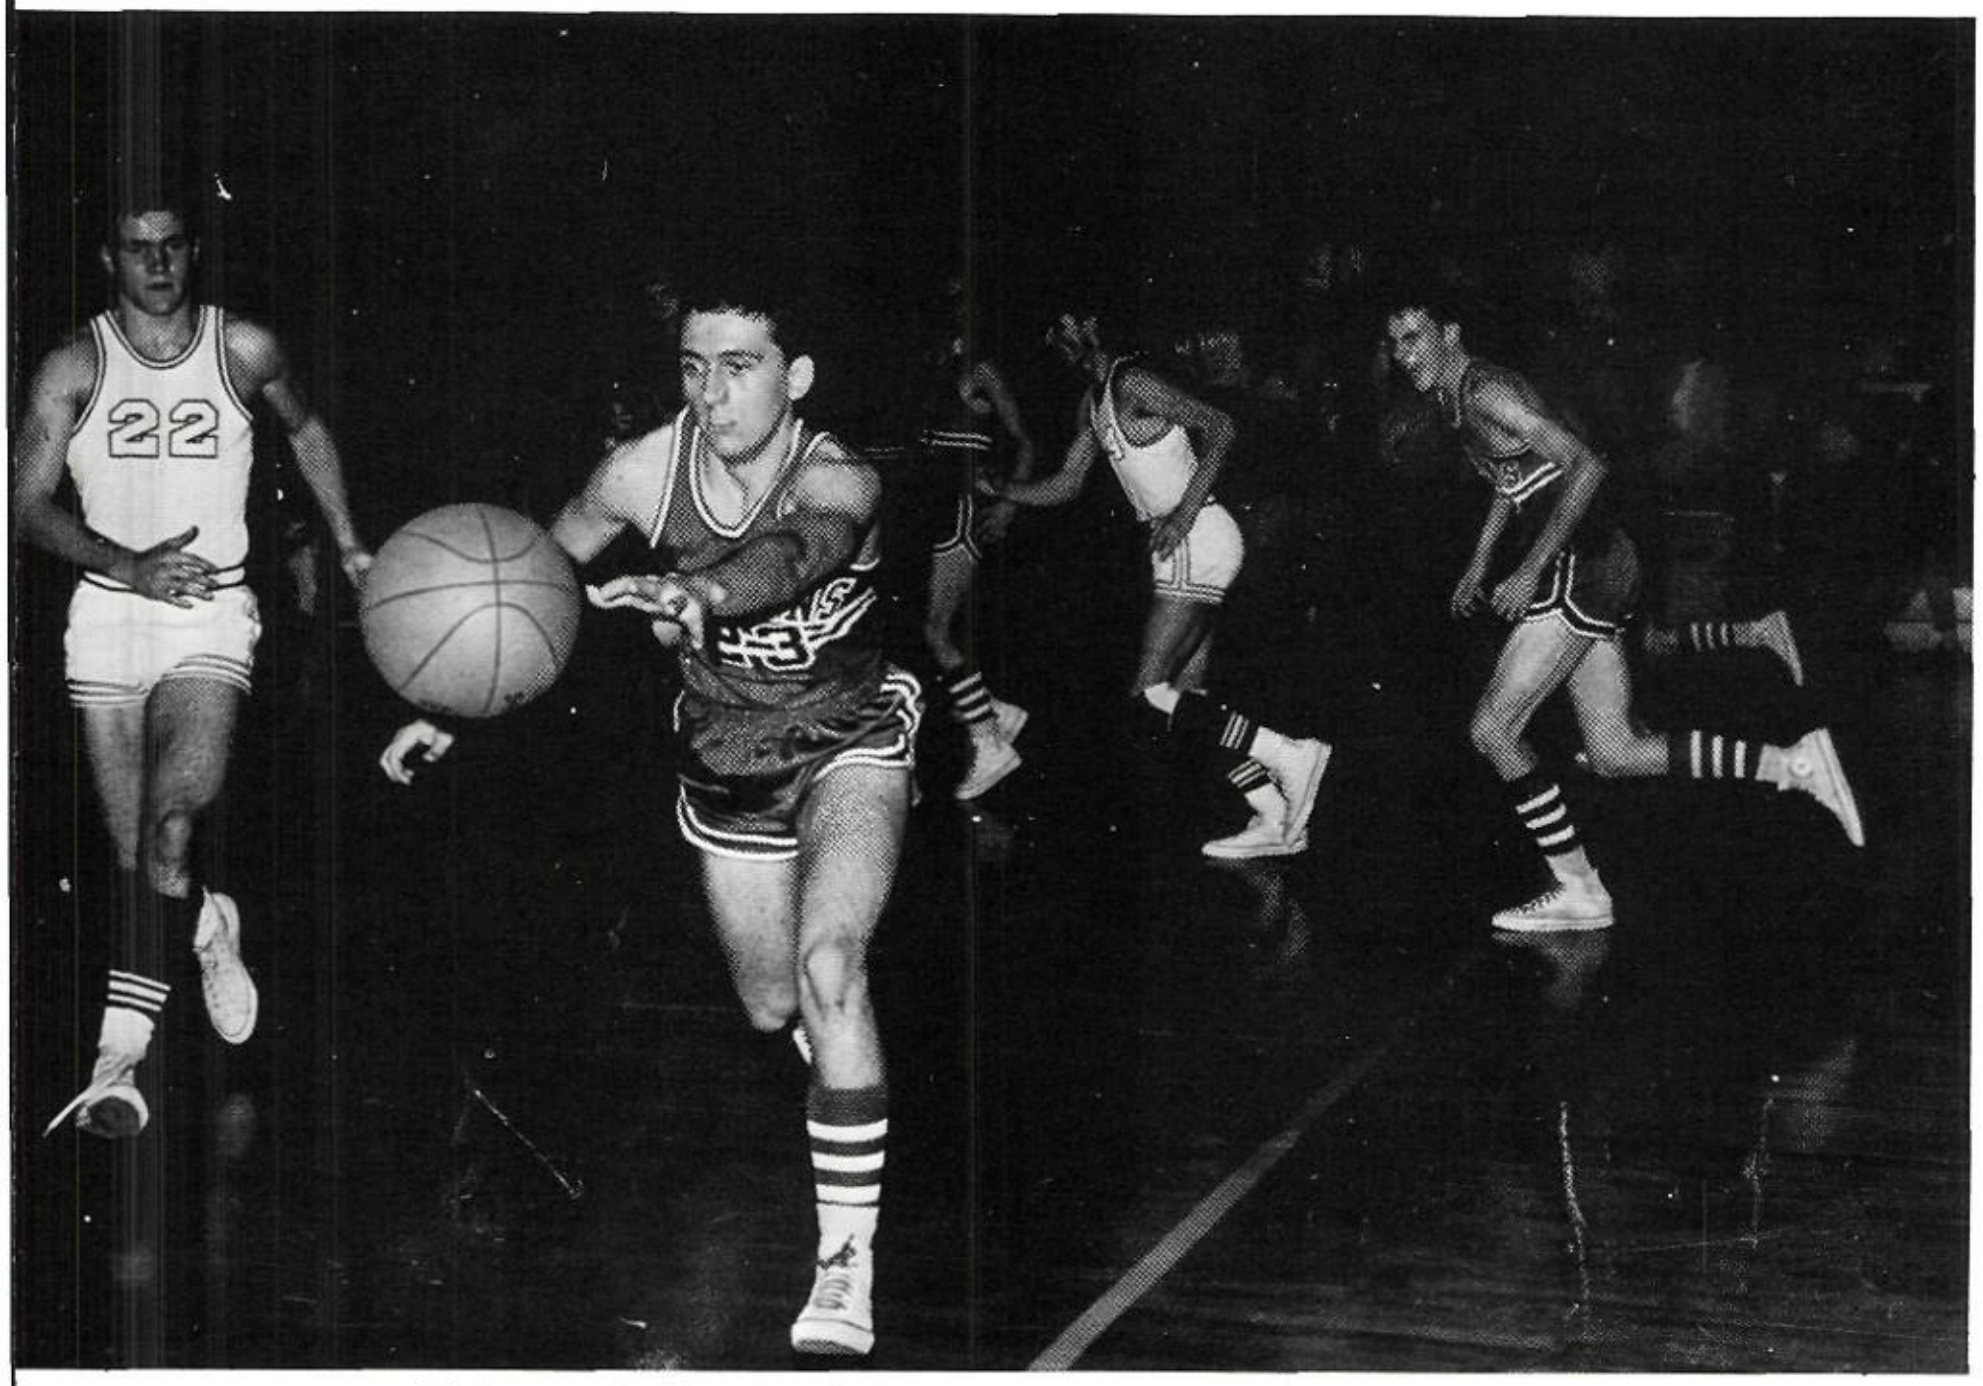
PHIL KEVIL

After a 45-42 loss to Wichita Falls Rider, the Texans came back with a 47-38 victory over the MacArthur Cardinals. In both games the fans were on their feet cheering the highscoring twosome of Owen Barnett and Dan Dorman. In the game with Wichita Falls, Dorman hit 13 points while Owen hit 14 points. Jim Crouch cleared the board with 10 rebounds.

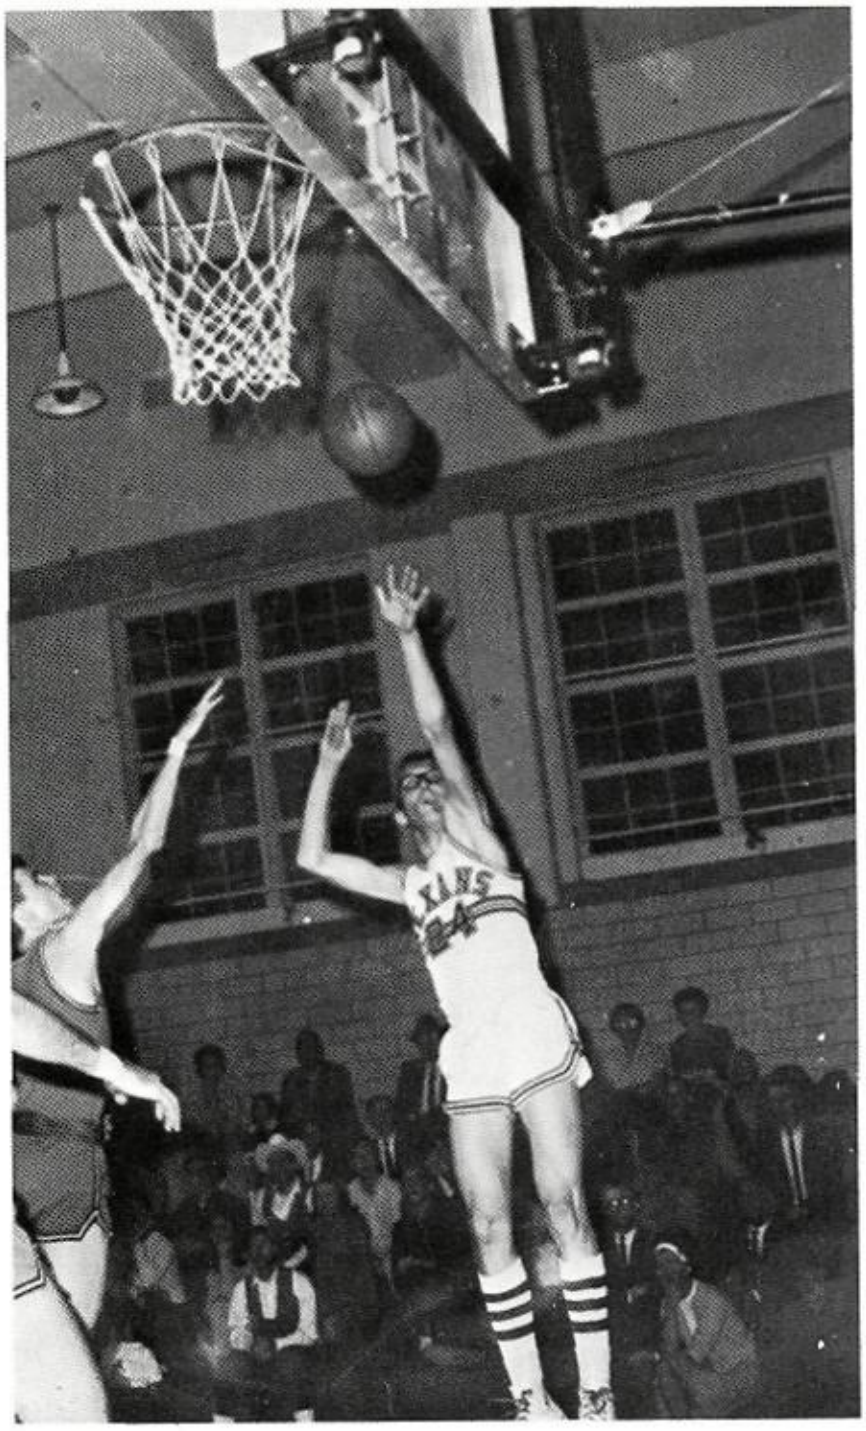
In the MacArthur game, Big Sam led the entire game. The officiating proved to be poor and very few whistles sounded. Jim Crouch and Bill Ford led the rebounding bracket with 10 and 8, respectively.

JIM CROUCH

Texans Fall To Rider; Win Over MacArthur



Driving around a MacArthur Cardinal, David Purcell brings the ball down court.



Hitting for two, Steve Mitchell (24) played an important part in the Castleberry game by scoring 8 points.

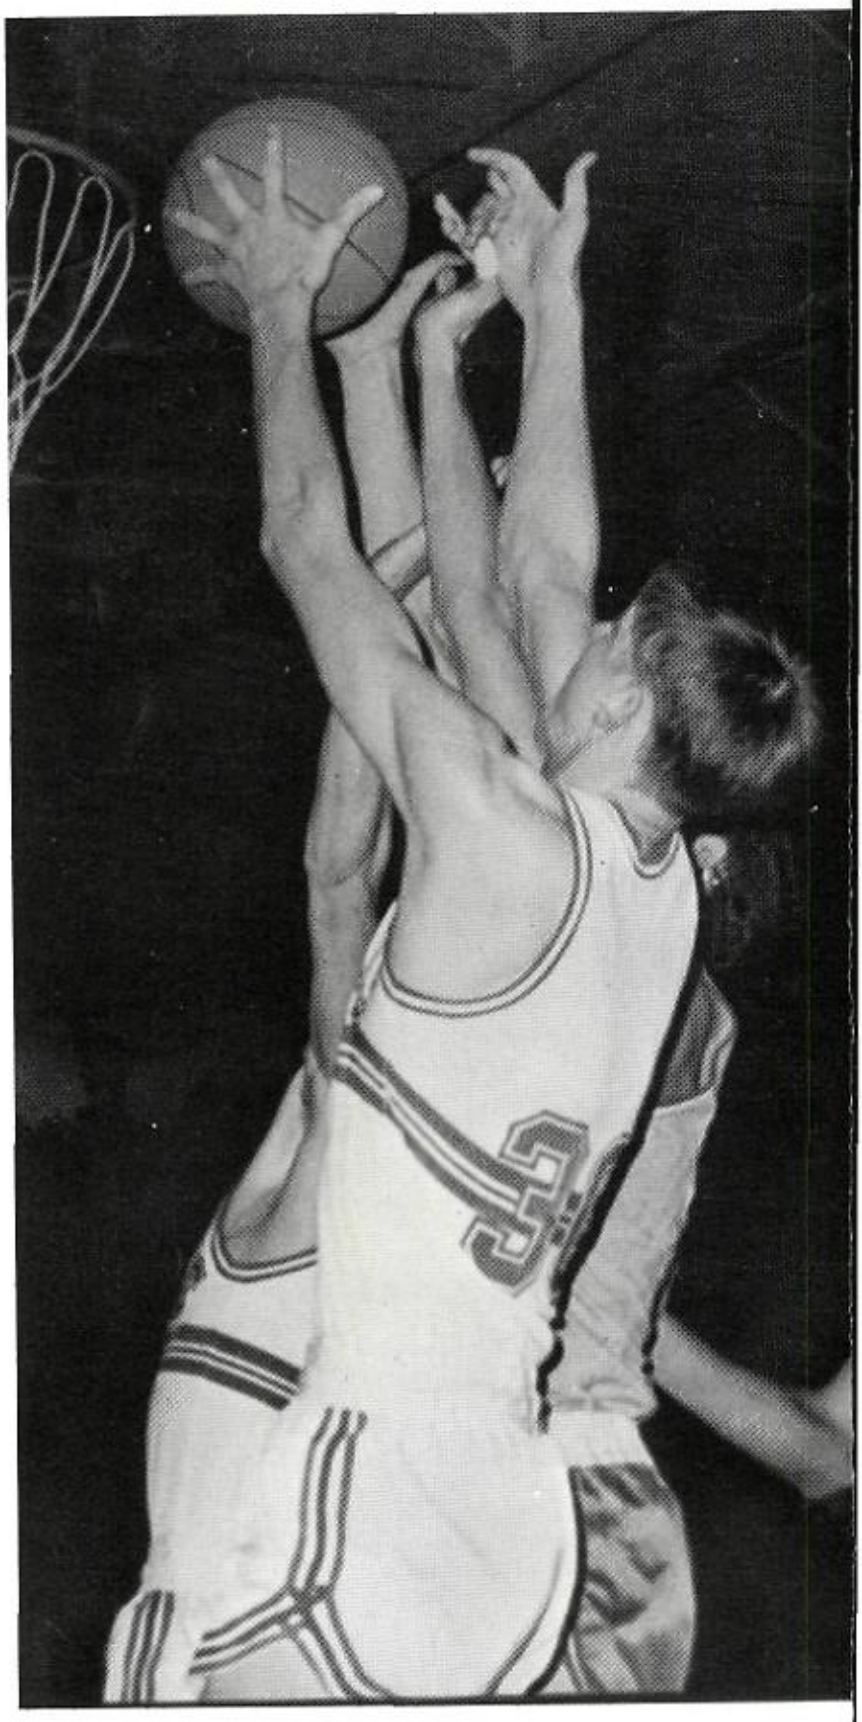
Texans Defeat Lions

The Texans padded their district mark with a firm 53-39 victory over the Castleberry Lions. Twomey, Barnett, and Dorman led the Texans by scoring 22, 19, and 12 points respectively.

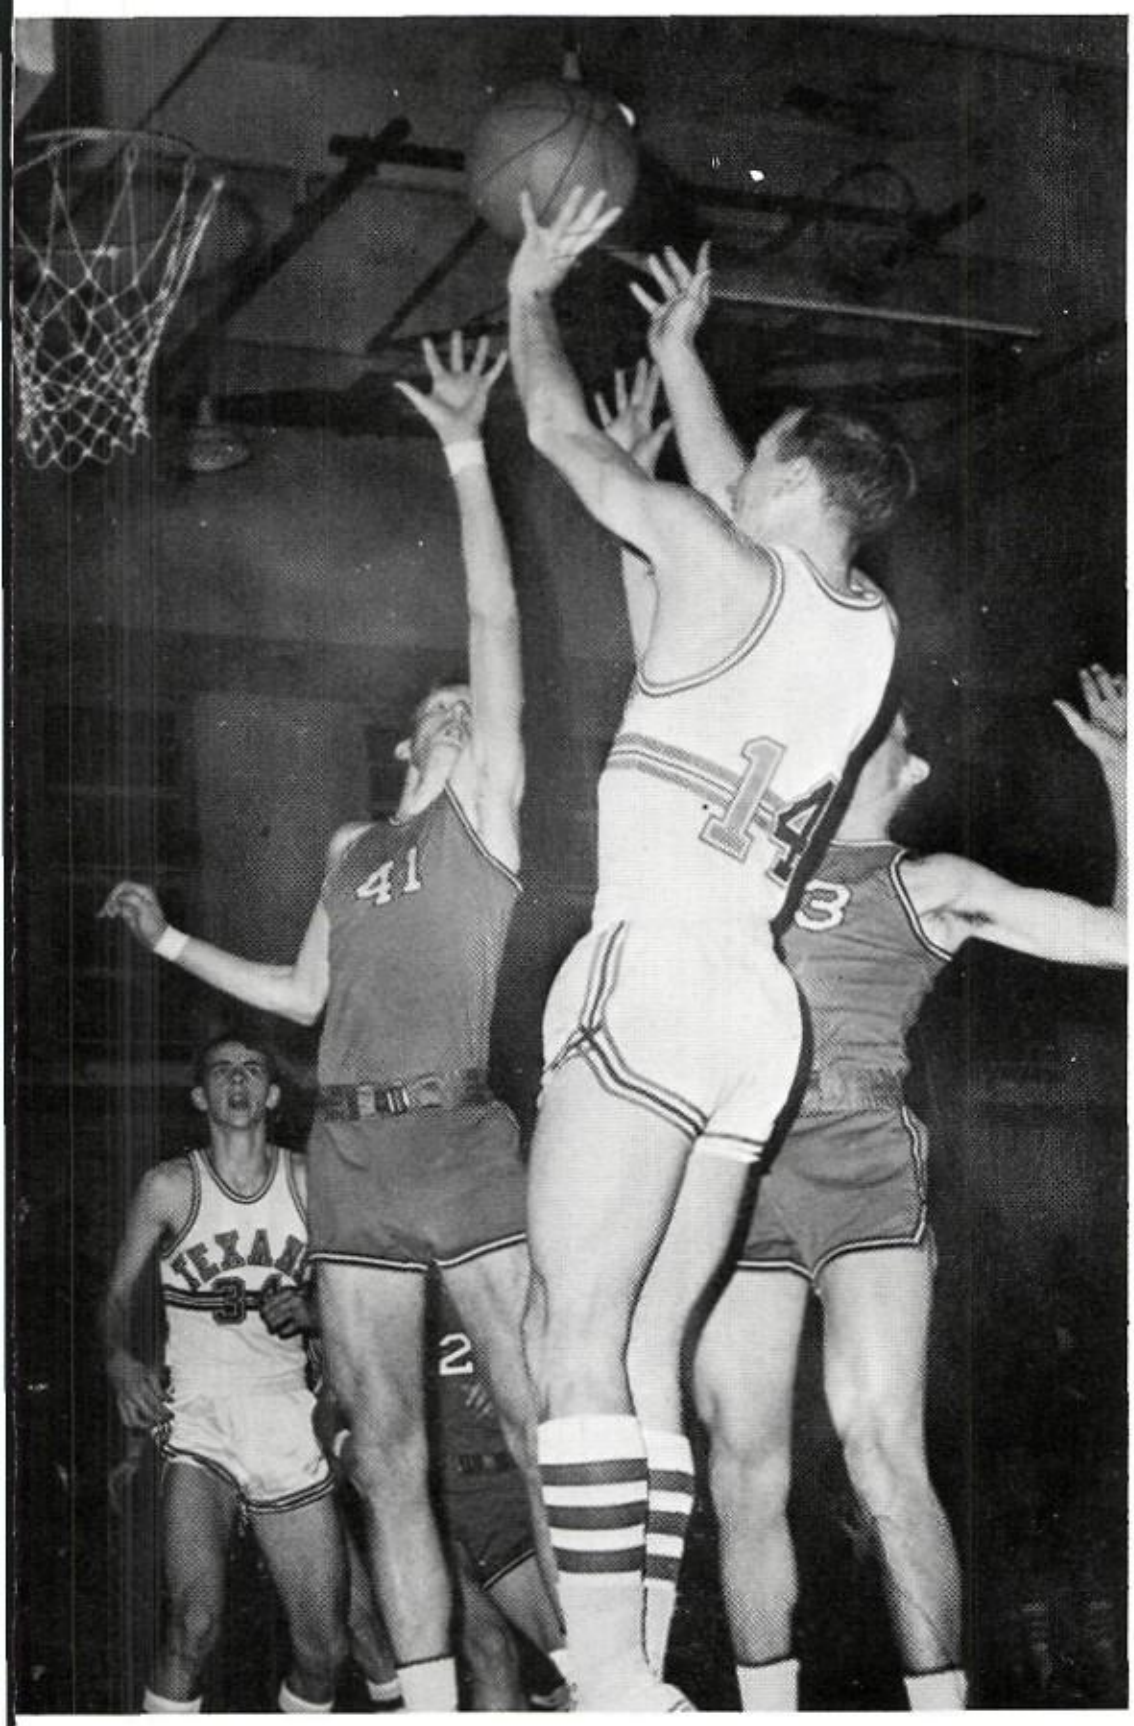
The game went by rapidly with Big Sam moving the ball down court and scoring fast. At the end of the first half Sam Houston led 25-19. SHHS hit 21 from the field and 11 from the free throw line.

GARY DONALDSON

OWEN BARNETT



Up high, fighting for the ball are Bill Ford (30), a Castleberry Lion, and another Texan.



With a jump shot early in the second half, Terry Twomey hits for two points, putting the Texans ahead by one.

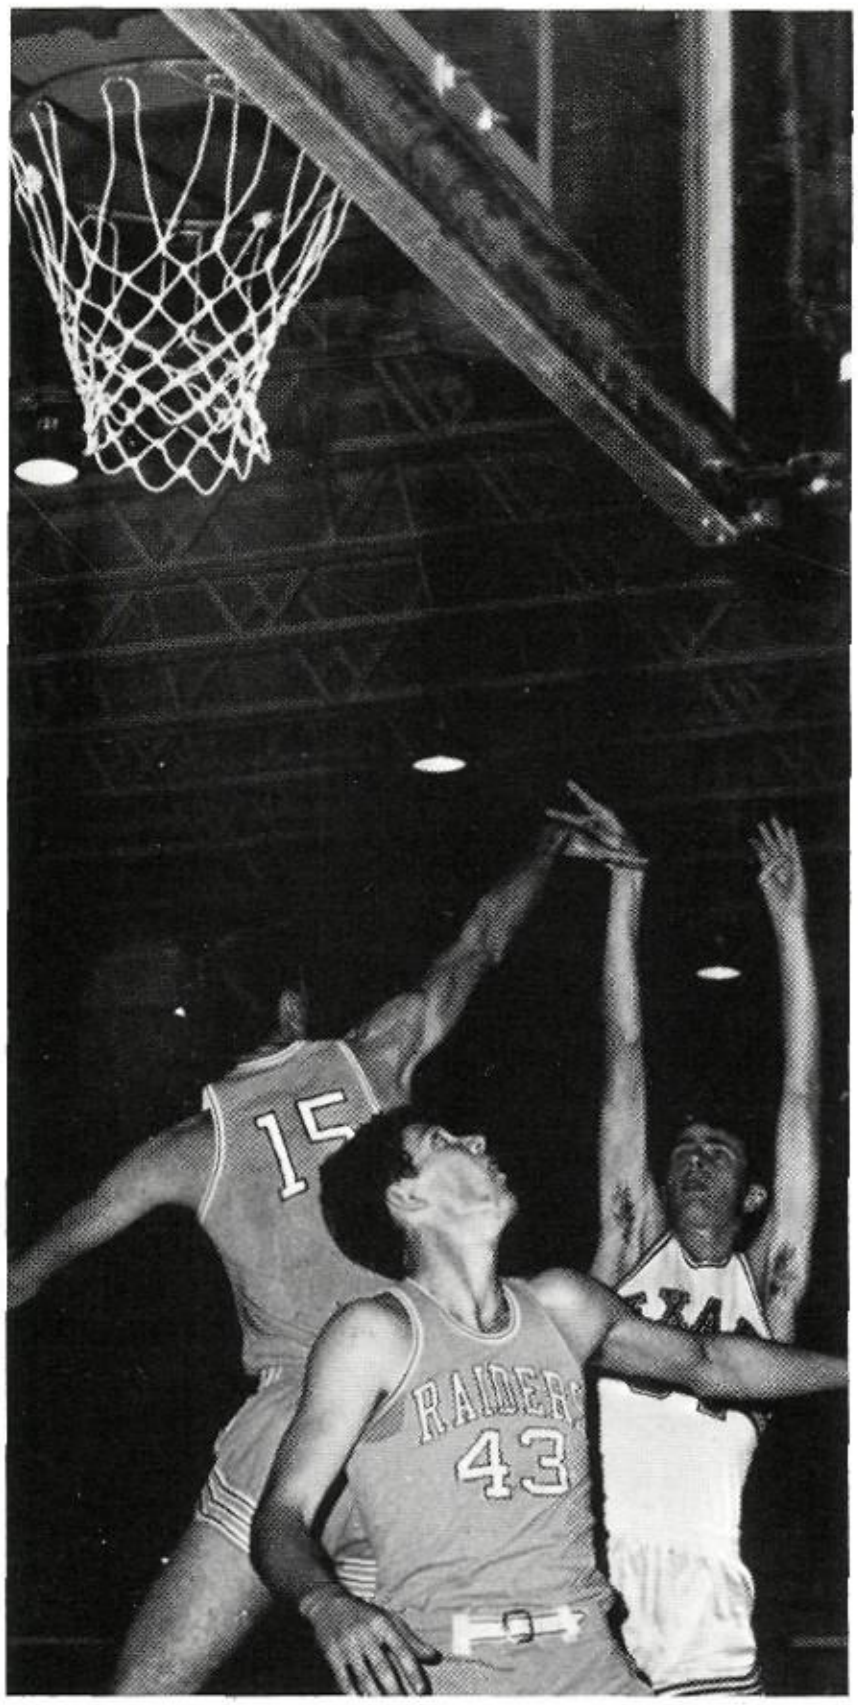
DAVID PURCELL

DAN DORMAN

Sam Edges By Bell

In a low scoring thriller, Sam Houston lost by one point 31-30 to L.D. Bell. Ford and Barnett led the Texans scoring 7 points each. With 11 seconds left, Big Sam's Owen Barnett sank two to put SHHS ahead 30-29. In a desperate effort, Bell brought the ball down court and with 3 seconds remaining, Johnny Hunt put the ball through with a 15 foot jump shot. This provided the points to put Bell ahead 31-30 as the whistle sounded.

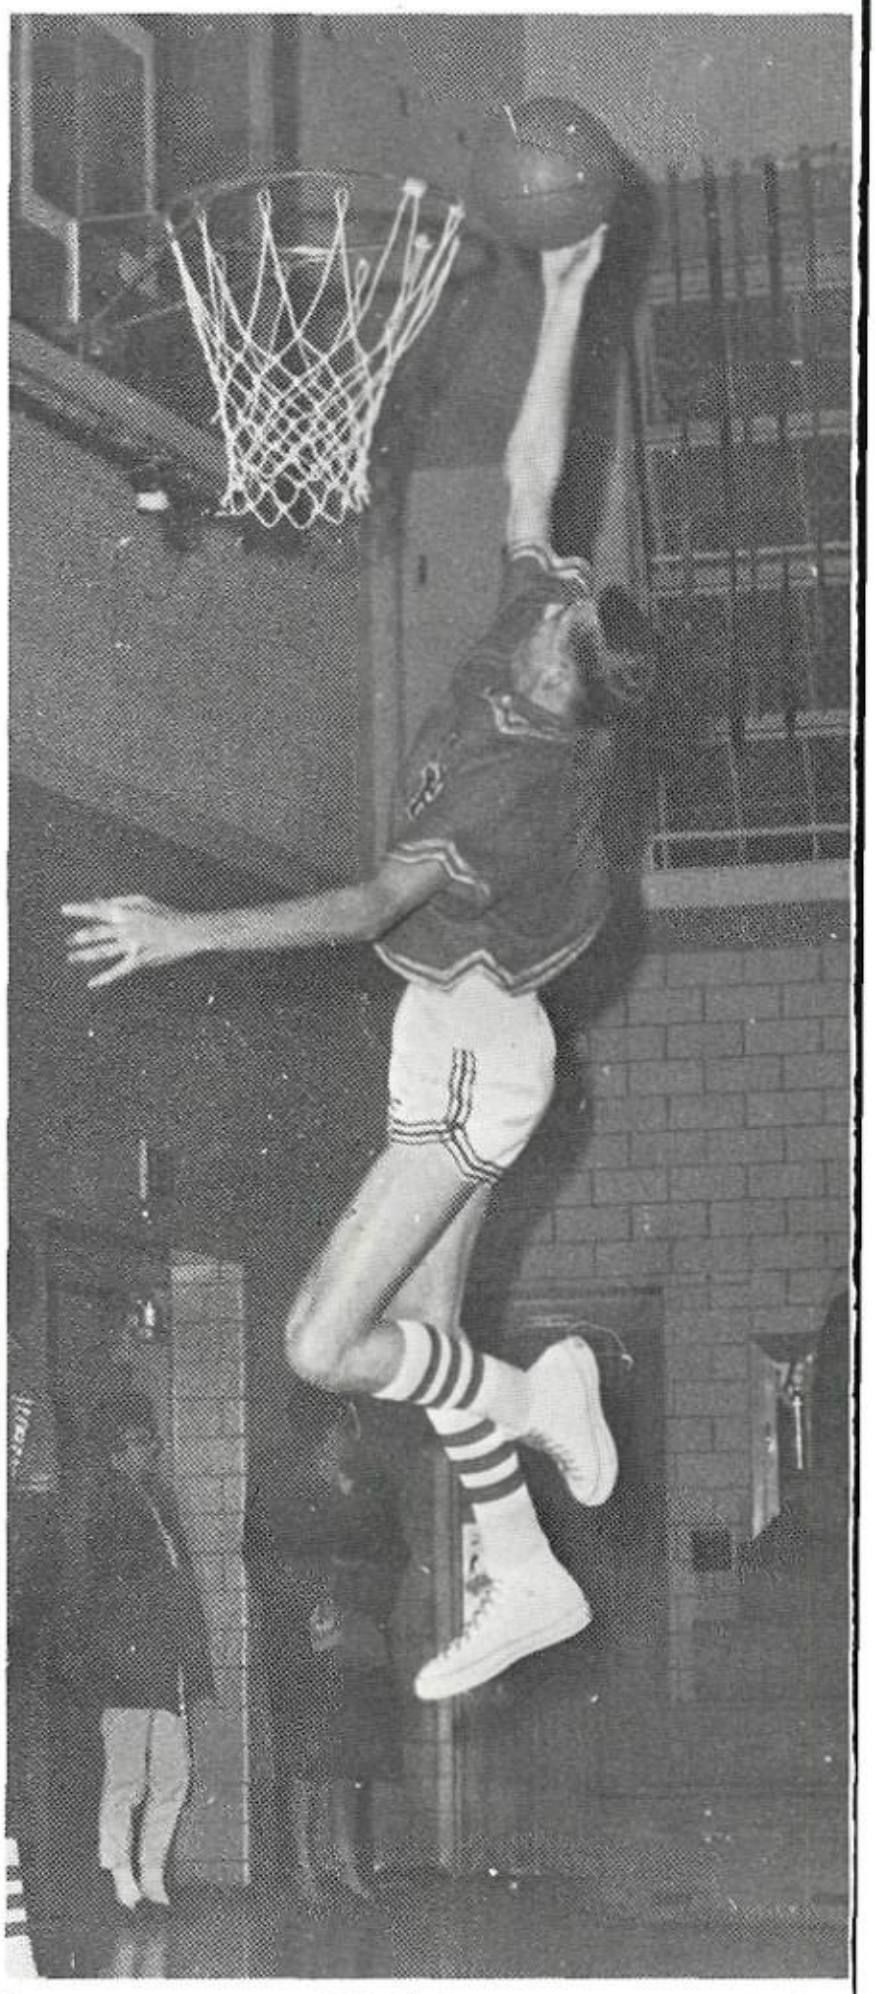
Sam Repeats Loss To Rider;



From the base line Jim Crouch takes a jump shot while 2 Raiders try to stop him.

After falling twice to Rider the Texans jumped back to defeat MacArthur for the second time this season. After the first quarter of play, with the score 10-9 in Rider's favor, it looked as if it were going to be a close game. As play went on Sam's drive gradually fell away and ended losing 51-42. Sam Houston's high scorer, Owen Barnett, hit 15 points; however the Raiders proved to be too much for the Texans.

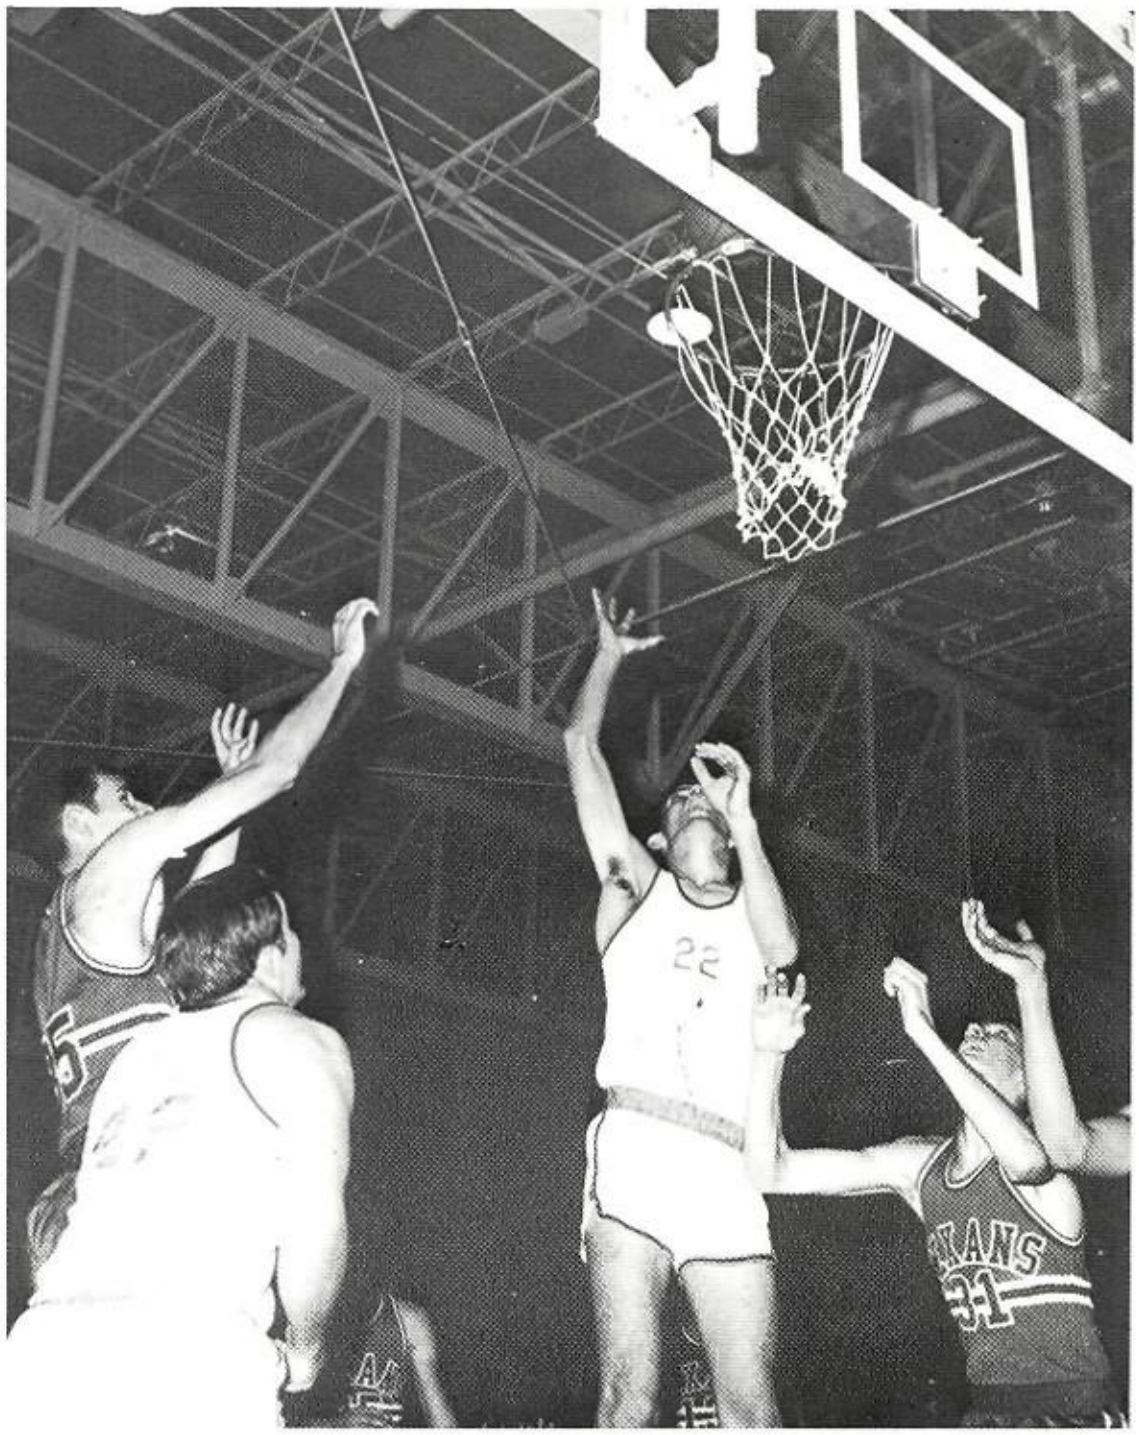
In the final game of the season, SHHS defeated MacArthur 52-50. The Texans trailed most of the game but in the fourth quarter pushed ahead to win.



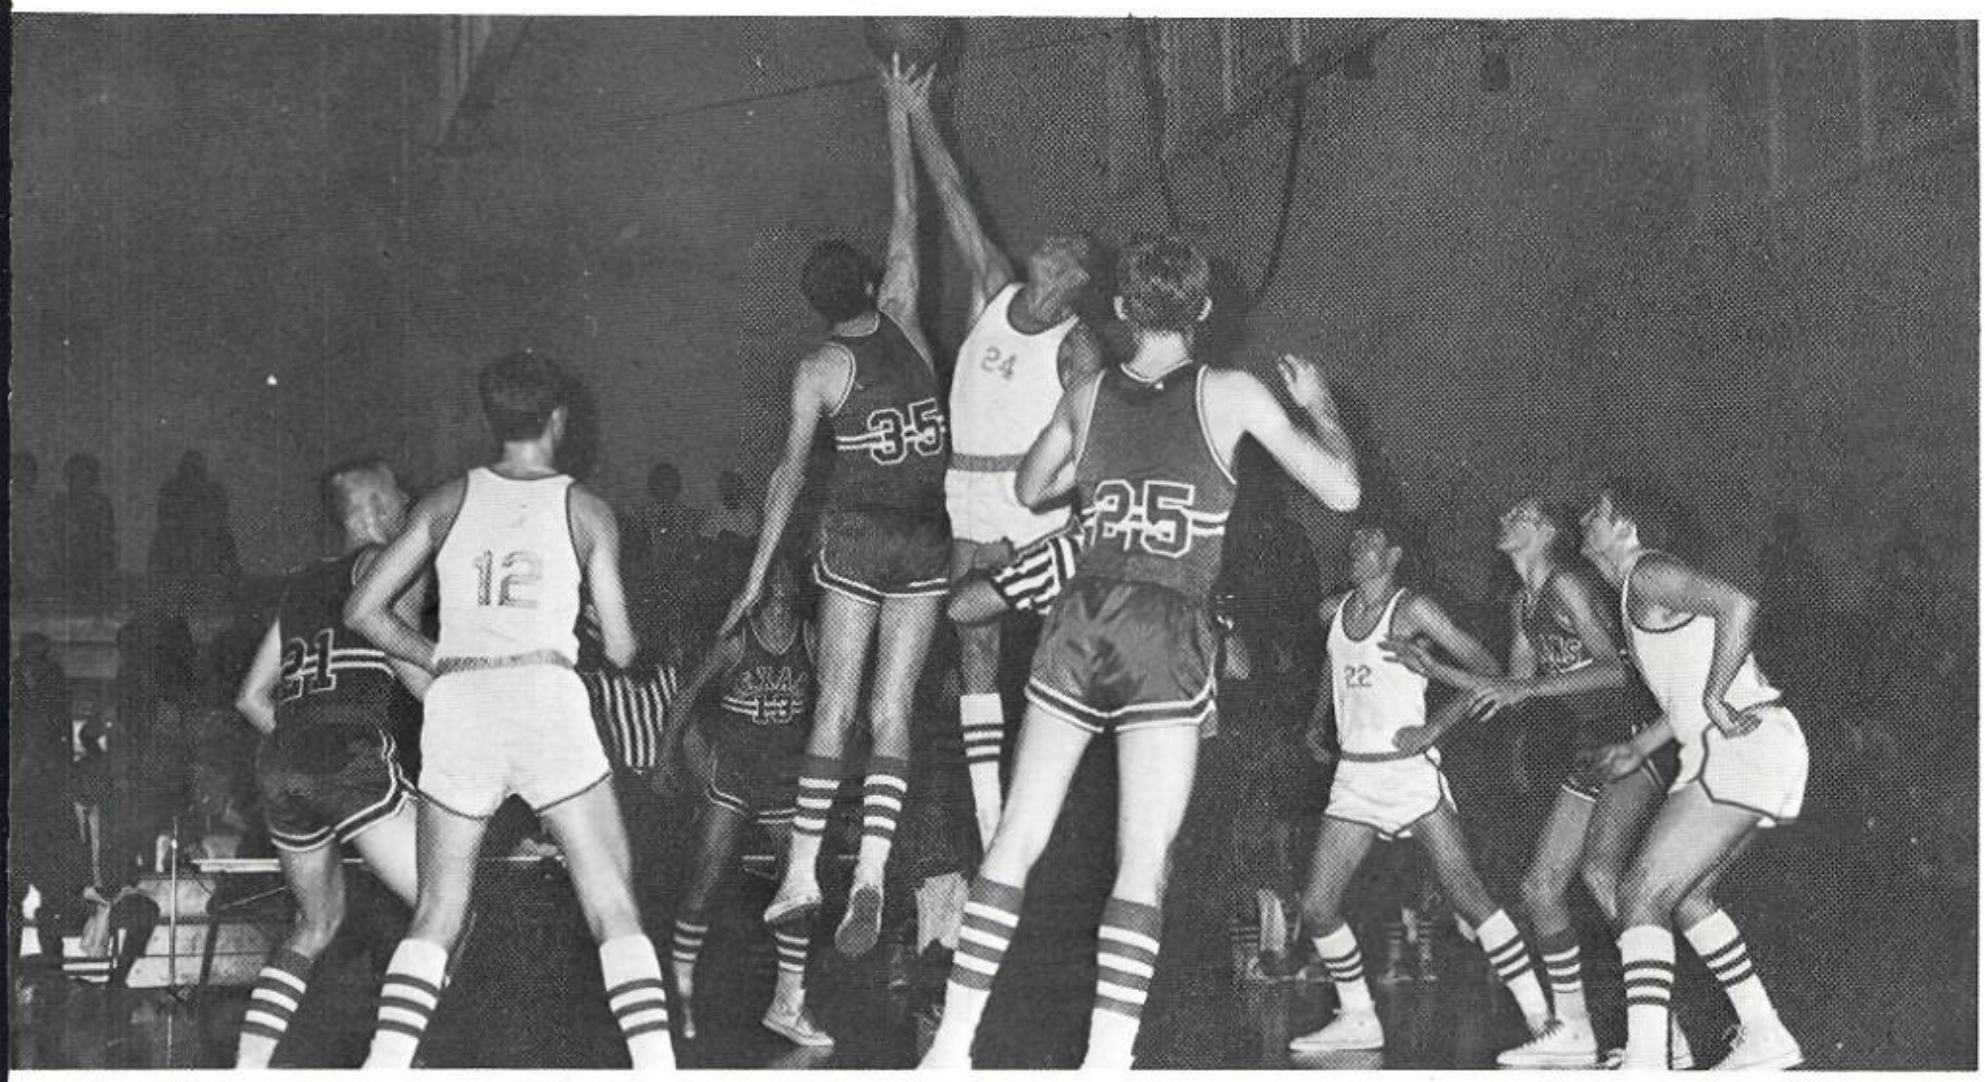
In pregame warm up Bill Ford manages to dunk the ball at Riders gym.

Win Over Cards

DUSTY DRURY



Senior Jim Crouch hits with a quick jumper close in while Owen Barnett (31) is there to check his shot.



n the final game of the season Jim Crouch (35) tipped off against the MacArthur Cardinals, while Steve Mitchell (25), Owen Barnett 21), Bill Ford, and David Purcell (31), of the Texans await the tip.

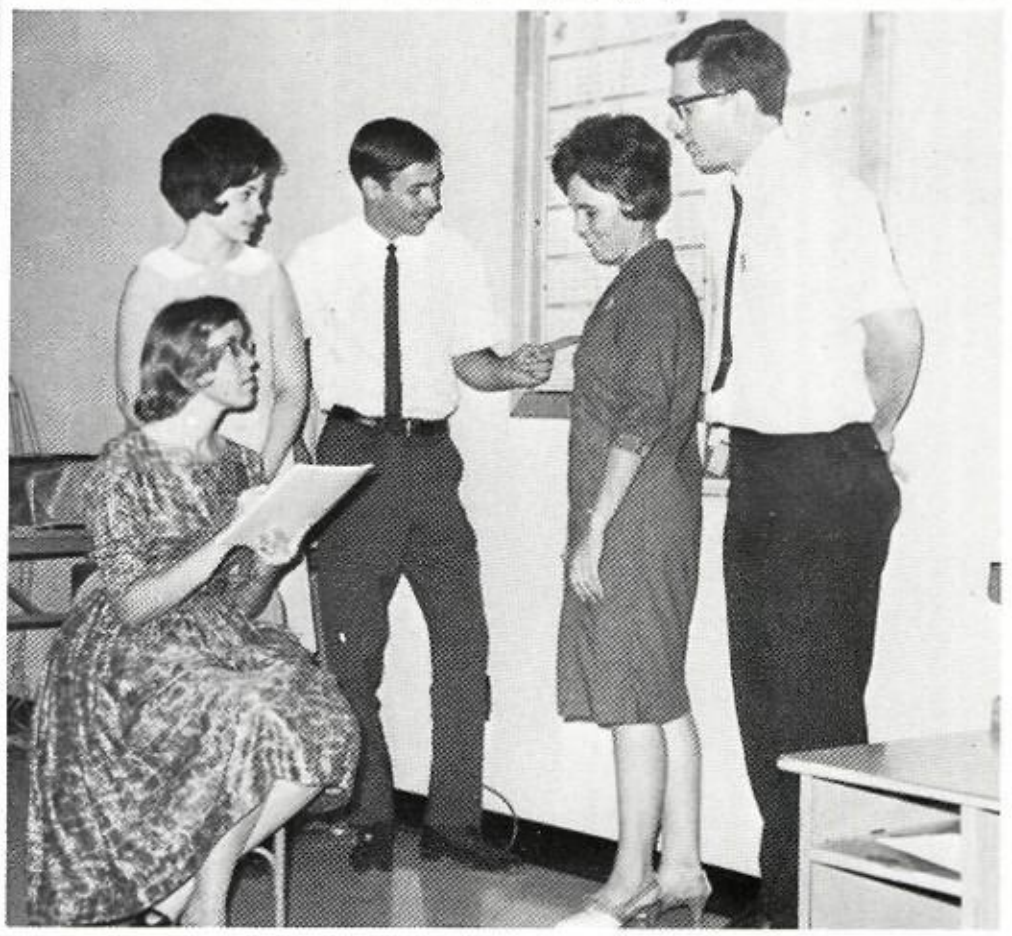
Discussing upcoming activities are junior officers Wells Watson, boys social chairman; Sheryl Anderson, girls social chairman; Brad Johnson, president; Terri Hiller, secretary; and Samantha Yarber, vice president.

Junior officers successfully guided the junior class to victory in the classes competition in Sam Houston's first school-wide magazine sale. Activities this year helped to prepare the juniors for greater responsibilities in their graduating year of 1968.



Checking dates for junior activities are sponsors Mrs. Myra Walker, Miss Donna Credille, Mr. Glenn Clayton, Mrs. Carolyn Hammonds, and Mr. Ronald Ferguson.

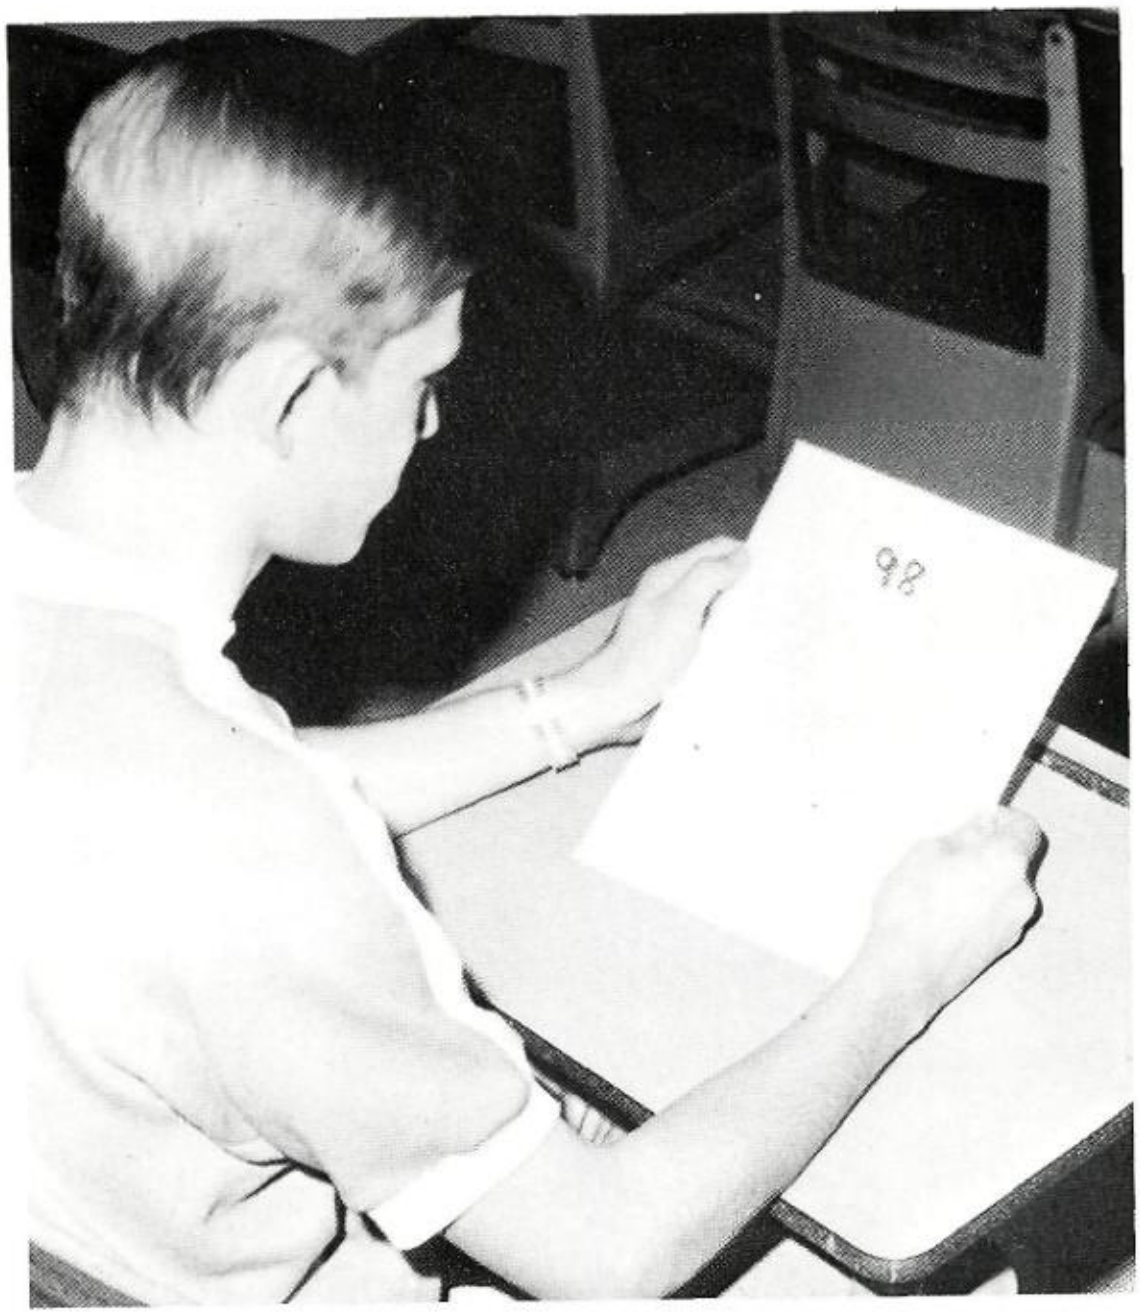
Mid Term Means Late Hours, Tests, Satisfaction



When it is all over, the grade makes up for lack of sleep and writers' cramp.

January 4 and 5 will be remembered as days of rigorous testing by Sam Houston students. Mid term exams in all solid subjects were given from 8:35 till 12:40 on those days.

Students got a rest from studying on Friday the sixth, which was records day. They returned Monday morning to homeroom classes for a day filled with semester grades and schedule changes.

Faculty

Administrators Face Growing Enrollment

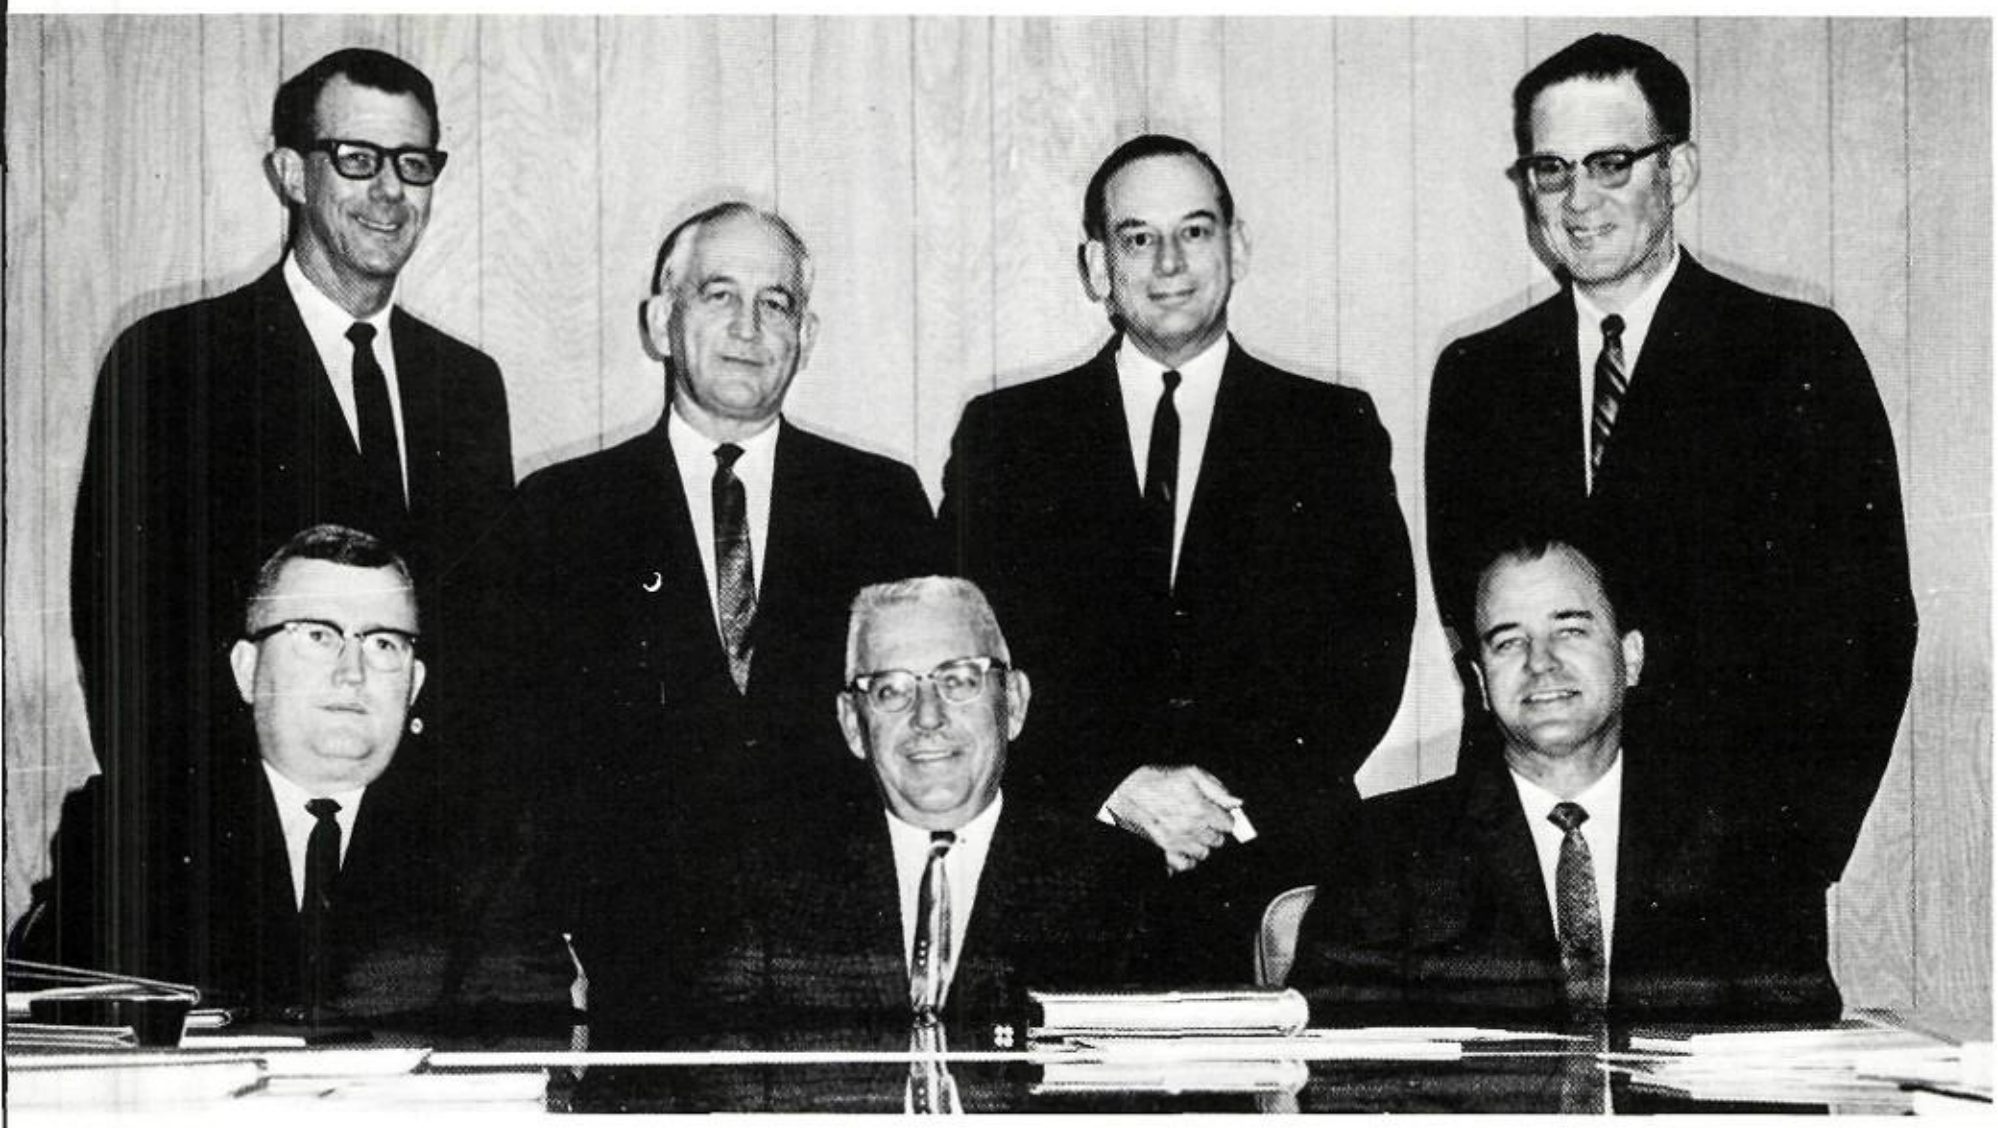
Frequent student contact helps Assistant Superintendent of Education Woodrow Counts with teacher-student relations in the Arlington school system.

A primary responsibility of the administration consists of regulating policies created by the school board. For the past twelve years, Superintendent James Martin has headed the administrative board. He has co-ordinated the program of the Arlington public schools during a period of growth and advancement in the city.

Assistant Superintendents are Mr. Roy Wood and Mr. Woodrow Counts. Both men have held these positions the past eight years. Mr. Wood manages the finance for the school system. Duties of Mr. Counts, director of education, include interviewing prospective teachers.

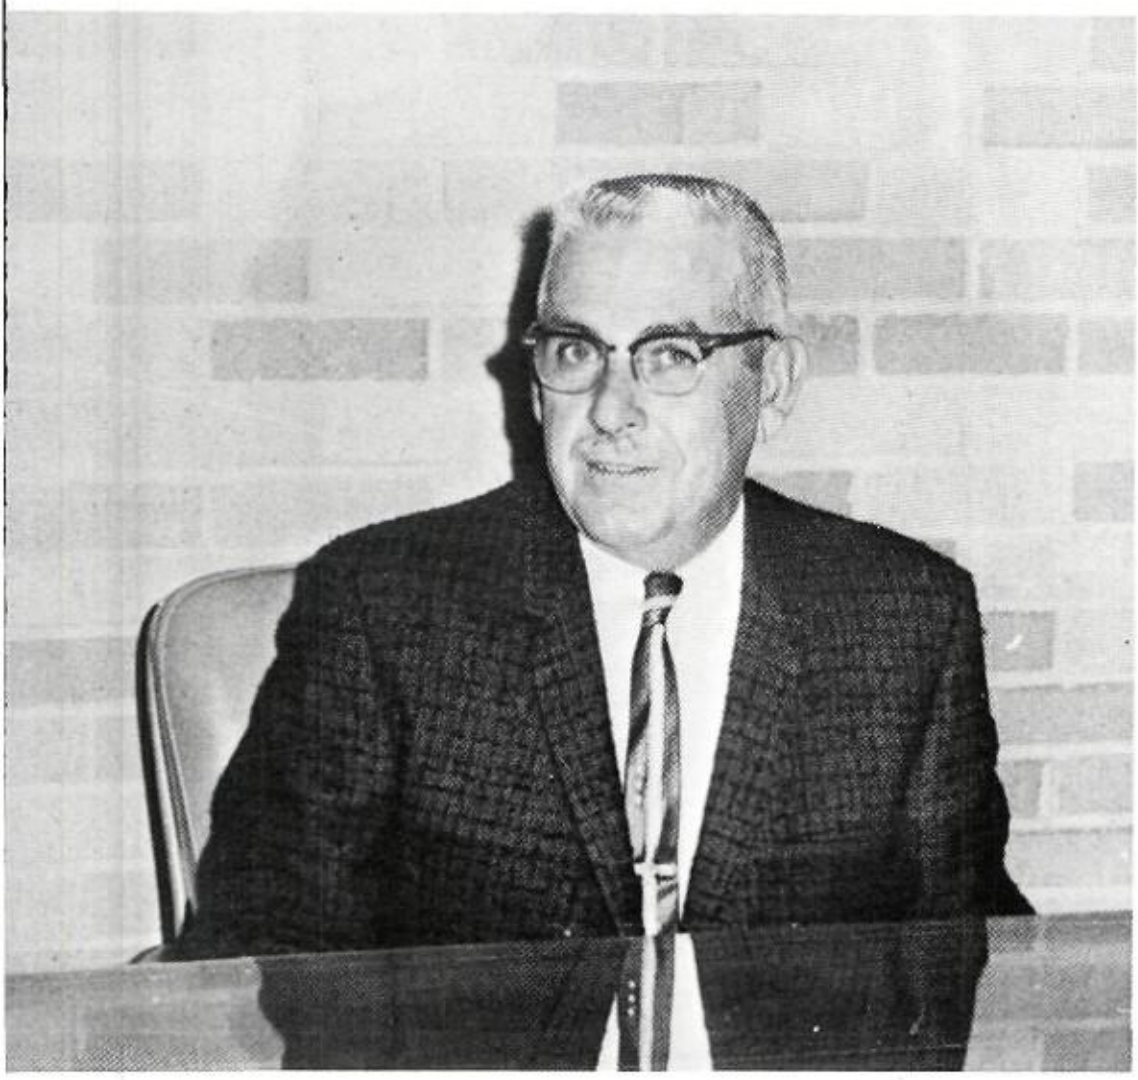
Superintendent James Martin consults his notes for an upcoming schoolboard meeting.

Checking his schedule for the day Assistant Superintendent of Finance Roy Wood phones to confirm an appointment.



During a December meeting, Board members (top row l. to r.) Mr. Tom Foster, Mr. Charles Young, Secretary Guy Hutcheson, Dr. J. M. Farrell, (bottom row l. to r.) Dr. Truett Boles, President Floyd Gunn, and Vice President Clyde Ashworth gathered to discuss school expansion ideas.

Board Discusses Sam's New Wing



MR. FLOYD GUNN
President

In answer to Sam Houston's needs for expansion, the School Board voted for the addition of a new wing which will be ready for the 67-68 year. Mr. Floyd Gunn, president, and Mr. Clyde Ashworth, vice-president, presided at the meetings of the prominent businessmen of Arlington. Board members make many important decisions on matters concerning the administration of the 22 schools in the city.

Principal Helps Solve Problems

The responsibility for more than 1500 students rests on the shoulders of Principal Harold W. Key.

Daily Mr. Key's voice sounds over the intercom directing students as to class schedules and school assemblies. His honorary membership in Thespians, and his position on the faculty basketball team stem from his interest in extra-curricular activities at Sam Houston.

Mr. Key's face was a familiar one as he toured the school, talking to students, teachers, and custodians.

Announcing the latest meetings and student information, Principal Harold Key enacts one of many duties.

Requesting Mr. Key's approval on Student Council plans is Student Council President Mike Huddleston.

MRS. CLOYE SHERROD
Dean of Girls

Two important positions have been filled since Sam Houston's beginning by Mrs. Cloye Sherrod and Mr. James Crouch.

As vice-principal, Mr. Crouch's responsibilities range from senior boys' counselor to regulator of textbooks. He often is seen hustling students out of halls or checking on problems in the parking lot. To him, high school is a time "for students to learn to live, work, and associate with people."

Duties of Mrs. Sherrod, Dean of Girls, are many. She counsels the sophomore and junior girls and aids the senior counselor if necessary. In short, she must consider problems concerning the welfare of all girls enrolling in Sam Houston. Mrs. Sherrod also selects and supervises the office assistants. She feels that in her job "Everyday is different."

Counselors Include College Assemblies in Curriculum

An all-new counseling staff brought fresh ideas for preparing Sam Houston students for college and careers.

Mrs. Judith Carrier, senior counselor, devised a program on college curriculum held during sophomore and junior testing. She invited guest speakers from Texas A&M, Dallas Junior College, and Arlington State College. Mrs. Carrier also provided seniors with a library of college catalogues, and their results on PSAT and college board tests.

Mr. Frank Gault worked with the growing sophomore and junior enrollment in the DAT and ITED testing programs. He also aided them in planning their schedules for the 1967-68 year.

Mr. Jim O'Bannon counseled the junior boys along with his added responsibilities as A-team basketball coach.

During the two days of college assemblies, Mrs. Judith Carrier used several means to explain the complex meaning of abbreviations of college board tests.

Secretaries Keep Records in Order

Three secretaries keep Sam Houston's office in perpetually busy order.

Mrs. Audine Whitten works with all money transactions, mail, transcripts, faculty lists, and insurance. She intercepts all interscholastic league reports and takes care of the bookkeeping. Mrs. Whitten served as Mr. Key's personal secretary for the first time this year. She is aided in her tasks by Mrs. Mary Ann Keal, who returned to Sam Houston as a part-time secretary this year.

Mrs. Doris Brazzil's job includes keeping a growing attendance record. She also fills out bus reports and withdrawal forms.

Staffs Serve 1,506 Students

A growing Sam Houston brought longer lines to lunch periods as cafeteria workers planned and prepared meals for students who ate in the lunchroom. An increase from 35¢ to 40¢ for lunches provided students with an extra choice of foods.

The custodial staff worked on shifts from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. keeping the school in good condition. They swept all halls, erased blackboards, and cleaned rooms.

Speech, Journalism Involve After-School Hours

Newer and harder competition marked the speech and journalism departments' first year in 4-A.

In addition to teaching three levels, speech teachers had the responsibility of directing class plays, "Pygmalion", and "Father of the Bride."

In both departments, not all the work can be covered in class.

Mrs. Annell Ward, who sponsors the "Cherokee", put in many long hours to help staff members meet deadlines. In her Journalism I classes Mrs. Ward stressed basic rules of newspaper writing. These ideas were applied in the Journalism II class, which published "Texans Talk."

Her groups performed jointly with the band at Homecoming and presented special programs for holidays. At the Gainesville 4-A competition, Gloria Allen of the Concert Choir won an all-region rating.

Directing the Texan Band, stage band, and instructing classes in music theory was Mr. Robert Rober. Playing for pep rallies, concerts, assemblies, and games, the band also faced 4-A competition at the Tri-State Festival in Oklahoma and Bowie, where six members made all-region band.

Mrs. Mildred Russum, art teacher, instructs Kathy Simmons and Diane Korsmeyer, seniors, how to combine op art and basketball. Commercial art students made posters in spirit promotion for basketball season.

Contributing to publications, drawing spirit posters, and producing entries for the Fine Arts Festival kept the photography and art departments busy.

Cartoons and pictures add to "Texans Talk". Photographs capture memorable experiences from the second homecoming to graduation of the class of '67.

The art department's paintings and showcases added touches of creativity throughout the year.

P.E. Keeps Sam in Shape

Coaching, sponsoring cheerleaders, and promoting good health through vigorous exercises are only a few of the many activities of Sam Houston's physical education teachers.

Competition between classes in interclass tournaments mark the basketball, volleyball, and baseball seasons.

A-team basketball coach, Jim O'Bannon, and B-team football coach, Mike Pirkle, were added to Sam Houston's coaching staff in their first 4-a year.

All of the coaches aided the teams in the stiff competition of the new division.

Youth Worker, A.F.S. Students Provide Spring Assemblies

Dr. Ralph Neighbors, FCA speaker, discussed teenager's problems and beliefs.

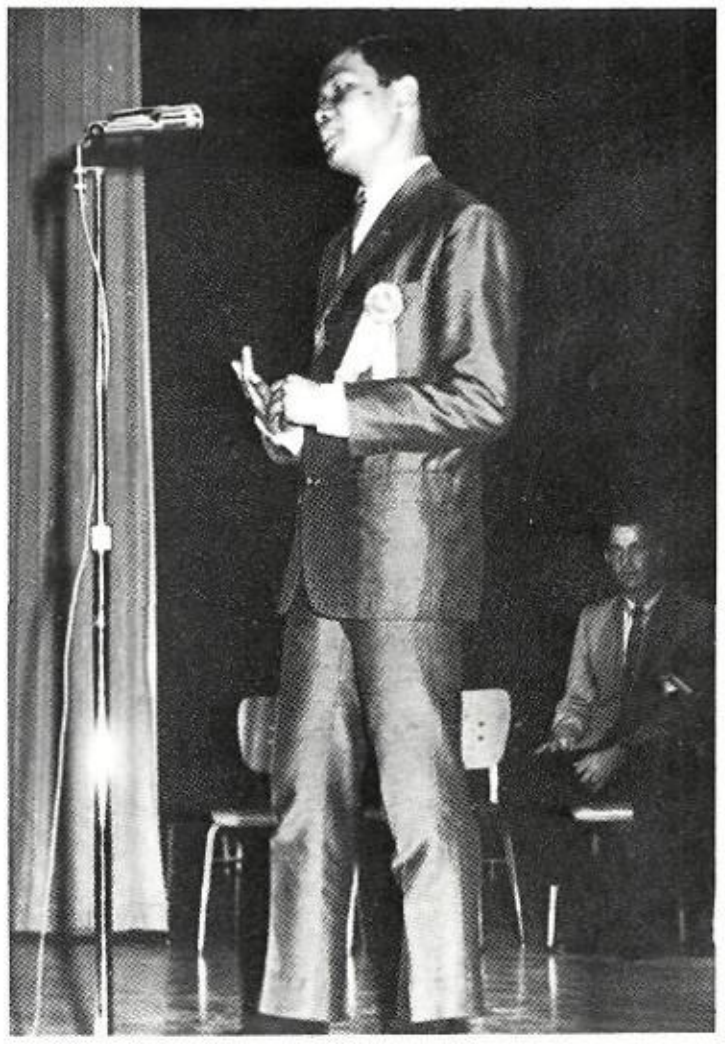
Along with many spring activities assemblies added variety to the daily routine. One of the most entertaining, the Texan Day assembly featured talent found within Sam Houston. In another, held by A.F.S., foreign exchange students of seven neighboring schools brought touches of their homeland to Big Sam students. The A Capella choir and Holiday Singers from U.T.A. performed selections including "Lara's Theme" from the movies "Dr. Zhivago". In another musical assembly, choir and band joined to present the preview of "Caberet", a show raising money for foreign exchange students.



During the American Field Service Assembly 'Lek' Kampoon Friedamierkies tells of his homeland Thailand.

Texan Baseballers Complete 4-4 District Mark

The Texan baseballers took the field in 1967 in District 4-AAAA. Sam started slow with early season losses to Wichita Falls Rider, Irving McArthur and Bell. At mid point of the season the Texans stood with a 1-3 won-loss district record. Playing McArthur, Castleberry, and Bell for the second time the Texans evened out their district marks with wins over each. This placed the Texans in second place in the zone with a 4-win-4-loss record.

Senior Terry Twomey took batting honors with a .375 average in district while Jim Carmichael with 5-2 won-loss record was the leading pitcher.

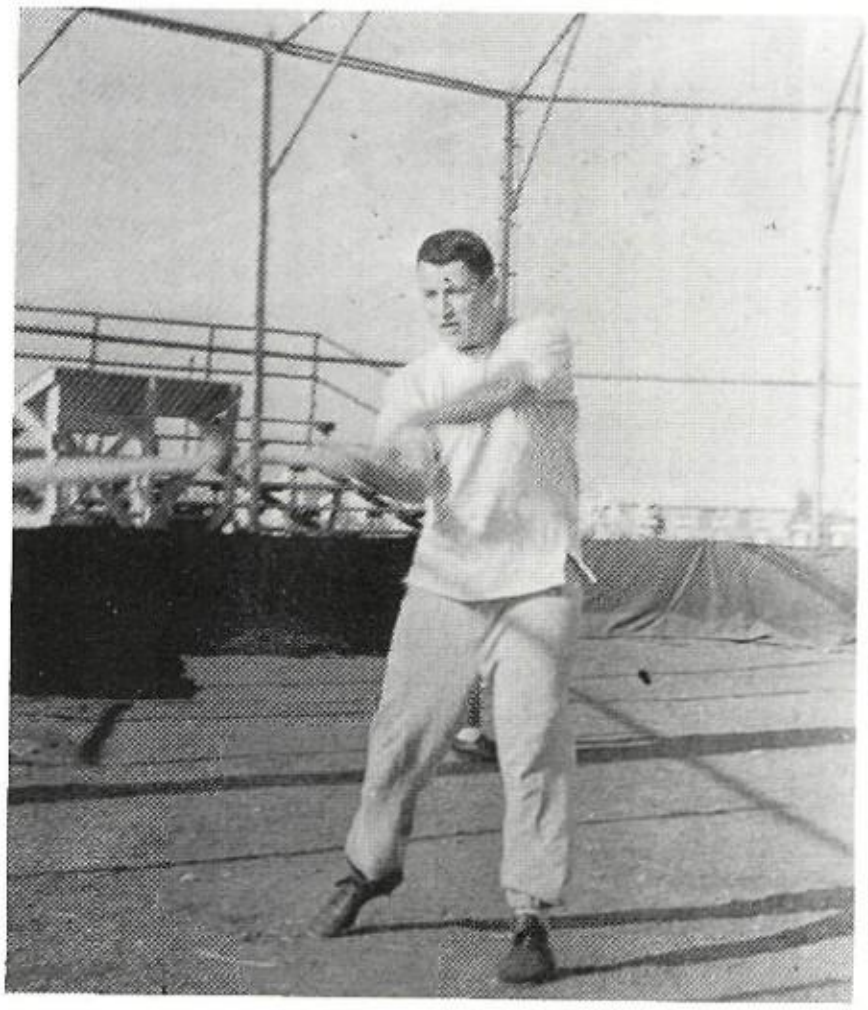
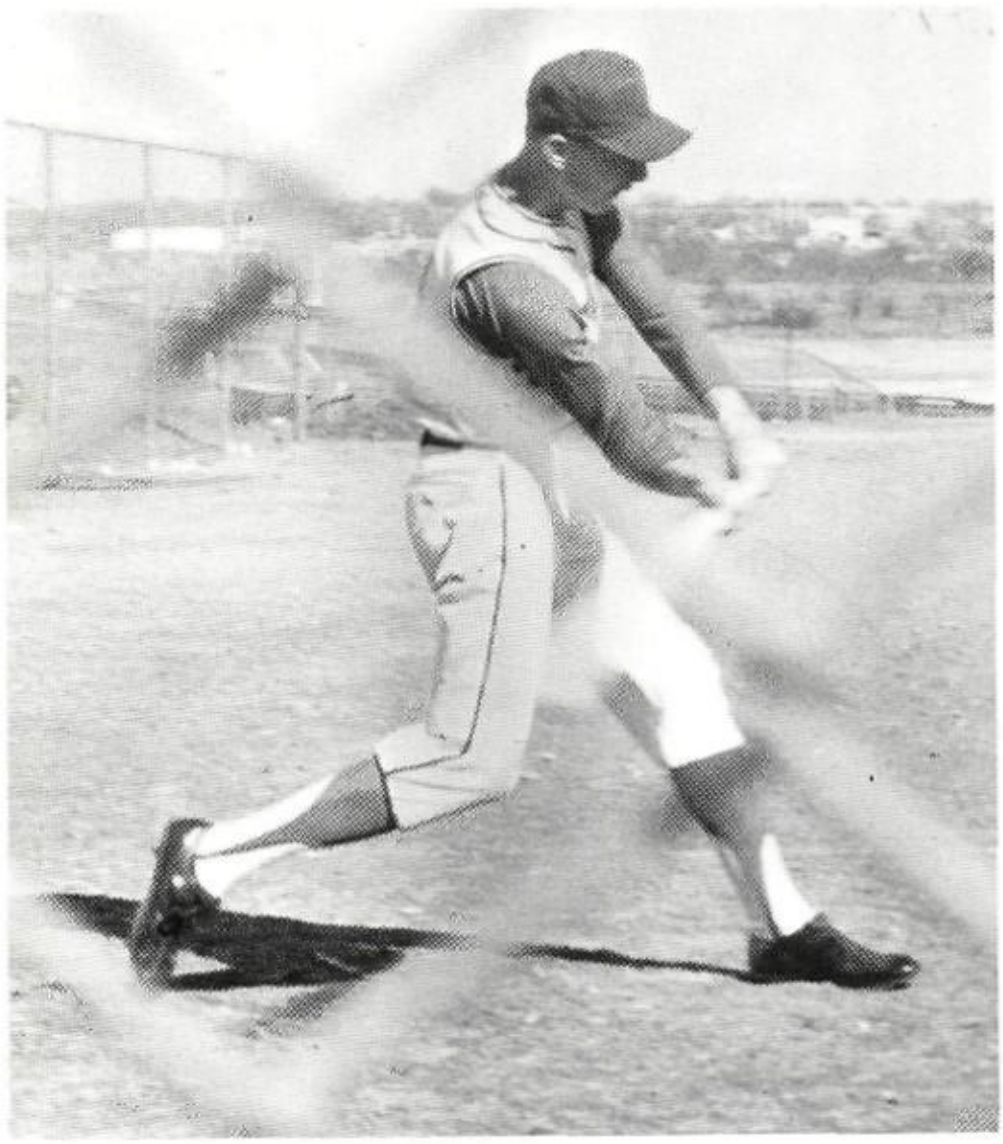
Warming up for the Bell game, David York throws a curve.



In one of the many pre-season practices, David Farhat hits infield practice at the Sam Houston field.

In the MacArthur game Ray Brady rounds third and heads for home.



With a powerful swing, Steve Hodges hits a double in the Lake Highlands game.

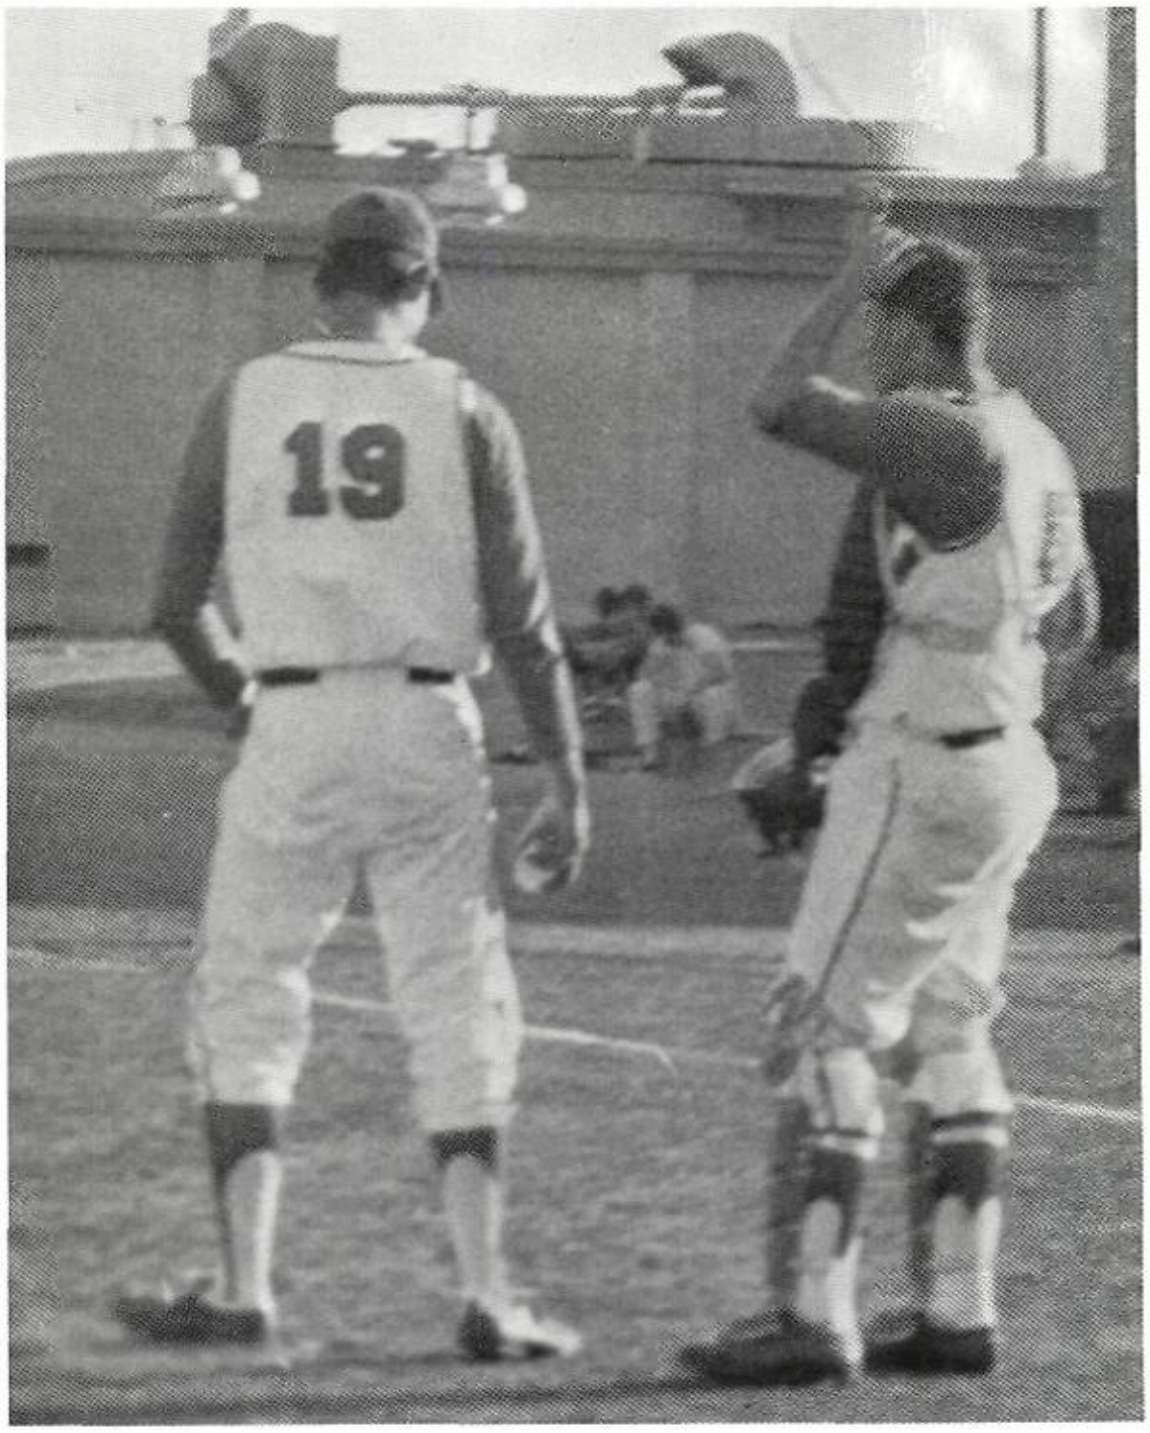
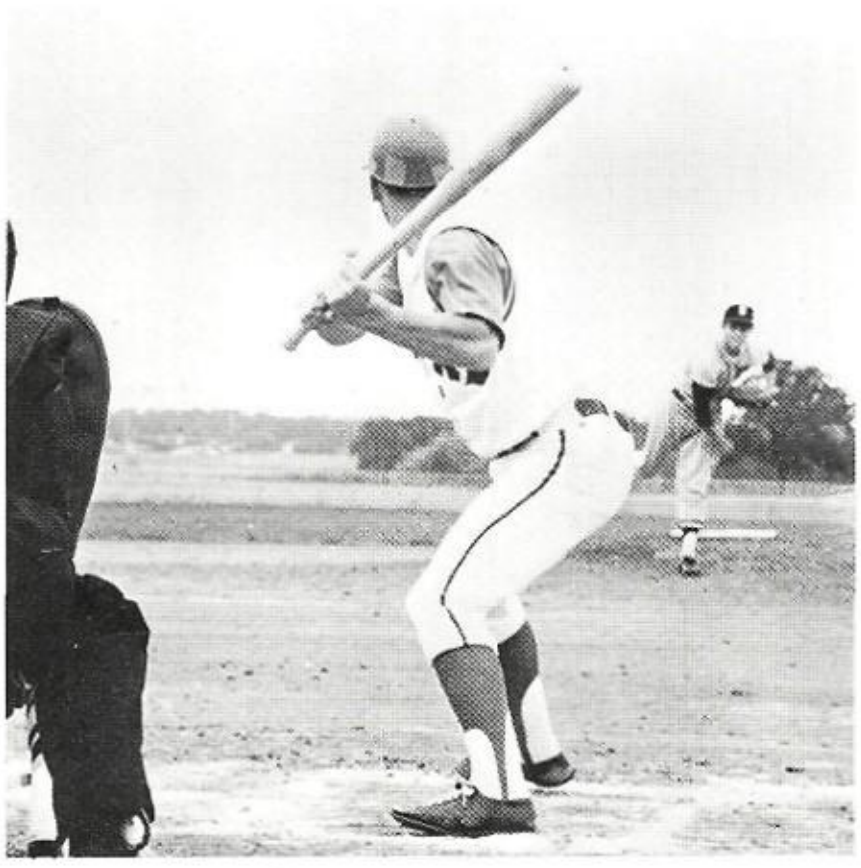
The Big Sam bench studies their opponent, Bell, during their pre-game warm up.

Squared around to bunt, Danny Neal rolls one down the third base line at MacArthur.



Straightening out pitching signals are Lance Bass (15) and David Farhat catcher.

Texans Use Team Effort To Overcome Castleberry



Switch-hitting Terry Twomey steps into this Castleberry pitch.

Striding for home base is Ray Brady in the Castleberry game.

Golfers Represent Big Sam At District Meet

Blasting out of a sand trap is Bob Anderson as Bill Jones waits to putt.

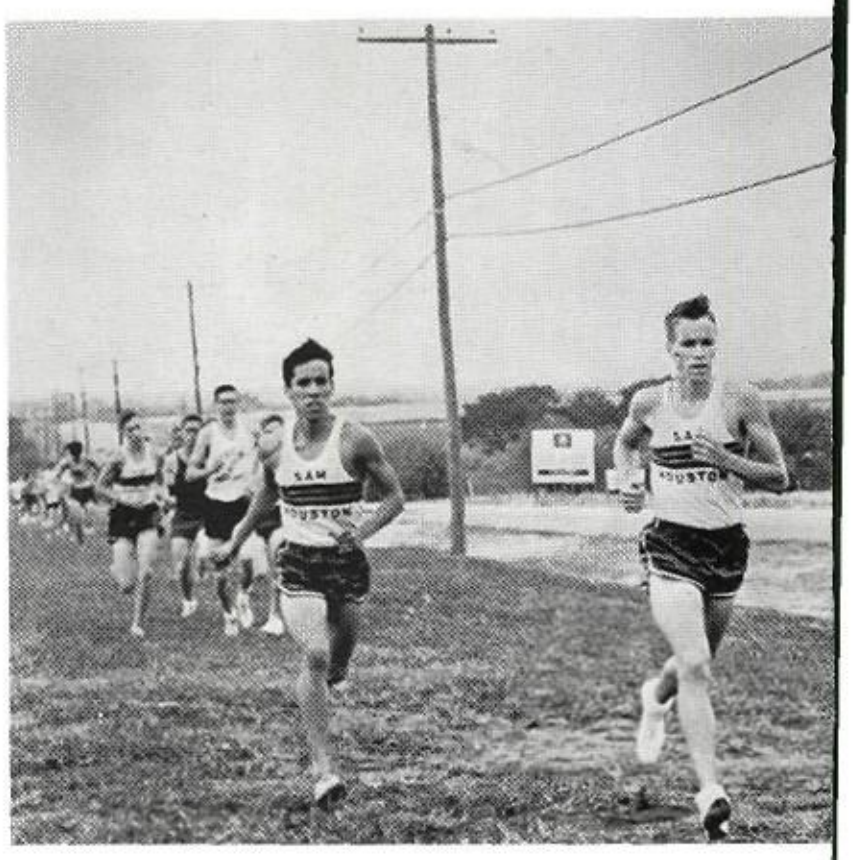
Spending many hours after school at the golf course, the golf team prepared for the seven meets they attended. Out of eleven teams at the district meet the Texans placed seventh. Coach Wallace Johnson was very pleased with his team's efforts in District 4-AAAA and expects an even stronger team next year.

Texans Place Third In State Cross-Country Meet

Making up the cross country team for 1966-67 are (bottom row) James Schultz, Gerald Gansert, (middle row) Ray Crosby, Phil Wells, Ricky Taylor, David Mobley, (top row) John Brimmer, David Holloway, Bob Brice, Jude Plauche.

After many workouts and eight meets the Sam Houston Cross country team ended its season with third place in the State meet at Austin. The Texans acquired 56 trophies including individual and team honors received during the 1966-67 season. Coach Hyden is hoping for another strong team next year with Bob Brice, Gerald Gansert, James Schultz, Phil Wells, John Brimmar, and Jude Plauche returning.

Set ... Go! The Texans in the center of the picture get off to a good start of the cross country meet at Ft. Worth.



With Bruce McGee in first, Robert Alcala in Second and Bob Brice in fourth, the Texans ran to victory in the Lake Highlands cross-country meet.

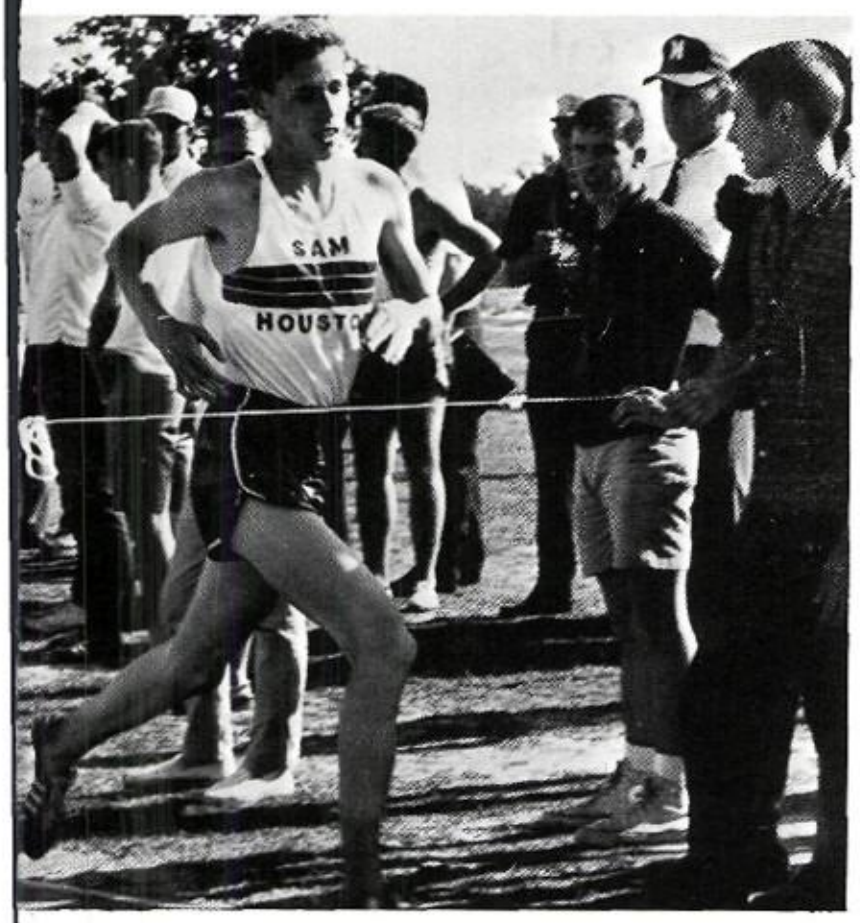
Cindermen Stay In Shape With Daily Work-outs



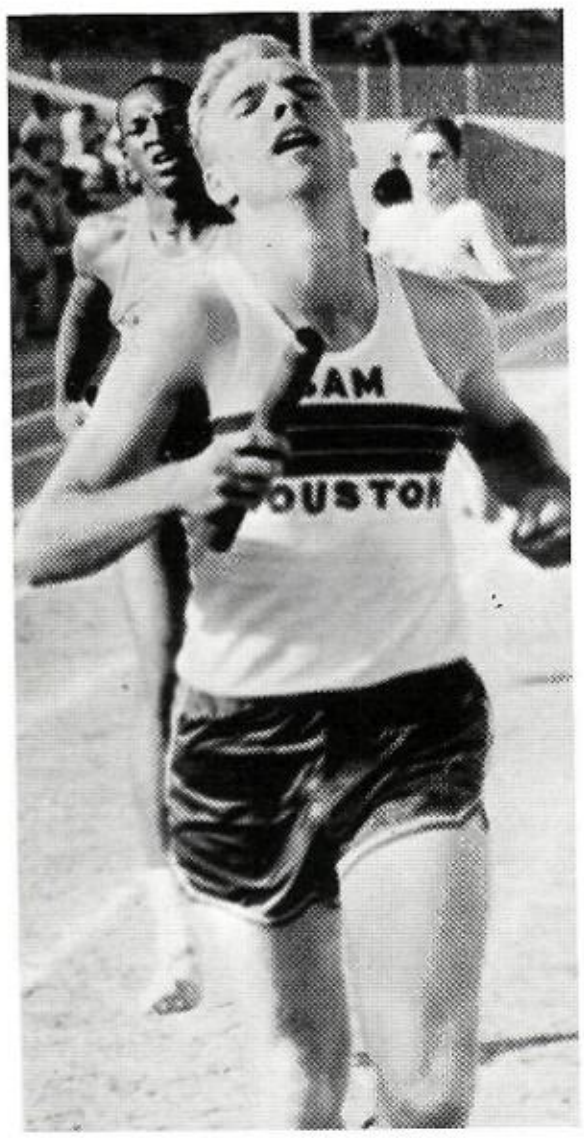
Finishing the mile run in the district meet at Bell, Bob Brice is clocked at 4:25.6 setting a new district record.

Many afternoon workouts prepared the Texan tracksters for the seven meets they attended. Bob Brice was one of the outstanding runners for Sam Houston finishing the mile run in record time at the district meet.

Coach James Hyden designed the workout each day of the track season that got Big Sam in shape to take fourth in the district meet at Bell. He is hoping for another strong team next year.

Up and over goes David Mobley as he clears 5'8" at the Ft. Worth Invitational Meet.

Bob Brice Smashes Mile District Meet Record



Finishing the last 10 yards of the mile relay in sheer exhaustion, Ray Crosby finishes second at the Ft. Worth Recreation Meet.

In the Arlington Relays, Paul Parker starts out on the 440 yard high hurdles.

Texan Trackmen Finish Fourth In District 4-AAAA

After taking the hand-off from Mike McMillan, David Rogers starts the second leg of the sprint relay.

Completing the sprint relay, Mike Davis (left) places second in the Ft. Worth Recreation meet.

Sam Houston's physical education program offers versatile programs of physical training through calisthenics and class intramurals. Students become stronger physically while learning basic fundamentals of such sports as football, basketball, baseball, volleyball, soccer, and track.

Physical fitness tests are held every six weeks with points awarded for achievement in all events. At the end of the year these points are added up for each individual and a physical education "Athlete of the Year" is recognized. This year Pat Barry was awarded this honor with 8,615 points.

Intramurals are conducted in football on a class basis. Eliminations are held to determine the school champion in each event.

P.E. Classes Emphasize Physical Fitness

Practicing for the district meet in which he placed third in singles, Steve Burdick launches a driving serve to his opponent.

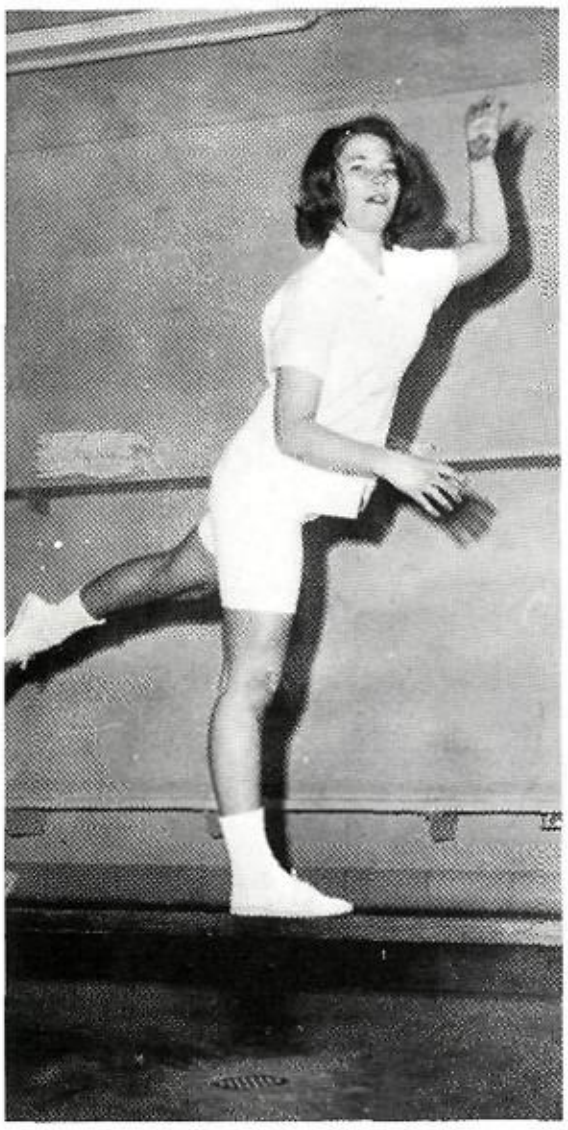
Practice, Instruction Strategic For Tennis

Practicing after school, the Texan netters prepared for the district meet at Grand Prairie. Steve Burdick, playing singles at Grand Prairie, finished fourth while Mike Escoff and Alan Klem, playing doubles, also took fourth.

Other members of the team are Patti Read, Sue Ashley, Mandy Gallegos, Bob Benson, Jim Womack, and Sandy Cooper.

Coach David Adams awarded seniors with letter sweaters and juniors with letters.

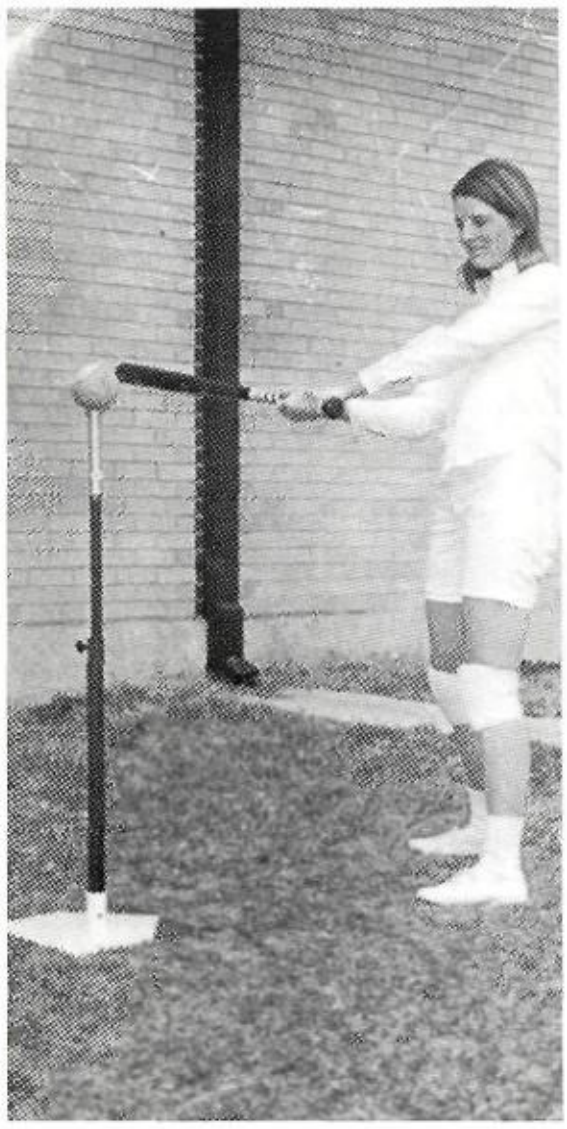
Participation Is Key To Physical Education



Using the balance beam, Mary Stolley does a level stance.

Covering a wide variety of sports, the Girls P.E. classes range from physical fitness to archery. Volleyball, basketball, baseball, track, and marching are also instructed by Mrs. Shannon Jett and Mrs. Joy Tomlinson.

Equipment added to the department this year included a balance beam, batting practice stand, and new pennies for the intramurals. This equipment encourages every girl to take part in class participation.



Needing the batting practice, Frieda Jackson makes use of the stand.

During a third period basketball game, Brenda Denton aims at the rim with Angie Durden providing protection from the opposing players, Anne Wynne and Karen Brauer.

Volleyballers Place Third In State

On a spike, Sandy Denton puts it over Archie Hutchinson and Deitra Roseman.

Off to a good start in 4-A competition this year, the Sam Houston Volleyball Team won the District Championship for the third consecutive year by defeating Arlington High. The Regional, Sam Houston's first, gave the team a win over Carrollton and a try for the State Championship. This was Big Sam's first attempt at the 4-A State title, previously they had placed 4th and 5th in State 3-A competition. The Texans lost to Abilene Cooper, last year's champions, and won over Spring Branch to place third in the State 4-A Tournament.

At the Regional game, Debbie Adkins, (13), sets up to Rhonda Springer, (7).

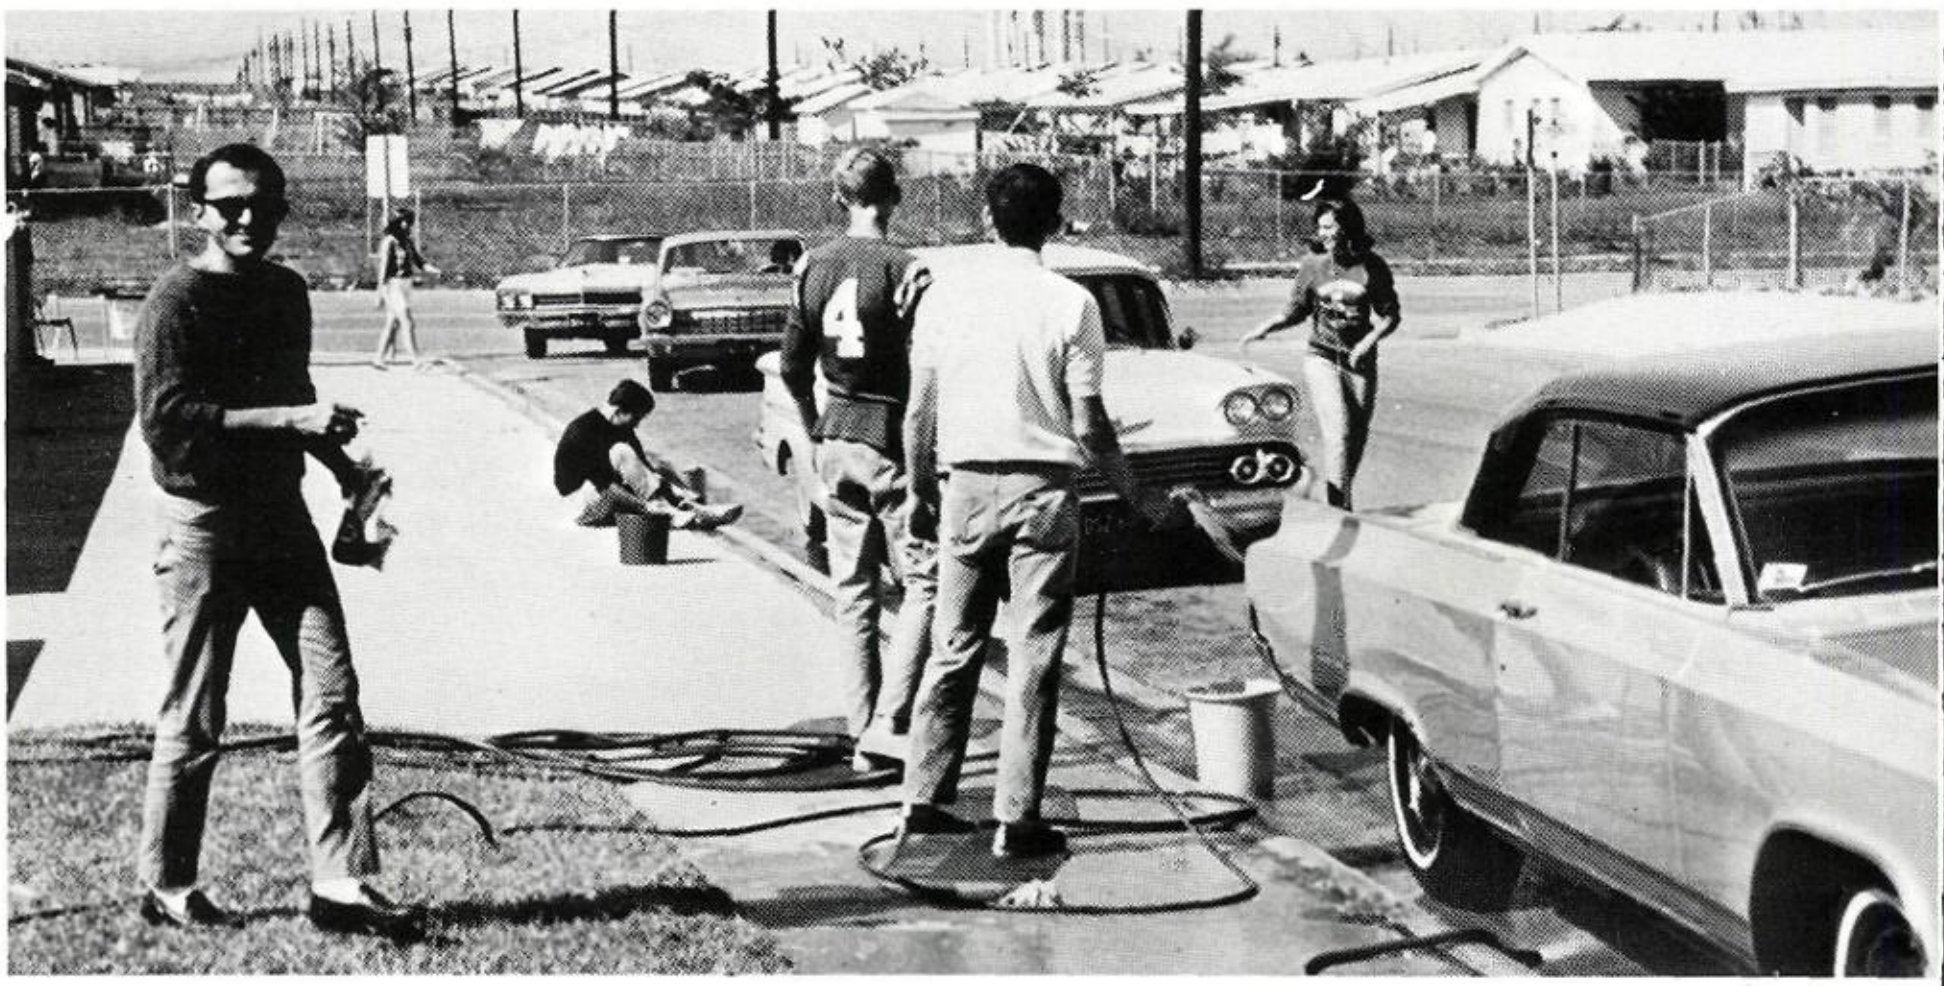
NHS Projects Pay For Induction

National Honor Society conducted two successful projects: the traditional car wash and the book cover sale. Selling the red and blue plastic book covers was a new idea as a club project at Sam Houston. NHS used most of its money to host the Homecoming reception and to sponsor the Christmas project that provided a dinner for a needy family. In March, NHS welcomed new members into the club at a reception following the induction ceremonies. For the final meeting and induction of '67-'68 officers, the club gathered at Cibola Inn to attend a banquet.



At annual Honor Society car wash, members David Purcell, Mickey Calverly, Beverly Pirtle, and Tommy Jeffrey prepare to wash waiting cars while sponsor, Mr. Carter brings out the soap.

During evening ceremonies, the National Honor Society received 51 new members the second semester. Seated on the stage, inductees listened as speakers from the club explained the four qualities an honor student must possess. The sponsors, Mrs. Linda Reeves, and Mrs. Maydelle Crouch, selected each inductee on the basis of these qualities: scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Following the induction, new and old members mingled at a reception held by N.H.S. in the library.

Three performances were presented on May 16 and proceeds were used to finance the 1967-68 foreign exchange students. The variety of acts were co-directed by Mrs. Doreen Young and Mrs. Jack Harris.

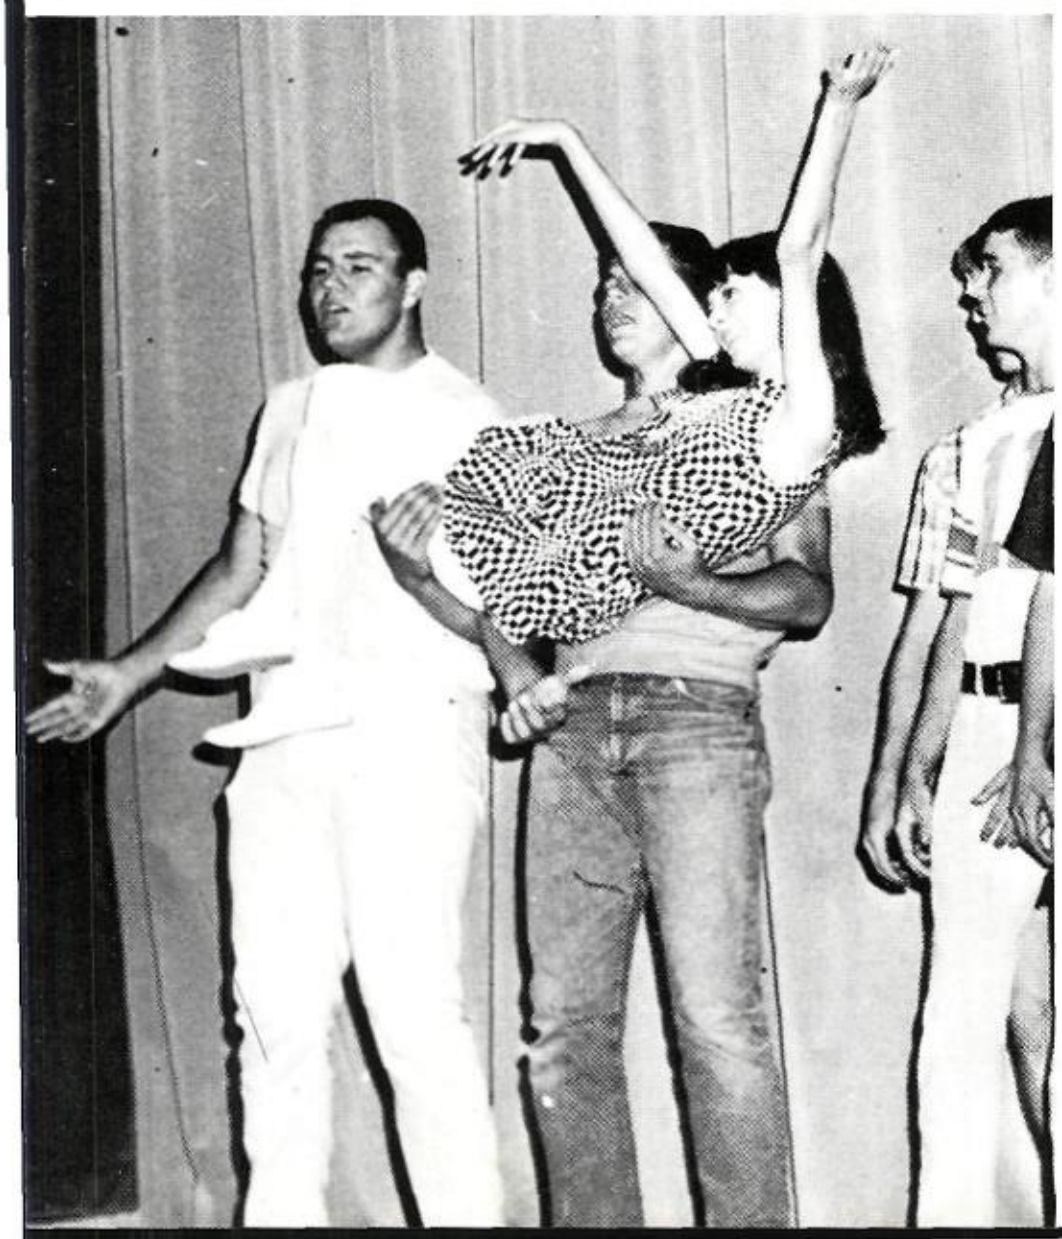
Huge blow-ups of the Peanut's company amid an array of colorful costumes greeted the audience in the opening "Gonna Do a Show", "Cabaret", and "No Business Like Show Business".

After a show including Broadway, pop, and western music, "After Graduation Day" and "Moments to Remember" dedicated to seniors completed the show.

Navel Whistlers' added variety by whistling "Bridge Over The Kwai".

Ricky Starnes, sophomore, winks, glad that he is Junior Gloria Allen's 'Johann'.

"Hey there Georgy Girl" sings a boys chorus as they lift Debbi Love, senior, for their finale.



Dale McMahon, junior, and an anonymous pair of legs performs "Who's to Blame"

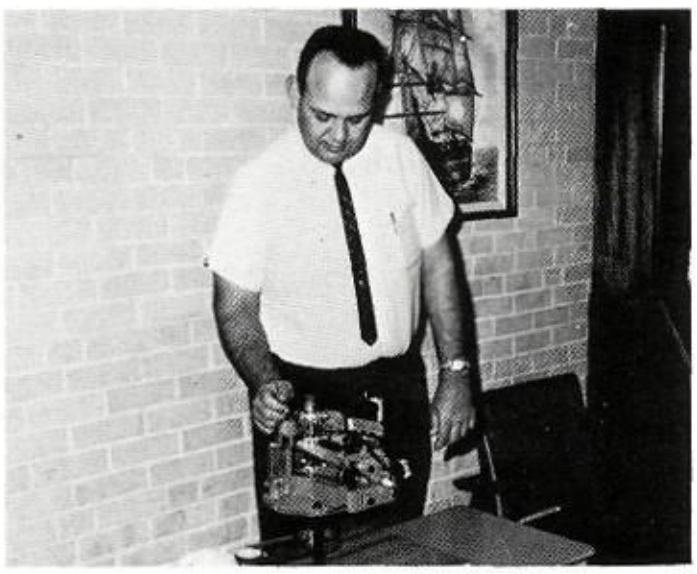
MRS. JACK HARRIS
Director.

Festival of Arts Emphasizes Appreciation

During the Festival of Arts, Principal Harold Key takes time out from a busy schedule to look over the display of art in the student lounge.

During the Festival of Arts, Sam Houston gives recognition and prestige to the fine arts.

Assemblies, the junior play, and concerts honor the fields of art. The festival relates the curriculum to the arts through displays by various departments. Photography, creative writing, art, music, and drama students and teachers worked especially from March 1-16 to provide Sam Houston with a touch of culture.



Pointing out the parts of the gasoline engine on display is Mr. Jerry Newell, power mechanics teacher.

Senior Cindy Lowe admires the commercial art display of fashions of the future.

Peanuts Characters Introduce First Summer Yearbook

The '67 Cherokee staff presented a program in the gym that packed the student body into the bleachers for one yearbook assembly. Snoopy and other characters from "Peanuts", performed the skit written by June Johnson. During the skit, the staff announced personalities, including Mr. and Miss S.H.H.S. Speakers revealed the yearbook theme, dedication, and new annual and paper staff members. Ending the skit, Carl Crofford, who portrayed the all-time loser, Charlie Brown, shouted, "Everyone will like me when the annuals arrive in August!"

Mike Huddleston, with clenched fists, and Jeannie Brinson with hands clasped, show emotion as they are announced Mr. and Miss Sam Houston by Sally, alias Barbara Guenzel, Margaret Rose and Evelyn Langston applaud the decision.

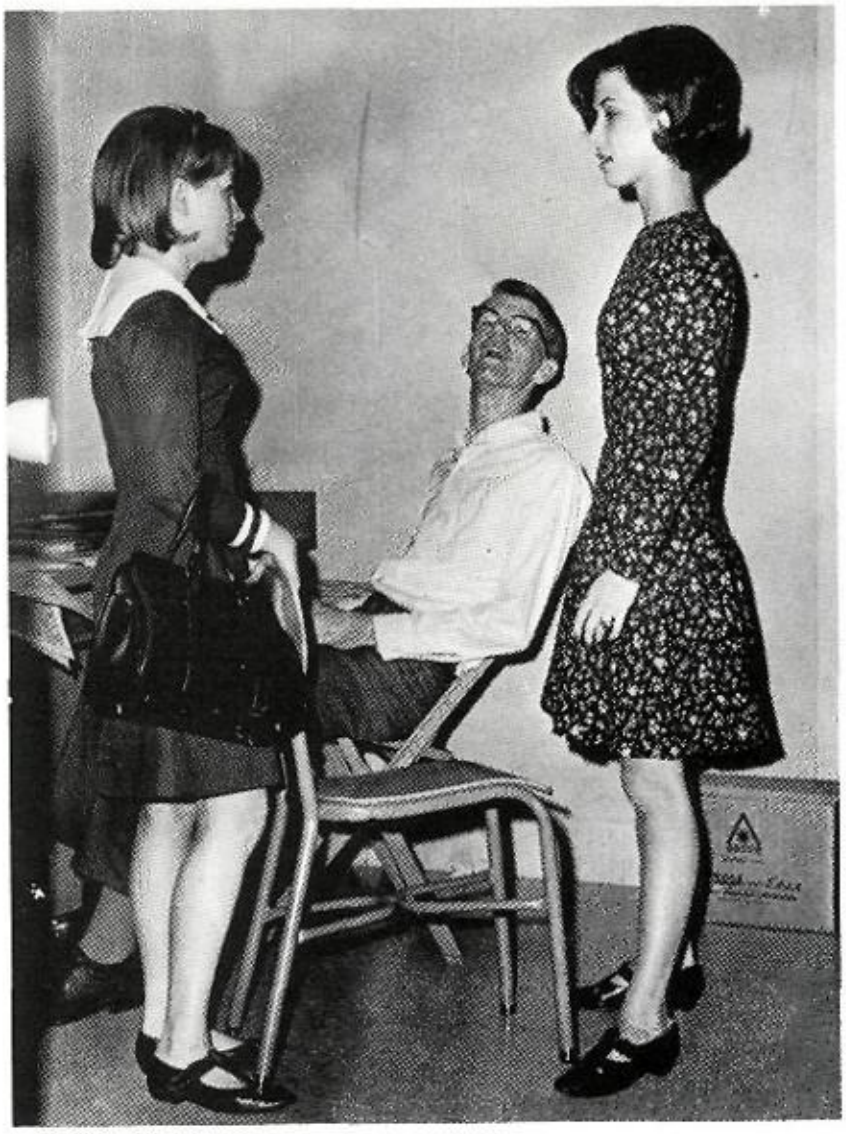
'67 Cherokee Staff Divides



Beverly Bentley, faculty editor, and Bertha Guenzel, an assistant, take annual work seriously while sports editor, Carl Crofford, adds humor to the critical situation.

Business Manager, Sue Witte, and assistant, Sue Dake, record annual receipts.

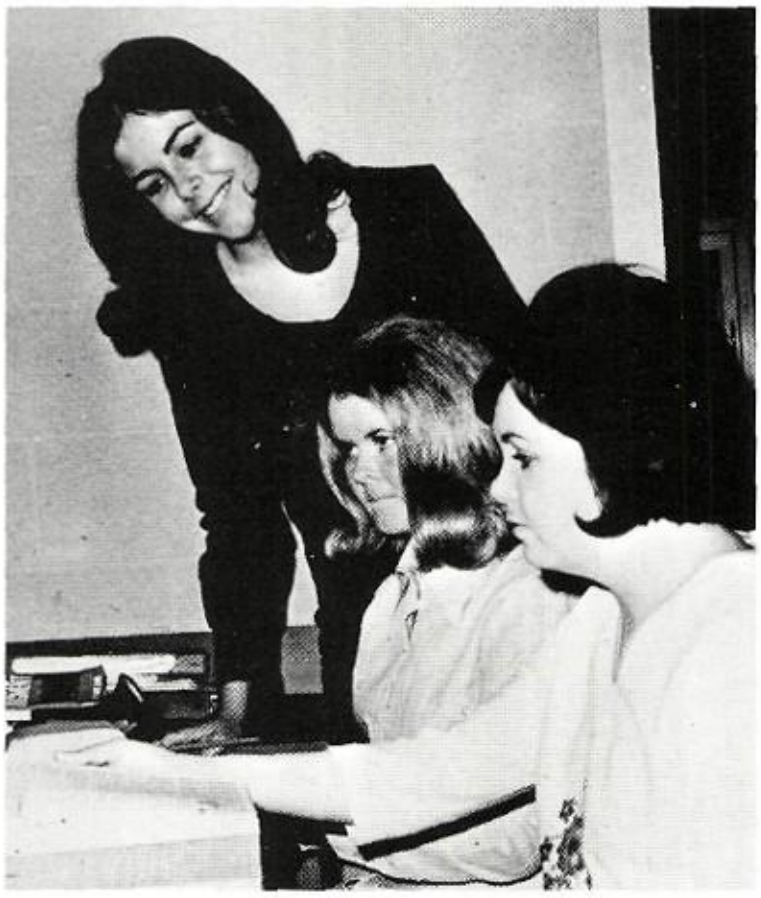
Producing a summer yearbook kept the '67 Cherokee staff busy working through June writing headlines, cutlines, and laying out pages. The summer book enabled the annual staff to include end-of-year activities in the Cherokee which arrived in August.

Editor, Sandi Pierce, performs one of her many duties, checking the work of other staff members.

Penny Schroedel, art editor, assists personalities editor, Barbara Guenzel with the counting of favorite votes.

1st Summer Annual into Seasons

Annual sponsor, Mrs. Annell Ward, checks the pictures of Karen Hodges, activities editor, and Bunny Alexander, Karen's assistant.



Betty Gilbert, copy editor, shows extreme concentration as her assistants Cathy O'dwyer and Nanci Bishop help her search for the proper word.

Kathy Brown, an assistant and secretary of Texas High School Press Association, assists Dianne Locke, index editor, with the classification of students.

Seniors Anticipate Graduation

After borrowing Mr. Crouch's office, senior officers, Sandi Pierce, secretary; Guerry Putnam, president; Mike Ward, vice president; Bonnie Steele, Girls social chairman; and Alvy Dodson boys social chairman, make plans for an eventful year.

Helping to plan the activities of the year such as the social and the Prom, the senior officers led the class in their final year at Big Sam. Organizing a class assembly, senior officers listed suggestions for the seniors' gift. Voting in this assembly, the class of '67 chose to present a new trophy case to Sam Houston.

Looking over plans for the Senior Prom are sponsors Mr. Robert Rober, Mrs. Marjorie Spann, Mr. Kenneth Picket, and Mrs. Pat Harry, (Mr. Elo Nohavitza not pictured.)

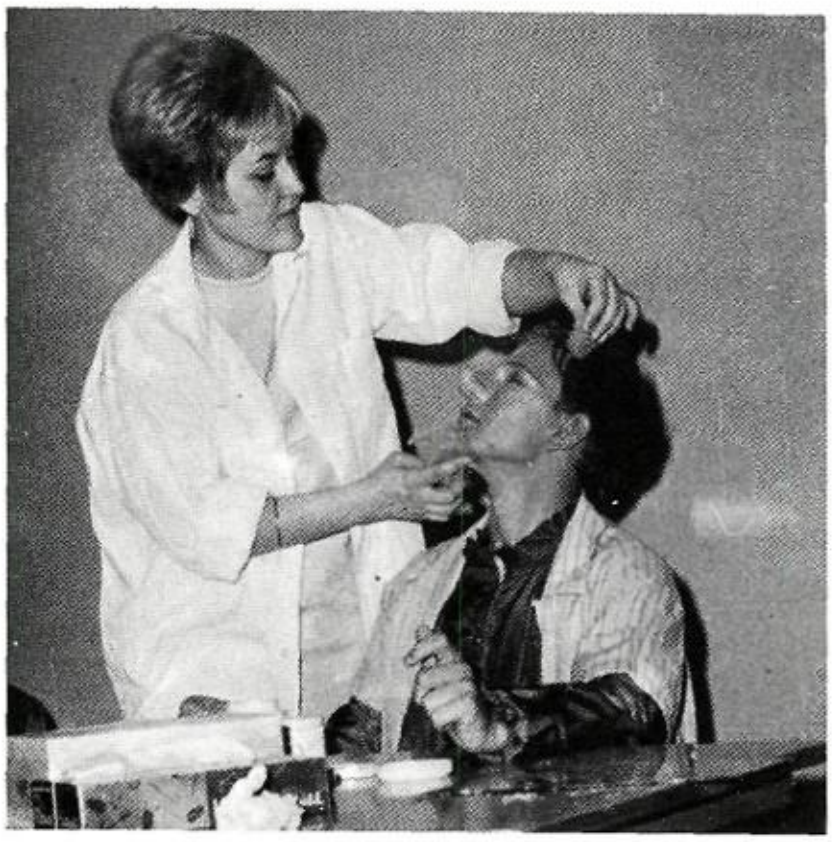
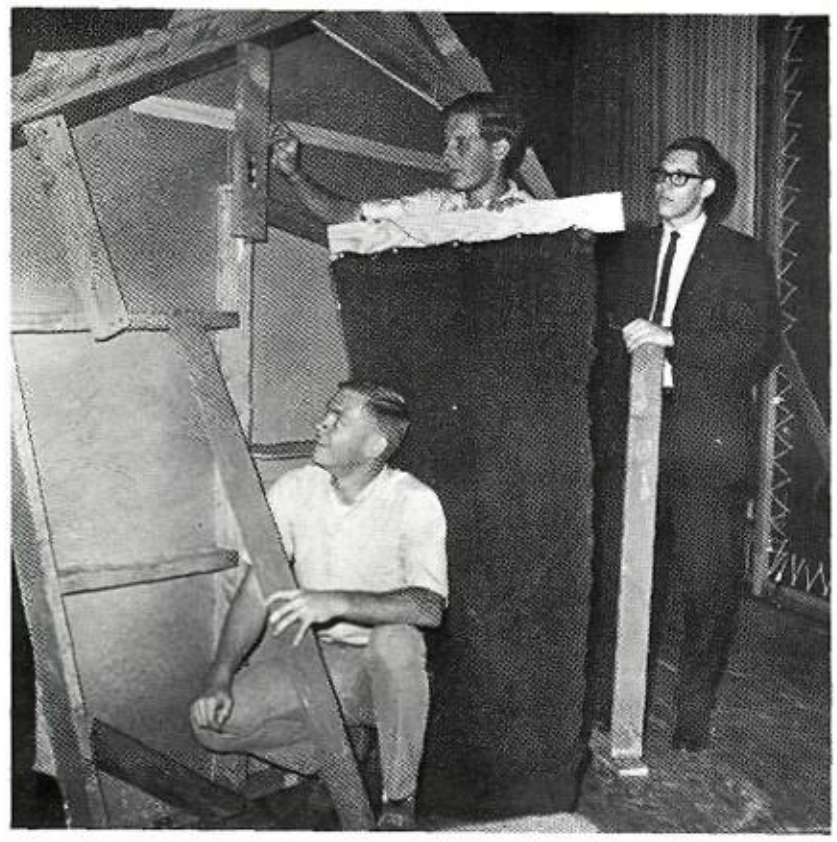
Ralph Roister Doister Awarded First In District



Preparation for the one act finds Miss Peveto, director, applying Tommy O'Neal's make up.

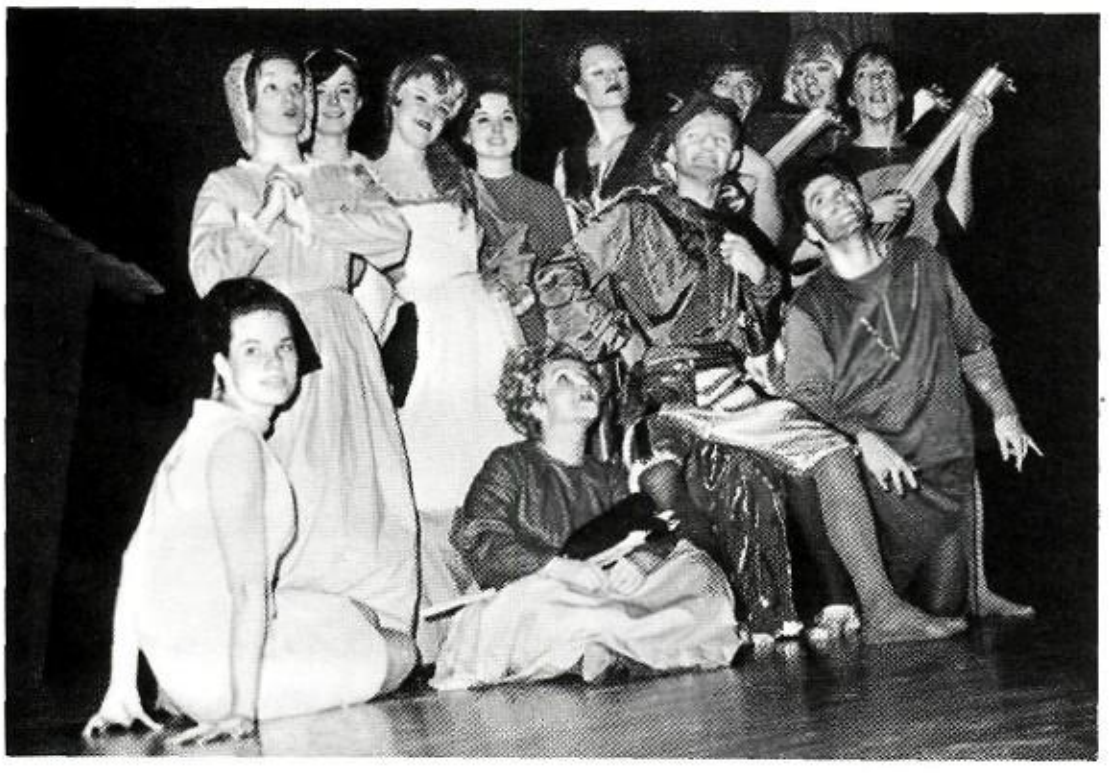


Working on the set, lights, and sound keeps Jerry McKinney, Neil Clark, and Mitchell Kolenovsky busy.

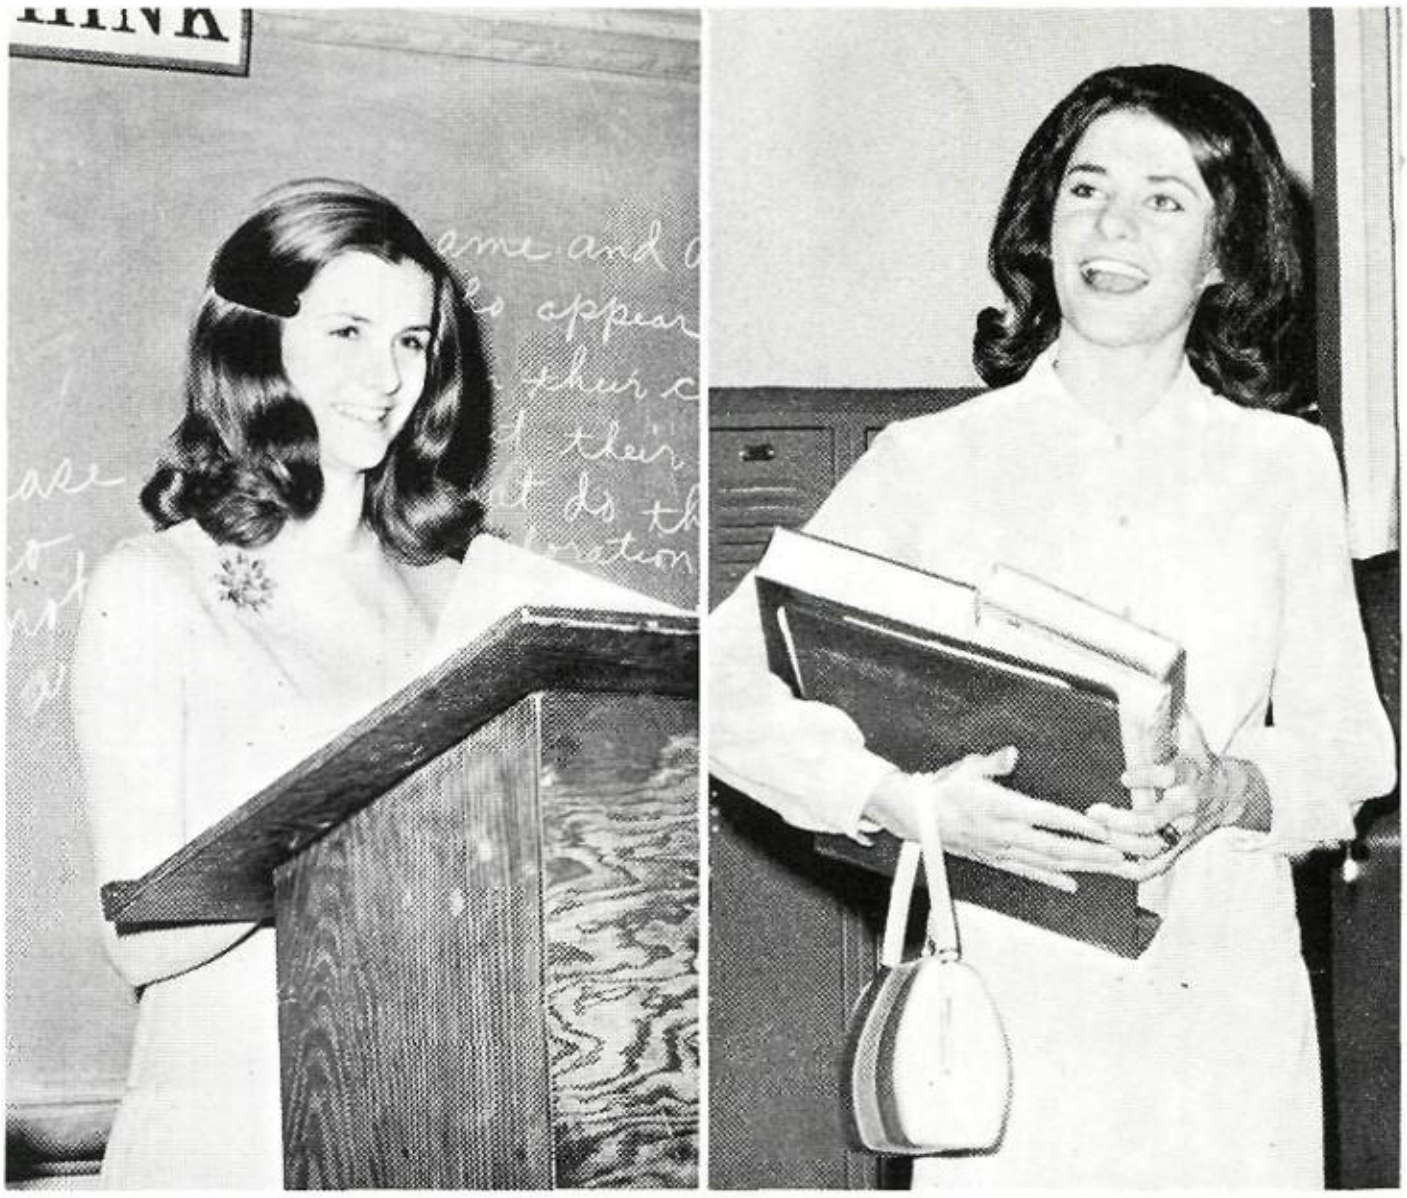
"Ralph Roister Doister" Sam Houston's second one act play returned from district and zone competition with top honors.

Three cast members also received top ratings. Gary Noble was named best actor at zone, district, and regionals. Liz Maddox won district best actress and Margaret Rose was presented alternate best actress at district. This comical farce was presented to the student body in an assembly following regional competition at Texas Christian University.

"Add what ever thou can." commands Liz Maddox, District best actress to Gary Noble Regional best actor.

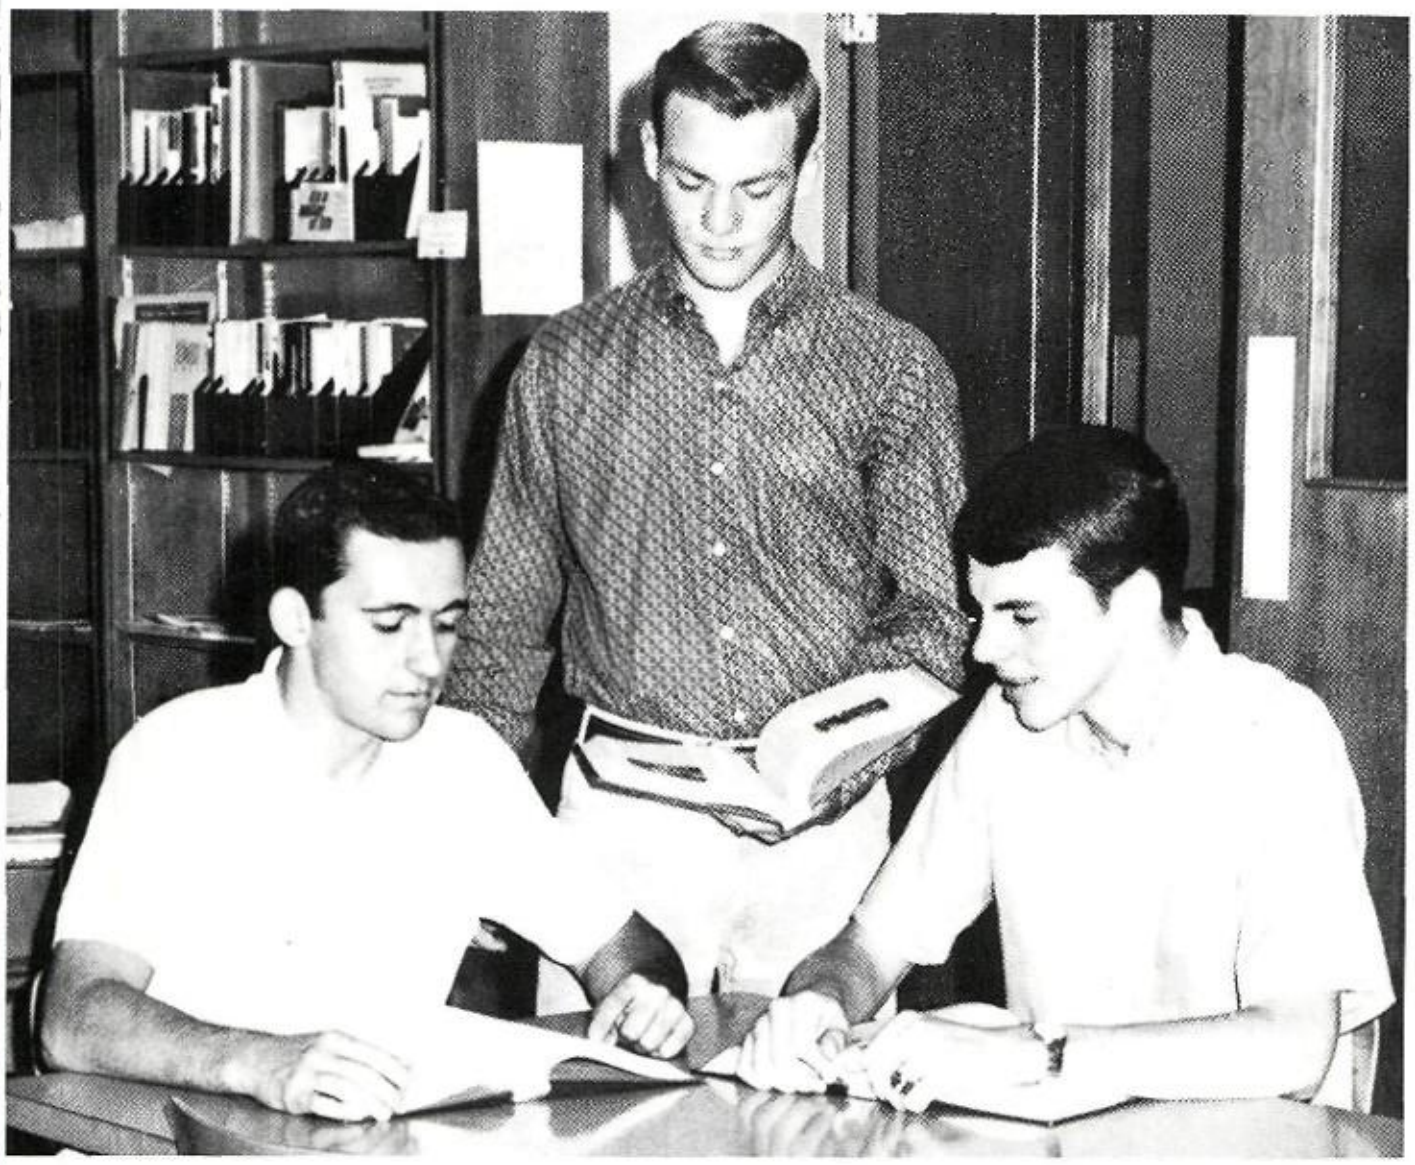


Mathew Merygreeke, Gary Noble, Ralph Roister Doister, Tommy O'neal, Tibet Talkapace, Cindy Byers, Madge Mumblecrust, Margaret Rose, Annot Alyface, Pat Foster, Servants, Steve Zirblis, Gerald Blow, Mike Ray, Costumes and Make-up, Suzzi Crouch, Annette George, Properties, Bunny Alexander.

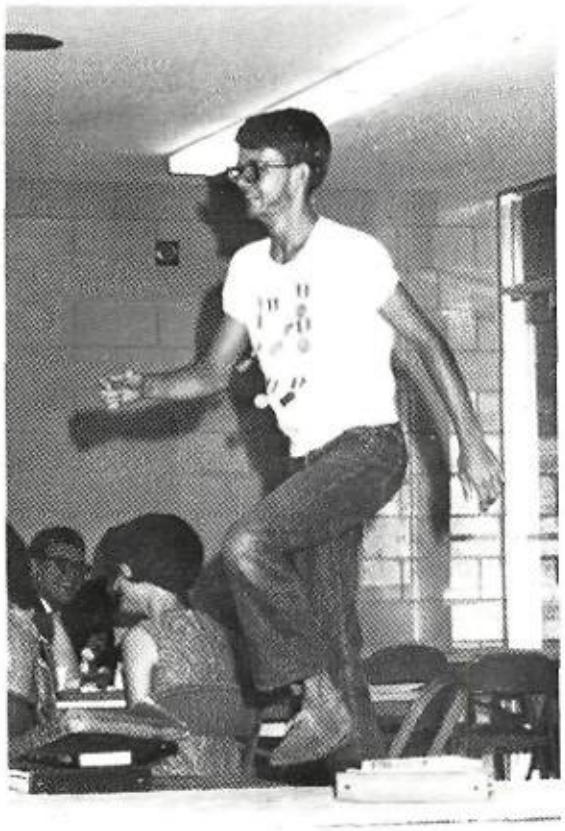


Hard work and study pays off for Jaci Neiswander, valedictorian, and Ann Duppstadt, salutatorian.

Seniors Earn Scholastic Honors



High academic achievements brought scholarships to three senior boys. David Purcell received an appointment to the Air Force Academy in Colorado, Robert Johannesen received an appointment to West Point, and Jim Crouch was given a choice to any four year ROTC program and chose A. and M.



Wells Watson patterns himself after medal winning Bruce Cox.

After preparing breakfast, juniors acted as waiters and cleaned off tables for the seniors.

Seven o'clock came early because of the new daylight saving time, but yawning Seniors trudged to the cafeteria for their traditional breakfast given by the juniors. Seniors' sagging expressions became smiles as they watched a skit in which juniors imitated members of the '67 graduating class.

Senior Appreciation Day Begins With Breakfast

Seniors Enjoy Elegance of Golden Palace Ballroom

Gathering at tables for refreshments and group conversation, seniors enjoy the lavish decor of the Golden Palace Room at the Inn of Six Flags.

As a favor to John Wayne and the crew celebrating a world premiere reception of "War Wagon", seniors voted to change the prom date from May 26 to May 27. Seniors then enjoyed the elegant Golden Palace Ballroom free-of-charge. Phil Hewett and Combo supplied music for couples who danced and lingered around tables. In the entrance hall couples drank punch under lighted chandeliers and had souvenir pictures made. To complete the prom, John Wayne's tape recording thanking the class was played and cake was served. Even though this was the second class using the ballroom, a world premiere made the Senior Prom unique.

Phil Hewett and Combo entertain.

Carolyn Young and Lance Bass enjoy dancing.

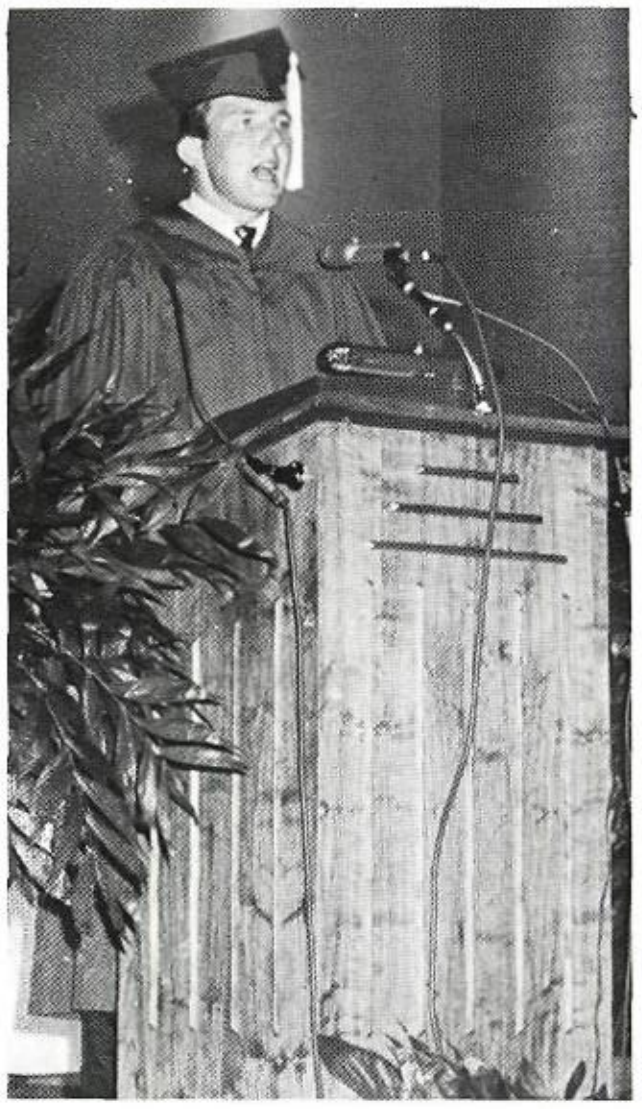
The class of 1967

"When I was a child I talked and felt and thought like a little child. Now that I am a man my childish speech and feeling and thought have no further significance for me."

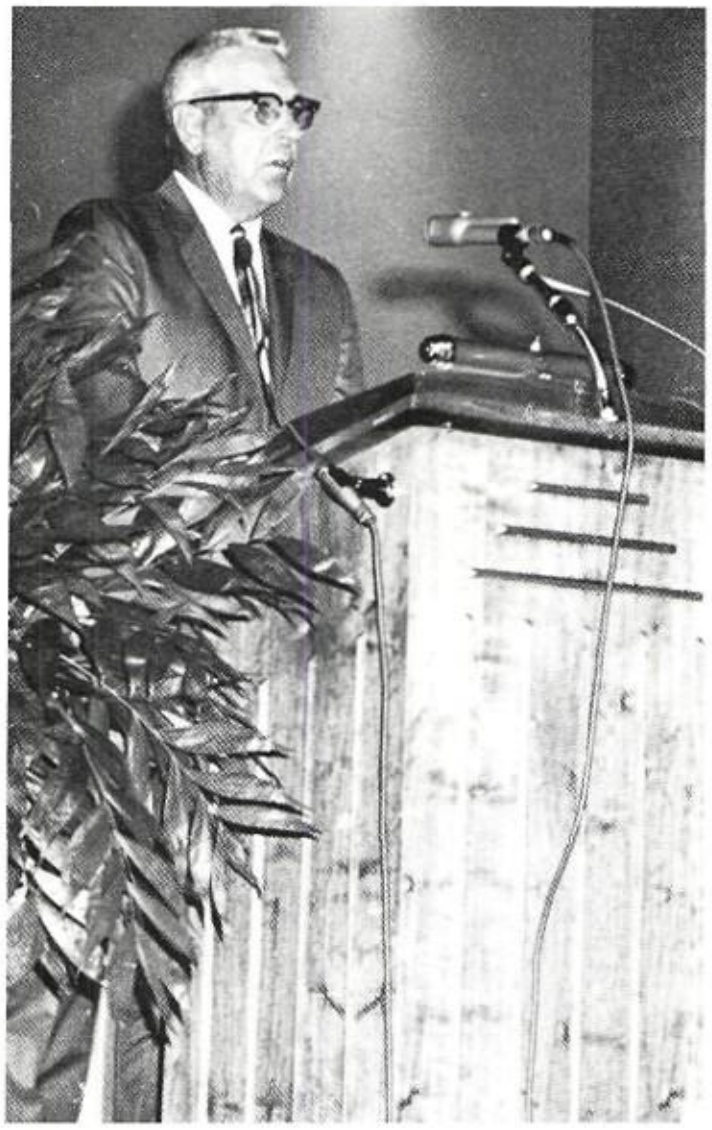
—Corinthians 1:13

Dr. Granville T. Walker, of the University Christian Church in Fort Worth, paralleled this scripture to his keynote address to graduating seniors on May 28 in the Baccalaureate exercises.

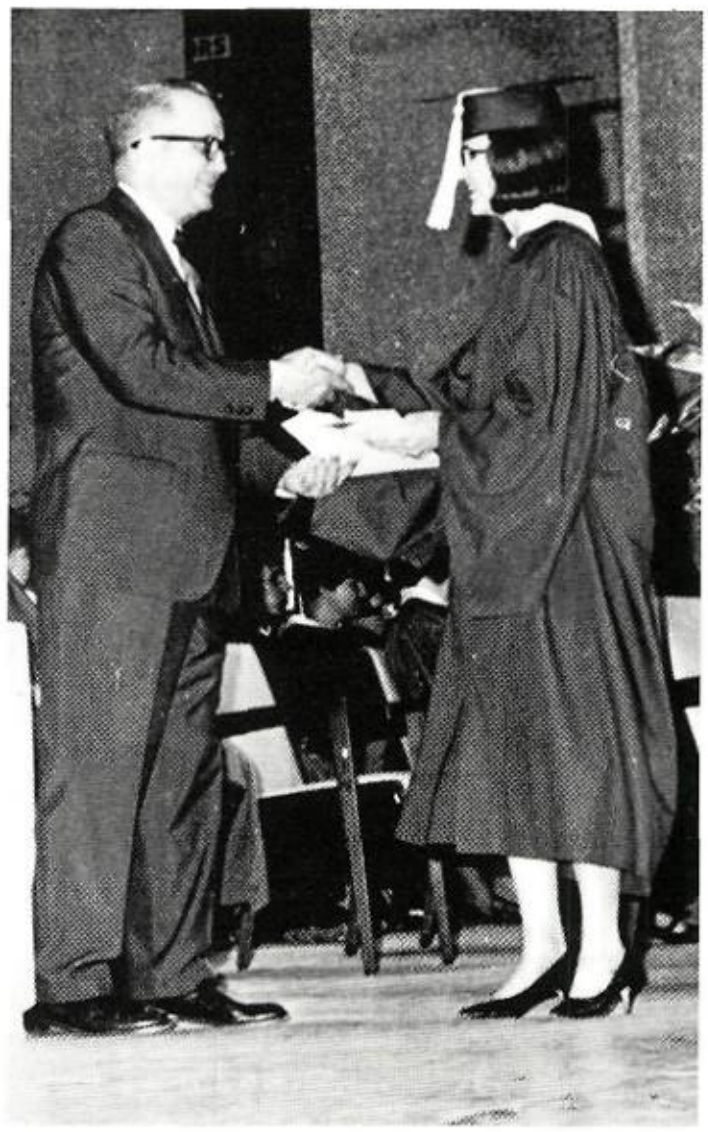
On Thursday night June 1, 1967, 440 Sam Houston seniors became graduates as they accepted diplomas in the UTA auditorium. "The future" was interwoven into the speeches of the salutatorian and valedictorian. Mr. Floyd Gunn, President of the Board of Education, accepted the class gift on behalf of the school board. Following this, Principal H. W. Key recommended the class of 1967 to Mr. James W. Martin, superintendent, for the awarding of diplomas. The Sam Houston alma mater and a benediction concluded the graduation ceremonies.



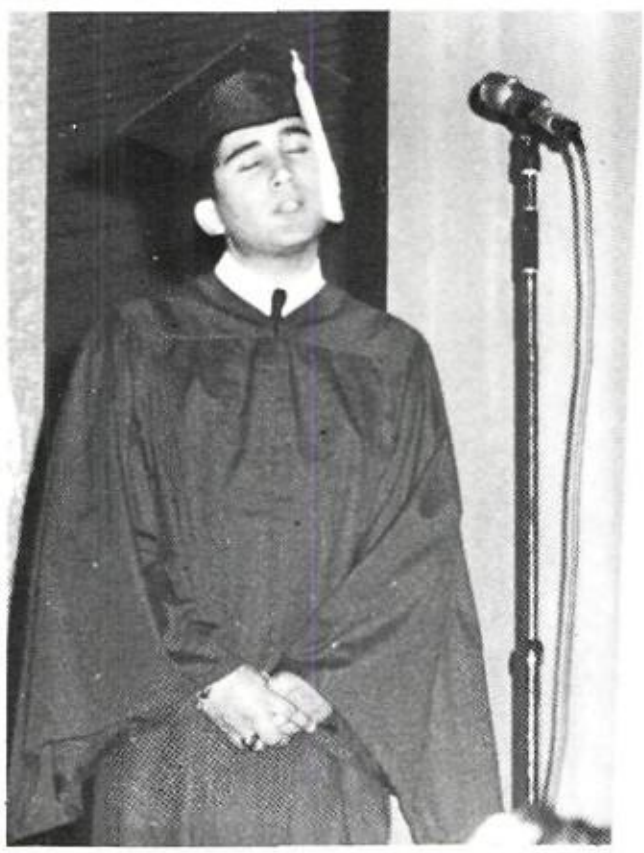
The senior class gift, a check for a trophy case is presented by graduate Alvy Dodson.



In behalf of the School Board, Mr. Floyd Gunn accepts a check from the class of '67.



With a handshake and a smile, Supt: James W. Martin, awarded diplomas to 1967 graduating seniors.



Tommy Jeffrey sings a traditional graduation song, "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Expressions of happiness and relief are shown on graduates' faces as they return caps and gowns.

After seasons have changed and time has passed, we pause a moment to reflect on cherished memories, new traditions and old friends. The past is ours to remember. More important, however, is the future which is ours to build. High school years give us a basis for forming our ideals but afterwards we must go about developing them. We are no longer the sophomore, junior, and senior classes of 1967, but the juniors, seniors, and individuals of 1968. We must leave the memories of the past to accept the opportunities and challenges of the future.
